Frebis Church Built With 'One Foundation'

CHURCH OF GOD—One of the newer churches in the South Side is the Frebis Avenue Church of God. Since its starting back in 1942 it has grown considerably. The new brick building, less than 11 years old, will soon have a new addition with increased educational and worship space.

Relatively new on the South Side is Frebis Avenue Church of God, Frebis-av and 17th-st. The church is in its 11th year of service to the community.

The present church building was erected during the pastorate of Rev. Henry B. Ellis of Birmingham, Ala. He was assigned to the church in September 1954. Rev. Ellis is still ministering the people of the community.

The church started out in 1942 worshipping in a basement building with a membership of 42. Since then they have erected the red brick church with an auditorium which seats 300. The present church consists of a pastor's study, church office, nursery, children's chapel and Sunday School rooms besides the main chapel.

Since the dedication of the church it has shown remarkable increase in attendance. The membership has increased from 42 to more than 380.

Many Programs

The church has many functional programs. They consist of a mid-week youth Christian Service meeting, teen-age and young adult programs as well as promoting a strong Inter-Church athletic program.

Special features for the children and young adults include classes for each age with full facilities and teaching materials, promotional day services twice a year, child dedication, special birthday recognition each Sunday, an active club known as the Lamplighters, International monthly social meetings, monthly social meetings, basketball and softball in season with the Southside Church League, among other things.

The church maintains a youth band consisting of 13 members. It includes horns, wind instruments, organ, piano and accordion with a choir singing special choral arrangements. Their musical programs have been featured at several churches and functions in the city, and nearby communities.

Teen-Agers Sing

A trio consisting of teen-agers of the church and called the Frebisaires have made several appearances in the city. They are made up of vocalists of the church.

Last summer they journeyed to Cleveland, Tenn., to take special ttraining in singing.

The Frebis Avenue Church of God is an affiliate of the National Associaton of Evangelicals, the Pentecostal Fielowship of North America. Both of these affiliates are world-wide in their scope and service.

The Frebis Avenue Church of God in the past six years has liquidated the indebtedness of the basement building. The present church, appraised at $70,000 has less than $18,000 indebtedness left.

The church plans in the future to expand its building by adding an educational plant as well as expanding the present main chapel.

BLAST KILLING, SEX

Readers Hit TV, Movies

A lot of people are upset about the recent trend in motion pictures and television programs

This week's Hartley Newspapers mail contained more letters from people who showed they were fed up with too many killings and indecent presentations of sex through our national forms of entertainment

These letters along with the many others that were received previously, will be mailed to Governor Michael DiSalle, Senator Frank Lausche and U S Representative Samuel Devine. All three have expressed sincere interest in the letters and requested copies

If you have an opinion about this subject, please make your stand known by writing a letter to this newspaper. Your letter will be placed with those already received for presentation to the three officials

May Be Downfall of Nation . . .

I would like to express my opinion of the killings and indecent sex pictures on television and motion picture theatres. If America is supposed to be a Christian nation, this kind of practice surely doesn't coincide

You can hardly turn on the television but what you have a program with shooting or killing or sex Our young people, especially those whose parents are unconcerned, don't have a chance to grow up without a distorted picture of life, nor do they have a chance to appreciate the finer things of life. No wonder our mental hospitals and penal institutions are filled to overflowing. This practice along with the liquor traffic may some day be the downfall of our nation

I am glad to know that some of our congressmen are concerned about the situation and I hope they will be able to have some influence in obtaining legislation to remedy the practice.

Any Wonder We See Broken Homes

It is high time that the readers of the Hartley Newspapers are showing a deep concern over the issue of getting rid of too many killings and sexy films which flood our television screens and movie theaters?

Shall we, citizens of Columbus, continue to allow such films to be shown on our screens? If so, then we just don't care about strengthening the morals of our community. The training of our youth today, may be taken for granted in a great many ways It is no picnic to pick up the front pages of newspapers to read about crime, murder, sex offenders, stealing, etc

In Cincinnati, Dayton and Cleveland, indecent films were discouraged from being shown in any theater. However, in Columbus, such films are being shown and their ratings seem to be higher, thus causing extended runs, lasting for weeks or months It is the fault of many of our citizens who continue to attend any theater showing these films

Is it any wonder that we see many broken homes? Parents find it too important to hold down two jobs instead of trying to raise their children by teaching them the difference of what is right or wrong Children see too much on television that is unfit to be seen This gives them the opportunity to do whatever they please while parents are too busy with other things

There are still some very fine programs on television, but how many people watch them? I think that more educational and inspirational programs would do all of us a great deal more good than viewing indecent films

Our Governors Senators and Representatives are beginning to show a greater interest in the big problem, and it is up to each one of us to let them know that we want some legislation which will curb future showings of indecent films, as well as obscene literature of any type. Any legislation that our lawmakers should introduce will be appreciated

The sooner that members of Congress act on important legislation to correct these abuses, the better off every citizen throughout the nation will be It is up to everyone of us to do everything in our power to do a little more positive thinking on vital issues which concern the welfare of every man, woman and child

—John Rogers,
393 E. Gates-st

At A Low Ebb Morally . . .

We welcome the opportunity to voice our opinion in regards to sex movies, bed-room fiction publications, murder, drinking, illicit love affairs on both movie and TV programs

Pray tell us how you can expect a secure home life on a continuous diet of this filth, and would like to add the liquor business is one of the biggest contributing factors. The State of Ohio ought to be ashamed to even question why the delinquency of our youth, the divorces, auto wrecks and a huge welfare and crime load. If our officials wanted to be honest they would have to admit the expenses to the taxpayer would outweigh the little revenue received two to one.

Columbus must be at a low ebb morally. An example, take the picture "The Lovers" at the so-called Bexley Art Theater, it being banned in Cleveland and Dayton, but it is good enough for Columbus. Any picture of as low a moral quality as this picture is and can draw a crowd for over four months certainly puts us on a pretty low level.

Trusting those who are in high places will think seriously on this matter, we remain.

—George E Neff and Grace E. Neff

Here's A Means for Good . . .

I feel that I am like most of the American people in this respect. For a long time I have been aware and disapproved of the type of programs that is so often shown on television and movie screens

I have felt that they were not fit for our youth to see and listen to, but like too many others, I have set back doing nothing because I felt there wasn't anything possible for me to do. I am glad of this opportunity to express my disapproval

There are many good, entertaining and educational programs on the air, but with such a wonderful medium for good, that would be possible through the right kind of programs at all times why do we have to subject our youth to such pictures of crime, sex and indecent dress?

This is a democracy and the people have the right to express themselves, so why can't we join forces and demand that these programs be taken off the air and out of the movies? We talk about juvenile delinquency and here is a means for good or bad which reaches into almost every American home

I am sure the networks will give their listeners and viewers what they demand, if the demand is strong enough. It is up to us Shall we remain complacent, thus giving our approval, or rise up together and make ourselves heard?

—Bessie McLinn

Wholesome Fare is the Exception . .

I saw an article in the Reynoldsburg Record regarding the Hartley Newspapers campaign against too many killings and indecent presentation of sex on TV and at the theatres. I wish to commend you on this

As a new citizen in this community I was disappointed to find that at local movie houses "anything goes" apparently As for television in the evening one must see murders or things on the "seamy" side of life revealing our baser nature The more wholesome fare on TV or at the movies is the exception rather than the rule.

As the mother of two small boys, I am concerned first for their welfare and secondly, for the effect on the community when such licentiousness is unrestrained

In all other respects I have found Columbus vicinity to be an excellent place to raise a family

—Mrs Kenneth E Rahe,
1148 Nocturne-rd E

A Shameful Disgrace . . .

We at the Friends Rescue Home wish to join with others in voicing our concern to rid our TV and cinema screens of the demoralizing portrayals of sex and crime which contribute so greatly to the delinquency of the people of our nation.

City Zoning Board Approves More Junk Yard Firms

Local Businessmen Hear Planning Head

Jack B Bachtel Columbus planning director, says that in his job he sometimes feels like a mosquito on the edge of a nudist camp He knows what to do but doesn't know where to begin

That's how he summed up the many problems facing Columbus, one of the fastest growing cities in the nation when he talked at the monthly meeting of the South Side Business and Industrial Ass'n at the Fiesta Club

Bachtel said Ohio's capital has two types of planning problems One is extending municipal services to newer sections of the city, and putting in new facilities. The other is taking care of needs of the older part of the city

"Spread Thin"

"So you have to spread government money pretty thin," he commented.

Columbus now has twice the population and twice the area it did 20 years ago, he said, and 30 years from now it should be a city of one million people.

"For years we have watched Columbus grow to the north and east, and now growth is starting to come to the South Side," he said. "Many things are on the rise on the South Side I think a lot of things that blight the South Side are being clearen up"

The city's five-year capital improvements plan includes a number of projects for the South Side But there are others considered vital which won't begin until later because of lack of financing, he went on

Additional water and sewer

Twelve residents of the Groveport-pk area stood in opposition last Friday at the Zoning Adjustment Hearing held at City Hall, only to have two additional junk yards approved for their area

Property owners of the area were in concern not only with the additional junk yards coming into South Columbus but the condition of the present ones.

Outbursts in the hearing were from several opposers They stated that the conditions of the present junk yards did not meet with city stipulations. The residents of the area also stated that the present yards were burning rubber and trash creating a smoke hazard. The zoning board in answer to this question told the angry residents that they should notify the fire department on such instances

City Councilman William Hoermle and Council of South Side Organizations President William Neno appeared on the scene to act as defense for the South Side

Little League Club Seeks Ball Grounds

The Southern Independent Little League is in need of some acreage in the "Old Marion Township" area to lay out three little league ball diamonds for its baseball program

For the past five years that the league has been in operation the Columbus Board of Education has supplied them with ball diamonds on local school sites but due to the growth of the organization they would like to have a training field of their own.

They have had the full cooperation of the merchants in the area for the past five years according to H. Miller, secretary of the organization. They are hoping that someone will come to their rescue to supply the eight to 12 year old boys of the community a place for their supervised recreation during the summer months.

New Sewer Being Built By The City

The new city sewer line now under construction from Watkins-rd to Refugee-rd will be completed around July 1, city officials said today

The project, known officially as Marion No. 3 Sanitary Sub Trunk Sewer Extension, is being financed by the trust fund from which comes the city's acreage fee, according to Carl W. Schoene, chief engineer of the Division of Sewerage and Drainage

Property owners will not have to pay anything on the project until they make application for connection to the new line, Schoene explained

Started Jan. 8

The sewer line which is part of the city's sub trunk program was started on Jan. 8 by Thompson and Conte, contractors, and will be 5888 feet in length The line will serve the northeast area of the city

The acreage fee system was adopted by city council in 1955.

CSSO Continues Fight To Clean Up Junk Yards

Hitting the Council of South Side Organizations executive meeting for the second straight meeting was the South Side junk yard sites.

The council agreed to continue its fight to clean up the existing junk yards and try to prevent new ones from invading the community.

A letter was received by Mrs. Carl Miller, 3241 Groveport-pk, and read to members of the executive committee. She was asking the support of the council against the placing of a junk yard at 2317 Groveport-pk.

Bill Neno, CSSO president, and Roger Swaney, CSSO publicity chairman, agreed to attend the hearing concerning this at city hall.

Also brought up on the same trend was the "clean-up—Paint up" campaign for the South Side Tom Sharp of Hartley Newspapers has agreed to work with the CSSO to promote this project

MEMORIAL FUND

Although no definite decision was made, several good suggestions were offered for the still lagging William Lucks Memorial Fund.

The fund is earmarked for the South Side Y Park to be placed in some type of memorial in his behalf

Those suggestions brought up were an altar built of stone or concrete where open air religious services could be held—a kindergarten type sliding board with a mound built to the top on the rear side for safety and as a reminder of Ohio's mounds—a garden of memorial trees.

COMMUNITY NIGHT

Howard Henry and Roger Swaney reported on plans for publicity for the Second Annual Community Night to be held at Jet Stadium Ideas were brought up as to possible ways of selling tickets to the baseball game

Local Missionary Family Returns To South Columbus

Four little girls are busy enjoying new experiences, while their mother is getting reacquainted with life in America once again. Marianne Baughman, wife of missionary Don Baughman, arrived on Feb. 21, bringing the four children with her to reside in Columbus while daughter, Lisa, age two, undergoes treatment for a congenital dislocated hip. The little one was put in a cast at White Cross Hospital, which she will wear for six weeks. Surgery will then be performed and another cast will be put on for a year. The other little girls are Ruthie, who celebrated her sixth birthday on Feb. 19, the day the Baughmans boarded their plane in Nigeria; Judy, 5, and Jane Suzanne, three months. Ruthie, who will be a Southwood School student, finds that snow is lots of fun to play in, but Judy doesn't think much of the idea of wearing leggings! With Ruthie's admission to Southwood School, she will become the fourth generation to have attended that school, following in the footsteps of a great-great-aunt, grandmother, father, as well as aunts and uncles.

Many South High graduates will remember Don and Marianne. for Don was a 1947 graduate, while Marianne (nee Grimes) received her diploma in 1950.

Gerry Baughman, grandmother of little Lisa, was glad she has an honest-looking face, for the recent airplane bombings have made the airlines especially cautious about letting visitors aboard the planes. Bearing warm clothing for all five of the family, she was permitted to board the ship against rules and regulations.

Her daughter-in-law was amused, for Gerry's was the last familiar face she saw several years ago when their boat left New York's harbor, and it was the first familiar face she saw in America!

The Baughmans live at 1575 S. Sixth-st.

An appeal for rummage is made by the Mothers' Variety Club, which uses the project money for all sorts of child welfare activities. Mrs. Clifford Berger assures us the group will gladly pick up all donations. Her phone is HI. 4-8348, or call Mrs. Ed Klein, HI. 3-5504. We'll be reminding you of this for a few weeks.

The 13th annual fish fry, held by the Wesley-Wed Class of South Methodist Church as a yearly project, will take place Friday, Mar. 4, at the church, from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. For newcomers in the area, South Methodist is located at Morrill-av and S. Sixth-st. The motto for this year is "All the Fish You Can Eat." The menu includes hashed brown potatoes, buttered corn, cole-slaw, bread, butter, coffee and a choice of pie. The three kinds of pie available are cherry, lemon or chocolate. This dinner costs $1.25 for adults, 65c for children. For those who prefer steak instead of fish, this may be had for $1.50 adults and 75c for children, with the rest of the menu the same. The public is invited and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Our sympathy to the MacLeod family for the loss of Mr. MacLeod last week, and to the Mullen family, who lost a devoted mother and wife.

A welcome to the Don Bennett family, new Columbus residents, formerly of Portsmouth, O. The Bennetts were barely moved into their Siebert-st home when one of their little ones, Debbie, celebrated a birthday on Feb. 23. A family party highlighted the day for Debbie, who shared her cake and candles with her uncle, Robert Gordon, who had a Feb. 24 natal day.

Special dates for the grown-up section of Leaderland will be celebrated by these people: a 26th wedding anniversary today by Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis; a birthday on Mar. 4, by Frank Knore; Mar. 5 is special for Roy Barnhart and Julia Wilson; Mary Beth Whitacre attains her 18th birthday on Mar. 6; Clifford Berger has a Mar. 7 birthday, while Mar. 9 is cake and candles day for Louis Poczik.

Since we know that John Woldschmidt, 836 S. Fifth-st, is such a faithful reader and that he has been on the ailing list, we do hope he receives lots of cheery cards. We understand that John's daughter, Jane McGrew, was a Columbus visitor not too long ago. The former Columbusite is experiencing her first winter "Michigan style."

On Wednesday, Mar. 9, the Homemaking Committee of Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, will sponsor the weekly Wednesday dinner, from 5 to 7 p.m. The dinners are held at the Moose Hall, 36 W. Sycamore-st, and prices are $1 for adults, 50c for children. Homemaking Chairman Audrey Wrobbel has chosen this menu: roast beef and dressing, mashed potatoes, tossed salad, lime jello with pear, and coffee.

The ailing list includes Pearl Southall and Celia Smith, who were hospitalized for short sessions, but who now are home, plus Julia Wilson, convalescing from an operation. Another hospital patient is Roy Sasser, in Mercy Hospital.

The Women's Guild of the Hungarian E and R Church is holding a bake sale Saturday, Mar. 5, at the Super-Duper Store, 1776 Parsons-av, during store hours. Mrs. Louis Poczik is chairman.

Timmy Donovan and Maria Wesner got a taste of the spotlight earlier this week when they appeared on TV Kindergarten. (Timmy must be following in his daddy's acting footsteps, eh Phyllis?)

The month that roars in like a lion brings birthdays to these members of the younger set: Gerald Egginger, Mar. 4; Ricky Miller, Mar. 4; Richard Sickler, Mar. 9; Robert Hall, Mar. 5; Gregory Sturgill, Mar. 4; Bob Schneider, Mar. 5; Beverly Lambert, Mar. 5; Brenda Evans, Mar. 6; Erlina Miller, Mar. 5; Charles Lyons, Mar. 6.

Tom and Julia Wilson, 1624 S. Eighth-st, had two of their service sons and their wives at home for a while, but the family reunion was saddened by the death of the boys' grandmother. Robert and Judy Wilson, Donald and Marion Wilson encountered much bad weather in their travels from Ft. Belvoir, Va., to Columbus, so the trip was an arduous one. A third son, Tom, is stationed at Fort Hood, Tex. The grandmother, Mrs. Wilson, was a resident of Athens, O. With her death, the Wilson family is now a four-generation family, instead of the five-generation span that it was.

Congratulations to newly-wedded Clara Jane and Richard Stahr, who were married last Friday, Feb. 26, in Emmanuel Lutheran Church. Mrs. Stahr, nee Karch, and her bridegroom are making their home at 324 Forest-st.

The ever-active Ladies of the Harmony Glee Club, 435 E. Kossuth-st, have another of their noted dinners coming soon, this one scheduled for Sunday, Mar. 6, from 12 noon on. This one is a chicken dinner, with mashed potatoes and gravy, vegetable, salad, pie and coffee. Cost is $1.25 for adults, 65c for children. (The past presidents of the Glee Club had a pleasant dinner not so long ago, with Mayor and Mrs. Westlake as their guests. One of the facts the banqueters learned that night was that Mrs. Westlake was a South Sider during the Westlakes' courting days.)

The Sweet Adelines, feminine section of the Columbus Chapter SPEBSQSA, barbershop singers, will be participating in the 15th annual Parade of Champions this Sunday, Mar. 6, by opening the show at Veterans' Memorial Hall, 2:15 p.m. A South-Sider, William Ourader, 42 W. Markison-av, is the assistant director of the chorus and his wife is a member of the chorus.

The general membership of the League of Women Voters will hold a meeting at Lincoln Lodge Tuesday, Mar. 8, at 12:15 p.m. "Foreign Policy" is the topic to be discussed and the speaker will be Dr. Meno Lovenstein of Ohio State University. The Columbus LWV is studying foreign policy and foreign trade in three groups this year, as so much is happening in that area.

DINNER DATE SET

State Welfare To Check On Hospital Bills

A contract between Children's Hospital and the State Welfare Department for the care of crippled children has lapsed. Welfare department officials said they are in question over what the hospital charges.

Mrs. Mary Gorman of the Welfare Board said that the dispute is over whether the state should pay per diem rates or billed charges.

Mrs. Gorman is checking into all of the states medical-hospital bills. Records show that the medical bills exceed $11 million annually.

Dr. N. P. Eisenberg, medical director for the Children's Hospital program, stated much of the hospitals financial program stemmed from the fact that it has no large subsidies.

Maennerchor To Turn Irish On St. Pat's Day

Committee members who will head the day's regatta will be Oscar Ruffing, Paul O'Dea, Dan Conroy, Charles O'Neill, H. J. Ebert, Homer Deibert, E. A. Moriarty, M. F. Murtha, Paul McNamara, James Callahan and W. A. Schneider.

These men will dust off their derby's and lead the fancy hi-stepping for the St. Patrick's Day celebration.

WAGNER MEMORIAL—One of the older churches in the South Side under the able leadership of probably one of the youngest ministers is Wagner Memorial EUB Church, Stanley and Oakwood. The church ministers to a very active group of people of the neighborhood in all age ranges.

EUB Church Nears 44 Years In Area

In the year 1914, lots were purchased at the corner of Oakwood and Stanley-avs for the purpose of establishing the Wagner Memorial United Brethren Church, now the Evangelical United Brethren Church. By the fall of 1915, enough money had been subscribed to buy material necessary to erect a small chapel on the lot to the rear of the present building. The first services were held in the chapel in the spring of 1916 under the direction of the late Rev. A. J. Wagner.

Under the capable leadership of Rev. Wagner, and the loyalty of the first board of trustees, plans were made to raise the funds to erect the building which now stands as a memorial to the parents of Rev. Wagner and other members of the Wagner Family. The cornerstone was laid in the fall of 1922 and the church was ready for dedication the first Sunday of November, 1923.

Following Rev. A. J. Wagner as pastor, in order of service was Rev. Ralph A. Smith, Rev. B. C. Peters, Rev. J. A. Bowser, Rev. W. E. Jones, Rev. W. F. Rutherford, Rev. Arthur L. Duhl, Rev. Marvin Paxton and the present pastor, Rev. Robert Long.

The church is fully organized with a program designed to minister to the spiritual welfare of the community. The Ohio Southeast Conference Administrative Office of the Evangelical United Brethren Church is also located in the building.

Rev. Robert Long came to minister to the church in August, 1959 This was not a new venture for Rev. Long as he was reared in the vicinity of the church. He came to the church immediately following his graduation from seminary.

Being in such close contact with the results of uncontrolled emotions we often find that alcohol is closely associated with both the sex and crime problems. So see it used so freely in many programs and advertised so attractively naturally encourages its usage.

All these vices have been played up as being innocent fun and frolic, while we know they are actually a shameful disgrace in the eyes of society and sin in the sight of God. It is hard to understand how so many people think they can play with these destructive fires and not get burned.

But by the very nature of the work in which we are engaged, we know that passions aroused by such flagrant displays are not to be denied and homes like ours shelter the victims. We are grateful that you have given opportunity for us to voice our opinions and help fight against the lowering of Christian standards and moral principles.

BIBLE COMMENT

Reading Bible Does Not Call For Apology

How many persons, surprised by a friend as they read the Bible, have shown embarrassment—self-consciousness at their literary fare?

In this age of best-sellers and television it becomes the custom for many to apologize for reading the best seller of all times.

Because of nonreading, misreading and careless reading of the Bible, it can be argued that the Book, despite its wide distribution, has done little to spread the word of Christianity. Of course, it is not the Book that is at fault but the people who pick it up carelessly or self-consciously, or those who deposit it in a lower drawer in the living room, with other unused papers.

Involved as we are in great issues of our times—control of delinquency, crime, the search for a method to end war and to find individual peace in a world of restless forces—it should be natural for us to turn to a book that would provide comfort and a chance for self-inspection.

To absorb deeply and intelligently the meaning of the Bible's pages in an effort that should deserve at least the same amount of time each day as we may spend watching, say, a television wrestling match.

Instead of smiling an apology when a friend walks into the room, offer him the Book you are reading, that he, too, may have a chance to find peace in a disturbed age.

Charges of official neglect were filed against Columbus Workhouse Superintendent Smith L. Myers Monday by Safety Director Albert G. Giles.

Giles named Columbus Police Chief George W. Scholer acting superintendent. Scholer assigned Captain Ralph Shirk to direct workhouse operations.

Fishing Good At Burr Oak

Fishermen watch the weather almost as closely as climatologists, and a few brave anglers have been trying their luck during warm spells all winter long.

Winter fishing (not ice fishing) at Burr Oak Lake has been especially good during these Billy, fish manager, with headquarters at Athens.

Burr Oak has been offering up crappies, bluegills and largemouth bass. Just before the recent snows, one fisherman caught a two-and-one-half-pound bass.

World Of Nature Seen In Your Own Backyard

Back yards are interesting places, even in cities. Many forms of fascinating animals and plants refuse to budge from man's housing developments.

Pheasants and quail come to clean up the grain spilled from birds feeding stations. Rabbits nibble off tender flower shoots. Moles undermine tulip beds. Violets, spring beauties and Dutchman's breeches bloom in spite of fertilizer and grass seed.

Once in a while you will find a more unusual critter trespassing on your ground. Just the other night my neighbor's dog treed an opossum along the drive. Ron Carlson was taking his Beagle, Sam, for his nightly walk, when they encountered the 'possum. The animal ran up a small white oak tree, the first one he came to, and stopped climbing about 15 feet off the ground. Ron notified me, and we had a good look at the 'possum.

Back yards become more interesting during the summer, for you spend more time outdoors then. I remember one day last July while mowing the grass, I heard an awful thrashing in the top of a tall tree. Looking up, I spotted a red-tailed hawk recovering his dignity and flying away. A red squirrel was heading for his den, and he was really making the bark chips fly as he scurried along. The squirrel had evidently been sunning himself on a limb when the hawk spotted him. Who ever heard of a large hawk in your back yard? But he was there.

Starting about now the crows begin to fly. They are looking for good nesting territories, or something, but they sure do a lot of flying. Much of this activity can be seen from city and suburban houses.

Flying squirrels are nocturnal, like opossums, and are seldom seen even though you may have some for neighbors. A couple of years ago I was removing an old tree from our yard and disturbed three adults and a nest of young flying squirrels. Watching them glide around in broad daylight was a real treat.

The world of insects is perhaps the most colorful and certainly the most varied forms of life, and yes, plenty of them live in your back yard. Walking sticks and the praying mantis are two common forms that always stir interest in neighborhood youngsters when they are found. The moths and butterflies are beautiful beyond description. What could be more interesting than watching a butterfly hatch from an ugly chrysalis, unfold its wings, flutter them in the sunlight to dry, and then fly away? This is the start of a trip that may take the fragile insect to Mexico or Central America.

There is an unknown world in your back yard. The world renowned naturalist Jean Henri Fabre conducted all of his studies in his back yard. This Frenchman spent his life taking a close look at the land he lived on. You have a lot of neighbors you never dreamed of. It might be fun to take a look at some of them.

Ted Mack Amateur Hour Returns To Television

By ROGER SWANEY

CHANNEL 6

Returning to the television screen on Mar. 7 will be Ted Mack and the Original Amateur Hour. The show will be carried over WTVN-TV (Channel 6) on Monday evenings at 10:30.

The Amateur Hour was originated by the late Major Edward Bowes. Through him and his associate, Ted Mack, the show has gained fame by its many TV viewers who have watched the program previously . . .

The "Walt Disney Presents" program, also seen over Channel 6, has recently been cited for awards by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. The Foundation annually names individuals, organizations and schools for their contribution to a better understanding of the American way of life.

"Walt Disney Presents" received the foundation's top television award for "The Boston Tea Party" and "The Shot That Was Heard Around the World," presented in segments in "The Story of Johnny Tremain" in the 1958-59 season.

The programs, according to the citation, ". . . have brought millions of Americans, young and old, a greater understanding of their heritage and a vivid presentation of their glorious historical past. They have made a sizeable contribution toward a better understanding of the birth of our nation and the struggles and bitterness involved.

CHANNEL 4

The Art Carney Show will be colorcast over WLW-C Friday, Mar. 4, at 8:30 p.m. The theme of the show will be "The Best of Everything."

This satirical revue is based on the American fondness for giving awards for everything, to everyone from physicists to plumbers, on every possible occasion.

Among targets in the sketches will be a congressional committee, a beauty and talent contest, a rock 'n roll singer called "The Fabulous Flavius," and a TV program of classical music.

Also hitting channel 4's changes for only one day will be Ruth Lyons' 50-50 Club, which will be telecast in black and white only from the Indiana Theater in Indianapolis on Friday, Mar. 4, instead of from her usual spot in Cincinnati.

CHANNEL 10

Television viewers can now keep a late date with some of history's most famous figures over WBNS-TV, Monday through Thursday with the new program "You Are There". This late show will follow immediately after "Armchair Theater PM."

From Julius Caesar to Adolph Hitler, "You Are There" dramatizes the great moments in the lives of the men who shaped the destiny of the world, be they saints or sinners. The show is filmed in the style of on-the-spot news coverage and features interviews that simulate the actions of historical greats.

A series of Sunday afternoon hour-long TV programs will feature the widely acclaimed New York Philharmonic Young People's concerts, conducted by Leonard Bernstein.

The concerts will be seen over WBNS-TV from Carnegie Hall in New York on Sunday, Mar. 6 and 27, from 1 to 2 p.m.

Local Scene

According to Mershon Auditorium officials on Hal Holbrook's famous characterization, "Mark Twain Tonight," the auditorium has been sold out The show is scheduled for Mar. 2 at 8 p.m.

Scheduled for Sunday, Mar. 6, will be the OSU School of Music's concert band in a special production under the direction of guest conductor, Lt. Col. William F. Santelmann.

Irish Plan St. Patrick Day Regate

The Shamrock Club will meet Sunday, March 6, at 2 p.m., in the Knights of Columbus hall, 80 S. Sixth-st, for the purpose of arranging for the annual observance of St. Patrick's Day. Entering the 26th year since its foundation, the club this year will follow tradition by assembling at the KC auditorium and proceed to St. Patrick's Church where solemn high mass will be rendered and Holy Communion received. Bishop Clarence G. Issenmann will preside. Following this there will be a procession to the Neil House where breakfast will be served. Irish songs and dancing will be rendered by the choral club. The Shamrock Chorus has made a number of appearances before other local organizations and established quite a reputation.

Officers of the Shamrock Club are Msgr. Joseph E. McGlynn, pastor St. Joseph Cathedral, Chaplain; James D. Callahan, president, Frank M. Strapp, vice-president; Thomas D. Cahill, treasurer, and William P. Downey, secretary. Larry J. Corcoran is chairman of publicity.

Dick McCabe is president of the choral club and Mike Eberly director. Tickets for the breakfast may be obtained from Mike Murtha and Emmett Bain, or any officer of the Shamrock Club.

GM Wage Rate Remains Same

General Motors this week announced continuation of the current 13 cents an hour cost-of-living allowance for the March, April and May period to approximately 320,000 hourly-rate employes.

Under the GM wage formula, wages are reviewed quarterly and adjusted in line with the government's consumer price index.

Recent changes were not sufficient under the formula to require revision of the current cost-of-living allowance.

Salaried employes will continue to receive a quarterly allowance of $65 for the same period.

The next review will be in May.

The "Walt Disney Presents" program, also seen over Channel 6, has recently been cited for awards by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. The Foundation annually names individuals, organizations and schools for their contribution to a better understanding of the American way of life.

"Walt Disney Presents" received the foundation's top television award for "The Boston Tea Party" and "The Shot That Was Heard Around the World," presented in segments in "The Story of Johnny Tremain" in the 1958-59 season.

The programs, according to the citation, ". . . have brought millions of Americans, young and old, a greater understanding of their heritage and a vivid presentation of their glorious historical past. They have made a sizeable contribution toward a better understanding of the birth of our nation and the struggles and bitterness involved.

CHANNEL 4

The Art Carney Show will be colorcast over WLW-C Friday, Mar. 4, at 8:30 p.m. The theme of the show will be "The Best of Everything."

This satirical revue is based on the American fondness for giving awards for everything, to everyone from physicists to plumbers, on every possible occasion.

Among targets in the sketch- as will be a congressional committee, a beauty and talent contest, a rock 'n roll singer called "The Fabulous Flavius," and a TV program of classical music.

Also hitting channel 4's changes for only one day will be Ruth Lyons' 50-50 Club, which will be telecast in black and white only from the Indiana Theater in Indianapolis on Friday, Mar. 4, instead of from her usual spot in Cincinnati.

CHANNEL 10

Television viewers can now keep a late date with some of history's most famous figures over WBNS-TV, Monday through Thursday with the new program "You Are There". This late show will follow immediately after "Armchair Theater PM."

From Julius Caesar to Adolph Hitler, "You Are There" dramatizes the great moments in the lives of the men who shaped the destiny of the world, be they saints or sinners. The show is filmed in the style of on-the-spot news coverage and features interviews that simulate the actions of historical greats.

A series of Sunday afternoon hour-long TV programs will feature the widely acclaimed New York Philharmonic Young People's concerts, conducted by Leonard Bernstein.

The concerts will be seen over WBNS-TV from Carnegie Hall in New York on Sunday, Mar. 6 and 27, from 1 to 2 p.m.

Roger Englander produces and directs the series of concerts which are presented under the supervision of Richard Lewine, director of special projects for the CBS Television Network.

Local Scene

According to Mershon Auditorium officials on Hal Holbrook's famous characterization, "Mark Twain Tonight," the auditorium has been sold out. The show is scheduled for Mar. 2 at 8 p.m.

Scheduled for Sunday, Mar. 6, will be the OSU School of Music's concert band in a special production under the direction of guest conductor, Lt. Col. William F. Santelmann.

Irish Plan St. Patrick Day Regate

The Shamrock Club will meet Sunday, March 6, at 2 p.m., in the Knights of Columbus hall, 80 S. Sixth-st, for the purpose of arranging for the annual observance of St. Patrick's Day. Entering the 28th year since its foundation, the club this year will follow tradition by assembling at the KC auditorium and proceed to St. Patrick's Church where solemn high mass will be rendered and Holy Communion received. Bishop Clarence G. Issenmann will preside. Following this there will be a procession to the Neil House where breakfast will be served. Irish songs and dancing will be rendered by the choral club. The Shamrock Chorus has made a number of appearances before other local organizations and established quite a reputation.

Officers of the Shamrock Club are Msgr. Joseph E. McGlynn, pastor St. Joseph Cathedral, Chaplain; James D. Callahan, president, Frank M. Strapp, vice-president; Thomas D. Cahill, treasurer, and William P. Downey, secretary. Larry J. Corcoran is chairman of publicity.

Dick McCabe is president of the choral club and Mike Eberly director. Tickets for the breakfast may be obtained from Mike Murtha and Emmett Bain, or any officer of the Shamrock Club.

GM Wage Rate Remains Same

General Motors this week announced continuation of the current 13 cents an hour cost-of-living allowance for the March, April and May period to approximately 320,000 hourly-rate employes.

Under the GM wage formula, wages are reviewed quarterly and adjusted in line with the government's consumer price index.

Recent changes were not sufficient under the formula to require revision of the current cost-of-living allowance.

Salaried employes will continue to receive a quarterly allowance of $65 for the same period.

The next review will be in May.

Junk Yards—

Dahlton Kincaid, zoning adjustment chairman asked Councilman Hoermle "Where else can we put these establishments other than the South Side." Hoermle quickly answered that it is not the question of them coming into the South Side but the condition that appears at these places of business already located there. Heormle stressed that the present places should be dressed up.

Several areas of this nature are proving hazardous to the neighboring residents as they are allowing the burning of trash in the areas and that unsightly scrap autos appear outside the barricades. Also in question was the inadequate enclosures now existing at these yards.

After a lengthy controversy over the addition of the two new junk yards being located in the Groveport-pk area (within 500 street numbers of each other) Kincaid told Councilman Hoermle that he was going to step on his toes and approve both sites.

He then told Hoermle that it would be his problem to see that these establishments were kept in compliance with city regulations.

Dahlton Kincaid, zoning adjustment chairman asked Councilman Hoermle "Where else can we put these establishments other than the South Side." Hoermle quickly answered that it is not the question of them coming into the South Side but the condition that appears at these places of business already located there. Heormle stressed that the present places should be dressed up.

Several areas of this nature are proving hazardous to the neighboring residents as they are allowing the burning of trash in the areas and that unsitely scrap autos appear outside the barricades. Also in question was the inadequate enclosures now existing at these yards.

After a lengthy controversy over the addition of the two new junk yards being located in the Groveport-pk area (within 500 street numbers of each other) Kincaid told Councilman Hoermle that he was going to step on his toes and approve both sites.

He then told Hoermle that it would be his problem to see that these establishments were kept in compliance with city regulations.

Councilman Hoermle in quick action introduced an ordinance that will affect the junk yards, at Monday night's City Council meeting. He introduced Ordinance 275.60 to the Council. The ordinance will stipulate restrictions of premises used for Junk Yards.

Council President Hicks informed Hoermle that he would refer this ordinance to the zoning commission.

Dear Editor:

We are trying to keep our property clean and clear from dust and smoke.

In the last six or eight years every junk yard in town is trying to move in the South End. They all look to me as if they are coming from all over town to our neighborhood.

We are trying to keep them out if we can. We need your help by all means. These junk yards will only make our neighborhood look bad. It is bad enough now.

Mr Lyree Culbertson
525 Glendower-av

• • •

Dear Editor:

The reasons why we do not want junk yards on Groveport-pk is because they sometimes have cars blocking the sidewalk. Also they use the sidewalk for a special drive for themselves, cutting it to pieces. It is not the homes that make the neighborhood look trashy, it is the junk yards.

They burn rubber tires and rubbish, but they say they don't. The junk cars are not kept behind the fences. They have them on the outside.

They also tear down the valuation of your property. They are a menace to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter V. Mock
2423 Groveport-pk

• • •

Dear Editor:

The people of Columbus are proud that those who would go into business are interested in our part of town.

Those of us who live here however detest any man or group of men who would come into our midst, into a residential section and place a junk yard at our doorway.

Our city is trying to clean out slums and create a healthful and beautiful city for ourselves and for our children.

To permit junk yards to exist among our midst, harbors rats and creates unhealthy smoke conditions.

We are residents of the south end and have a very poor opinion of any group of men who represent our city and are responsible for keeping our city clean and respectable for its people to allow these conditions to develop and exist.

Lloyd A. Burger

Dear Editor:

We, the taxpayers of the city of Columbus and South Side surely know how it would feel to live in Russia now, thanks to the Board of Zoning Adjustment in Room 219 of City Hall.

I guess the taxpayer of Columbus has nothing to say about what they put down here in the South Side. One man on the board said we did not have nice homes down here. We would like to know why we are paying from $80 to $100 a year in taxes if our homes are not fit to live in.

The people of Bexley are paying their taxes to Bexley, they can come to the city of Columbus and get a special permit to build their junk yards on the South Side of Columbus. The Board of Zoning Adjustment are all for these people when we are helping to pay their wages.

We, the people of Groveport-pk were up there to fight but it did not do us any good (no freedom at all).

We would like for this to be put in the South Side Leader and one paper sent to the Board of Zoning Adjustment, Mayor Westlake and the City Council.

We the people of Groveport-pk would like to thank the South Side Leader, President of the Council of South Side Organizations and Mr. Hoermle for trying to help us, but as you can see, it did us no good.

Taxpayer of the South Side, Columbus, Groveport-pk.

PLANNING COMMISSION'S OUTLOOK

Slum Clearance Program Outlined

Children's Hospital Trustees and other top business and civic leaders of Columbus heard broad outlines recently of a four-year, $4.6 million slum clearance and rehabilitation program keyed to our own plans to meet community needs.

The outline and time-table were given at a special luncheon meeting in the new Nurse Education Building by John P. Willison, city slum clearance director and Sam Boyd, senior planner.

Both Willison and Boyd emphasized that the program was flexible and subject to adjustment to meet developing requirements and opportunities. Part of the purpose of the meeting was to give business leaders a picture of investment and development opportunities in the 56-acre area running from Children's Hospital west to S. Fourth-st and between the proposed south innerbelt expressway to the north and Livingston-av to the south.

Tells Plans

Mr. Willison said the only thing they knew definitely about the project was that the Children's Medical Center will be at one end and an expansion of a school site at the other end of the area concerned.

Mr. Boyd stated that the Children's Hospital area might include a medical arts building, a physicians building and a social agency building in addition to the already planned Research Building, Children's Health Center, and a Crippled Children's Society research building.

Mr. Boyd offered this timetable:

1. Completion immediately of land trades for the Children's Hospital Medical Center and vacating streets.
2. Construction of the buildings. (April, 1960, to September, 1961).
3. Contaruction of a mall, the Children's Court and drives and utilities for the Medical Center (June 1960, to November, 1961).
4. Acquisition of property, clearing and improving land throughout the renewal area (January 1961 to January, 1963).
5. Selling the land and completing the Medical Center area (January 1963 to June, 1964).

Schools and parks are to be developed in the S. Fourth-st end of the project Boyd said, and the area between the Medical Center and the west end may be given over to offices, housing, motels, clinics, public agencies and light industry. The composition of the area will be determined by the type of capital which becomes interested in private development in the area.

WHEREAS the Telephone Pioneers of America, as an organization, comprises persons who have devoted a generation or more of effort in communications, together with a traditional loyalty to service often beyond the call of duty; and

Washington C. H. Faces Devils In Second Tourney Encounter

Marion-Franklin, which opened its Central District "AA" Tournament wars with a booming 65-42 win over Pleasant View, plays Washington C.H. Friday night in the second round of the eliminations.

South High School was slated to meet Whitehall in the first tourney test for both teams Wednesday night at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum

Coach Rich Coldren's lads took advantage of a cold Panther five Monday evening to earn the right to advance into Friday's meeting with Washington C H

The Blue Lions, co-champions of the South-Central Ohio League, wriggled into the game by brushing past Bexley in a tight 52-50 clash Tuesday night.

Posting a 13-5 record over the season, Washington C.H. recovered from a bad start this season to tie Greenfield McClain, Wilmington and Circleville for the SCOL crown.

Coached by ex-Ohio State basketball artist Jim Millard, the Blue Lions will attempt to withstand Marion-Franklin's bid for a quarter-final game next Tuesday night.

Winner of Friday night's encounter will meet the victor of the Marysville-East-Westerville bracket in the quarter-finals next Tuesday.

South's Bulldogs, who ended a sad season last Friday at Eastmoor, saw the same Warriors bounce favored North from the tournament Tuesday evening.

If Coach John Colmery's quintet banished a tough Whitehall unit Wednesday, next game would be against fourth-seeded Newark Friday night in the tourney's quarter finals.

It has been a long season at South High where injuries and illnesses have seemed to stop everything before it got started.

Experienced Red Devils Defeat Panther Quint

By Bill Rush

Brandishing their tormentor swords, the Marion-Franklin Red Devils ended Pleasant View's first basketball season Monday night by applying a 65-42 string in the Central District "AA" Tournament at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Kept away on an off-night coupled with a televised Ohio State game, the tourney crowd withered away to about 150 loyal fans when the Panthers and Red Devils finally came to grips, in the last of four games.

It was simply a matter of class and experience that spelled the difference in the two clubs.

Marion-Franklin, whose 4-12 season record wasn't much better than Pleasant View's 1-17, was way ahead of the Panthers in style and finesse learned during the rigors of City League warring.

You can't take anything away from Coach Rich Coldren's warriors, however, who were by far the better basketball team Monday evening.

The Red Devils got away with a rush from the start taking a 5-1 lead at 4:07 and holding the Panthers at bay from the field until Dale Creamer meshed a pushshot with 2:16 on the clock.

Paced by Richard Reese's 13 points, the Devils jumped atop by a hefty 17-5 first quarter edge, increased the margin to 35-12 at half time and were safely in front 49-24 when the final period started.

Creamer was the top scorer for Pleasant View meshing nine points while Jack Hughes counted eight.

Marion's Reese was given a lot of help by Ronnie Leddy with 11 and Richard Reevs with 10.

The Red Devils' victory earned them the right to meet the winner of Bexley-Washington C. H. scrap in a Friday night showdown.

Bright spot in the picture for Pleasant View Coach Jack Frost is that he will have his entire team back next season. This year's unit played without the benefit of any senior classmen.

The Panthers had been idle for a week preceding the clash while Marion-Franklin closed its City League season last Friday, losing to Columbus West, 57-48.

Gra-Y Cage League Ends 1960 Season

The South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y Basketball played its final game Thursday evening at Schiller Park. The only remaining event on this year's calendar is the Awards Party to be held at Barrett Junior High on Monday, Mar. 14.

Tuesday, Feb. 23: John Milburn's 11 points were just too many points for the Lincoln Park Grays to overcome as the Deshler Panthers won, 13 to 8. Led by Kenny Thacker, the Lincoln Park Scarlets played their best game of the season in sending their game with the Deshler Yellow Jackets into overtime, but all was lost when Pat Foster continued to play the part of giant killer and tossed in 2 points to send Deshler home victorious, 14 to 12. Calvin Brown and Kelly Richards led their Livingston Steelers team to an 8 to 4 victory over the Southwood Deacon Demons, led by John Abahazie. You can't keep a good team down, and the Livingston Globetrotters seem to be no exception as they downed the Southwood Rocketeers, 14 to 6.

Thursday, Feb. 25: A well balanced attack and hot first half enabled the Heyl Eagles to subdue the Stewart Bulldogs, 14 to 7. The Reeb Rebels played like champions and had too much height and speed in downing the Heyl Buckeyes, 18 to 4. The Heyl Warriors were sparked by Joe Taylor in their 8 to 6 triumph of the Siebert Sputniks. Bruce Trott was high point man for Siebert. James Burton has his finest night of the season as did his Beck teammates in downing a scrappy Siebert Scorpion five, 20 to 4.

South Quint Drops Finale To Warriors

The loss dropped the Bulldogs into the league's fifth spot with a 5-6 record in the conference and a 6-12 mark over-all.

Eastmoor, beaten earlier in the season by South in a 56-42 romp, jumped on the Bulldogs early and held a 24-16 first period lead. At halftime the Warriors were ahead by a 34-25 count, which they stretched to 56-47 when the third chukker ended.

Tom Guyer's 14 points backed up by a 13-point contribution by Mitchell Swain were South's top efforts. Eastmoor was led by Jim Carlos' 24 counters

Lawyer Hired To Fight Groveport Pike Zoning

Area Residents Strive For Better Community Living

In an effort to clean up the Groveport-pk area, local residents have been meeting in various homes in the area.

Their aim at the present time is to clean up the junk yards that now exist in that area and to prevent additional junk yards from invading the area.

Residents of the Groveport-pk and Old Marion areas took measures to acquire the services of a lawyer. They have drawn up a petition and presented it to him to present to the city zoning commission. The petition bears 87 names.

Good Chance

William Brown, attorney-at-law who is acting on behalf of the residents, assured them that they stand a fairly good chance of winning this zoning problem. He did, however, state that more names could be used on the petition.

A meeting was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Miller, 2341 Groveport-pk. This meeting consisted of eight persons who will act as somewhat of a steering committee for the area concerned.

Lloyd Burger, 2468 Groveport-pk, a local resident, presented a letter to the editor to be published in the newspaper. It reads as follows:

A protest to junk yards and an appeal to the city of Columbus residents:

We think the community of the Groveport-pk area belongs to all of the city of Columbus, as much as if does to those who are land owners and those who live here.

We who live in this area are disappointed, shocked and surprised at the lack of consideration given our schools, people, families, homes and children that make up our community.

It is not befitting any public official or group of officials who are supposed to be educated and elected to represent the people to permit this community to be subjected to junk yards at their doorsteps.

The ethical standards of men whose responsibility is to keep the city clean, safe and healthful for all people should be so noble and proportionate to the great responsibilities they carry.

The struggle in this area takes various forms. As financially poor but proud people we have cooperated in eliminating fire hazards, rat harbors, unsafe buildings and anything that would bring discredit to our community and its fine people.

We are astonished and surprised that our officials have not or do not recognize the unsightly, unhealthy and filthy conditions that a junk yard can create in a community.

The responsibilities of our public officials are great and heavier than they may think, due to the position they occupy. The judgment and decisions they exercise in creating and making the future conditions of our city will be an example placed before other people and other cities.

We of this community appeal to ALL CITIZENS of this great city to object to any organization or person who would place a junk yard in our midst.

Plan Civic Group

The people of the Groveport-pk area and the Old Marion area are making plans to form a community civic group. This group will be formed and conducted by the people themselves. Their aim is to make better living conditions in the area and to supply a community recreation program.

They are planning tentatively at this time to meet in either the YMCA at Parsons-av and Groveport-pk or at one of the local churches.

The city planning commission reported back to city council Monday evening on the junk yard ordinance that was introduced two weeks ago by Councilman William Hoermle. The planning board reported that it plans to introduce new restrictions on junk yards.

It is also expected that residents of the Groveport-pk area will appear in city council on Monday, Mar. 28, with the petition. Approximately 100 local residents are expected to turn out for the Monday night session.

Members of the steering committee of the area concerned said Tuesday that they would haunt city hall until they got the treatment they deserve—a better community in which to live.

Homemaking Hints

Hints Are Given On Best Curtains, Drapes To Buy

Bertha B. Everhart

It isn't easy to select curtains and drapes because of the vast number of new fabrics about whose performance we may be unfamiliar. For this reason the home demonstration clubs studied the curtain problem at their November meetings. You, like most homemakers, probably want, most of all, curtains which are attractive, durable and easy to launder.

Satisfaction with curtain fabric depends on the characteristics of the fiber used, quality of the fabric's construction, and the finishes applied to the fabric. Curtains on today's market are made chiefly of cotton, rayon, dacron, fiberglass and fortisan. The latter is usually in combination with rayon. Most of these are found in fabrics of marquisette, ninon, lace and novelty weaves.

By careful shopping and reading of labels you should be able to find curtains which are colorfast and resistant to the weakening effects of light, heat, moisture and impurities in the air. Fiberglass has all the added advantage of being fire proof.

Require Least Care

Dacron and fiberglass require minimum care. The latter should never be mum care. The latter should never be ironed, while dacron usually needs a light steam pressing. Both these fabrics retain their size and shape perfectly. Cottons, rayons and fortisan tend to shrink and require more ironing. Dry cleaning is usually recommended for fortisan.

Special finishes are applied to many curtain fabrics to add crispness and body, reduce shrinkage and to make them crease resistant. The nature of the fabric and these added surface treatments make modern fabrics both soil resistant and easy to clean. Some finishes are guaranteed to be permanent for the life of the curtain, while many so called permanent finishes lose some of their effectiveness with repeated launderings and exposure to sunlight and air.

Curtains and draperies are important parts of the design of a room. Generally, rough textured fabrics are suitable with rough textured furnishings and smoother fabrics with smooth walls and furnishings. A curtain which repeats one or more of the main colors in the room gives unity. Small rooms seem more spacious if walls and window treatment are the same plain color or if one is only slightly darker or lighter than the other. With patterned wall paper, plain curtains or draperies of the background color of the paper are a good choice. An easy rule to follow is this: Either the walls or the windows treatment should be plain; both may be plain, but both should never be patterned or printed.

Should Follow Lines

Curtains and draperies should follow the structural lines of the window and cover the window frame. The lower edge of the hem may come to the top of the window sill, the bottom of the apron, or to within one inch of the floor. Sheer curtains are prettier if they are very full. Allow in width at least twice the entire length of the curtain rod.

It seldom pays today to make glass curtains unless your windows are of unusual proportions. Ready-made curtains are available in various widths, lengths and styles. Quality of construction varies, demanding careful shopping.

Opera Soprano To Make Appearance In Columbus

The Capital University Concert Lecture Series, in conjunction with the Women's Music Club of Columbus, will present Miss Phyllis Curtin in the final season's performance of the series at 8:30 p.m., Mar. 16, in Mees Hall auditorium on the Capital campus.

Miss Curtin has been starred as the leading soprano of the New York City Opera for the past four years, and last year climaxed a brilliant career with her performance in the leading role for the premiere of Carlisle Floyd's "Susannah." This play, incidentally was the winner of the New York Critics Award. She has also starred in Floyd's other opera, "Wuthering Heights, which was presented at the 1958 Santa Fe Music Festival and had such an impact that the New York City Opera immediately began bidding for the rights and finally mounted the opera for her this past spring. Her success in the role was as spectacular in New York as it had been at the world-premiere. A vociferous defender of modern opera, Miss Curtain is particularly a defender of American opera. She feels that American operas have characteristics all their own and will survive as long as the classic European operas.

Tickets for Miss Curtin's performance may be purchased from members of the Women's Music Club of Columbus or from the Department of Public Information at Capital University.

MODERN RICE

Different kinds of rice in grocery stores look very much alike. However, you'll find several kinds available. Each kind possesses a distinctive appearance and flavor.

Brown rice is the product of the first milling process. It has only the hull removed—the bran coating remains. It requires longer cooking time than some other forms.

Regular white rice has the hull and bran layer removed. It has been polished, which removes another coating.

Parboiled or converted rice is white rice which has had a special treatment before milling. The grains are precooked. Much of the B vitamin content is forced into the center of the grain and is not lost when the bran is discarded.

Fortified or enriched rice is made by mixing a highly fortified rice with the ordinary milled rice. Thiamine, Niacin, iron and sometimes Riboflavin are added to the premix.

Precooked white rice has been partially cooked before packaging. It requires a very short cooking time.

Wild rice does not belong to the rice family. It is the seed of a wild grass gathered around the Great Lakes region. The volume is small, and it is usually considered a high-cost luxury item. Delicious when served with any kind of game meat.

RICE SPECIALTIES

If you're short on time and willing to spend a little more money, there's a wide variety of convenience packages available. Some of these are: canned rice, frozen fried rice and partially prepared pudding mixes. Rice cereals, quick-cooking and ready-to-eat, are available in many forms. In some of these cereals the nutrients have been restored to the brown rice level. The label will give such information.

In general, the more nearly the product is ready-to-serve, the higher the cost per serving.

NEW FOOD ITEM

Citrus fruit lovers may look forward to another new product. One frozen orange concentrate processor is introducing "a new improved" orange concentrate on the Eastern market, Mar. 10.

The juice will contain more orange pulp and "all of the full body and aroma of home squeezed juice." If it is accepted, Ohio markets may carry this soon.

More Readers Join Hartley Campaign For Better Television, Motion Pictures

Widespread criticism of the recent trend in motion pictures and television programs continued to spread this week with more readers expressing their opinions against too many killings and indecent presentations of sex.

They are joining the many others who have already become a part of the Hartley Newspaper campaign for better television programs and motion pictures. Their letters will be mailed to Governor Michael DiSalle, Senator Frank Lausche and U.S. Representative Samuel Devine. All three have expressed sincere interest in the letters and requested copies.

If you have an opinion about this subject, please make your stand known by writing a letter to this newspaper.

Here are the high points of letters received this week.

• • •

I wish to add my protest against the innumerable shows featuring violence of all sorts and an undue emphasis on sex. It has gotten to the point where children think death is almost always violent and life is cheap; that adultery is acceptable and sophisticated.

Mrs. Louis Hillenbrand

• • •

No wonder there are so many divorces and broken homes, deserted children, breaking and entering, juvenile murders and rapes. They see such things on television . . . Our responsibility is to set before them a better pattern in which to live by.

Rev. J. L. Geer
Hilliard

The thing uppermost in my mind about these shows is the influence it may give to a child growing up. I don't believe we should ever think of taking a chance on this for our children.

Jane Ganas
880 Binns-blvd.

• • •

Television programs are in general as unsatisfactory to discriminating listeners or viewers as are the radio programs. The plays shown can nearly always be outlined in advance by an observant viewer. . . add to this the excesses of profanity, drinking, social looseness and murder and it is no wonder people are turning away from the air waves.

Newton A. Thatcher
Franklin County Treasurer

• • •

Why don't they leave the old films of gangsters buried where they can't do our youth any more harm . . . Why isn't the low cut and scant shorts on dancers also censored. How can we teach any moral conduct to our children when the actress on television and movies whom the children like to copy are so flagrant with their moral conduct.

Mrs. Oliver Ott
901 Scott-st.

We feel that there can be nothing more deadly to the home life of our nation than the type of things that enter our homes and certainly with the emphasis these days upon murder scenes and the bedroom scenes, emphasizing the maliciousness of individuals and also the sex life.

Levon A. Ahaum
Minister
Livingston Methodist Church

• • •

I think it is not enough to say "too many killings." I say "no killing" on television . . . "this very obnoxious practice" is becoming far too much of a practice. Why can't television, which we love so much, be kept on a high level.

City, County Schools Share In $40 Million Distribution

Schools in Franklin, Fairfield, Madison and Pickaway counties are to share in a nearly $40,000,000 distribution of school foundation money that has been made by State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

The foundation funds that went out as third quarterly payments to school districts by the state, brought the total distribution so far this fiscal year to $136,180,452.

Amounts sent to city school districts: Bexley, $23,184; Columbus, $883,281.65; Southwestern, $157,956.87; and Whitehall, $136,228.75.

Amounts to be distributed by county board of education to local school districts: Fairfield, $223,522.42; Franklin, $458,145.62; Madison, $112,782.64; and Pickaway, $54,196.39.

An additional obligation of $2,400,000 will be expended by the state as soon as the money is available. This allotment includes $2 million as the state's share of the cost of the teachers' retirement system and another $400,000 for the school employees' retirement system.

A breakdown of the third quarterly foundation payments show that $37,488,629.06 will go solely for school operations while another $2,144,677 will be earmarked specifically for transportation costs.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Righteousness Brings Peace To Christians

It is true that we live in a world where the innocent suffer with the guilty. Jesus never promises His disciples a calm or easy way.

He did promise them rest and peace. It is this that makes the difference between those who suffer for the sake of righteousness or as innocent victims of the wrongdoing of others or from some innocent cause — and those who suffer because of their evil-doings.

The records of sin and penalty are countless.

Not long ago, a self-made millionaire in England killed himself. He had chosen the way of evil living. The note he left behind expressed the view that all men were greedy vultures.

How different is the way of the righteous—and how well is this way expressed in the contrast between darkness and light in John's first epistle.

The way to darkness is the way of lying and destruction, but the way of light is the way of cleanness and honor and good fellowship.

John reminds us that we are never really free of evil, that if we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves. But he does not say that even with our sinful tendencies, it is possible for human beings like us to walk in the light and to have fellowship with one another, as we seek the companionship and help of Him who is the light of the world.

Television Critic Says Some Blame Must Fall On Parents

I realize there are some people who do not agree with me at all. But, I am an American as well as the next.

I, myself, have a boy to raise like most American families. I realize the responsibility we all have, but do some of you? In some of the opinions I have read from other people, I would like to say that in some things I agree 100 per cent.

You know, there are so many people who think these things are wrong. But have you not done some of these things yourself?

What are the teen-agers of today to do with themselves for entertainment?

Do you expect them to sit at home with nothing to do? Isn't idle time what helps cause these problems?

There are some parents who do not take time to tell their child about life and sex, so how are they to find out?

If all you parents would be fair with yourselves, isn't it your failure some where that helps cause delinquency in our children?

As far as the television and movie shows, I agree that there are some pictures that shouldn't be shown. But, do you expect this world to be perfect if the people aren't.

You know, children practice what they have been taught, or what they sometimes see their parents do. Don't judge your child until you have judged yourself.

—Mrs. Carl McGlaughlin

Green Stamps help keep OHIO PRICES DOWN!

Like the ads of local merchants that you see in this newspaper, S&H Green Stamps boost business. At the same time they help keep prices down.

Here is why: When a store sells more, it can sell for less, since bigger volume brings lower costs.

Stores that use S&H Green Stamps must sell competitively. Ohio housewives are expert shoppers. They read the ads. They check and compare prices. And they can't be fooled!

Trading stamps are being saved today by two out of three American families—about 35 million in all. And their use is still growing in this and other States.

For the best values, shop at the stores in your community that give S&H Green Stamps.

Blue Lions Eliminate Devils In Central District Tourney

Marion-Franklin's short stay in the Central District "AA" Tournament was ended Friday night when Washington C. H. overpowered the Red Devils in a 65-46 skirmish at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

It was the second tourney game for each club. Marion had defeated Pleasant View and Washington C. H. had downed Bexley in earlier contests.

Richard Reese's 22 points was the best effort for the Devils while Ken Pfersick meshed 26 and Jim Flee connected on 17 for the Blue Lions.

Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

Snow, Sunshine Battle For Supremacy Now

Spring is here, according to outdoors fans.

The weather may not feel like it, and astronomers claim it doesn't begin until the 20th of the month. But the unmistakable signs are here, and after a long winter the signs of spring are welcome.

Bird migrations are always an indication of spring, but it takes a little experience to make such observations. Waterfowl flights were not reliable this year, because the wild winter allowed them to fly around and about all season long. I saw a "V" of Canada geese high in the sky flying northward more than a month ago. These were obviously migrating geese, but I think they were rushing the season a little.

Smaller birds, those not so hardy, are more accurate observers of the changing seasons. Red-winged blackbirds and meadow larks show up in number about the first of March, and their arrival is always a good sign. Bluebirds and robins can sometimes be observed in this area all winter long, but their numbers increase about this time. Flocks of grackles have been seen. All of this activity points to the coming of spring.

Many plants signal the changing season long before the calendar and weatherman make any acknowledgements. The swelling of maple buds is a good sign; and the fragile-looking spring beauty has broken dormancy.

There will be plenty of winter-like weather yet—snow, ice and cold winds. Old man winter dies hard, but he's on a down hill slide now. I have seen woodchucks out foraging around when snow was still on the ground. Birds are singing between snow squalls. Suckers are on the riffles of streams.

Anglers Renew Interest

Perhaps the most significant sign of all is the seasonal urging that fishermen feel about this time of year. The first activity is looking over the old tackle box and the rod and reel. A call is paid to the local sporting goods store to peek at the fresh displays of fishing gear.

Travel brochures and leaflets become well worn.

Cabin fever is a preliminary disease — the more virulent spring fever is yet to come.

JUST TO REMIND YOU

The 52nd Annual Convention of the League of Ohio Sportsmen will be held at Neil House Mar. 17, 18, 19 and 20.

The club will again present a display of photographs showing the activities of the club during the past year. Delegates Ted Lee and Reed Taylor said they will again have a suite of rooms and will be happy to meet their many friends.

Several color slide programs are on their agenda.

ICE TRAPS DUCK

Asheville, N.C.—When a duck sleeping in a lake awoke recently, he found that his tail feathers were frozen in ice.

By midafternoon, word of the duck's plight brought crowds, a traffic jam around city-owned Beaver Lake, and the fire department. The duck's dilemma was solved by Harry A. Guter who used a fire department grappling hook to haul himself in a small skiff across the 100 yards of ice to the grounded fowl. The duck was transferred to open waters of a lake.

Local Irish To Observe St. Pat's Day

The Shamrock Club will observe St. Patrick's Day this year in traditional fashion. Beginning at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, Mar. 17, the procession will start at the Knights of Columbus hall, 80 S. Sixth-st and proceed to St. Patrick's Church where Solemn High Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m.

Rev. James T. McKenna, OP, pastor of St. Patrick's Church and Bishop Clarence G. Issenmann will preside.

The sermon will be offered by Rev. James R. Coffey, OP, House of Studies, Washington, D.C., who is assistant archivist and historian of the Dominican Province of St. Joseph. Rev. Coffey has just returned from Rome where he spent a year in research on Dominican history.

Following the mass the Shamrock Club will proceed to the Neil House where breakfast will be served. Louis C. (Bud) Murphy will act as toastmaster. Music and entertainment will be furnished by the Shamrock Club Chorus.

George R. Ryan is grand marshal of the procession and Russell D. Finneran of the various divisions.

The Shamrock Club of Columbus is now in its 28th year of service.

Agricultural pests often are found in dirt caked under fenders and on wheels of cars returning from abroad, according to plant quarantine officials of the USDA's Agricultural Research Service.

IN YOUR SPARE TIME

Who's Who Behind The Scenes In TV

BY ROGER SWANEY
CHANNEL 4

After talking about all of the national shows appearing over the local stations, the TV Beat is going to familiarize the readers with part of the backbone of the local stations who help make these shows possible, both locally and nationally.

Jerry Razor, a WLW-C staff member, has been outstanding on such Channel 4 shows as Petticoat Party and Meetin' Time.

Plus his professional duties at the studio he also finds time to work with the Columbus Players Club. He played the lead part in the Players Club 1959 production of "Pal Joey."

Razor hails from a small town located south of Columbus called Commercial Point. He is a graduate of OSU with an Arts and Sciences degree in Radio and Television.

Entering the second half of its 1959-60 season, WLW in conjunction with NBC has seen few changes in its schedule. New daytime shows being televised over '4' are Play Your Hunch, Loretta Young Theatre, Comedy Playhouse and Adventure Time.

Hitting the evening spotlight is Overland Trail, Man From Interpol and Masquerade Party. These shows offer the viewer a mixture of drama, comedy and audience participation.

CHANNEL 6

A new series being started this week in the 'Idle Hour Guide' will be telephone interviews with professional personalities. Lawrence Welk is taking the highlight of this new series for this week. These interviews are made possible for television editors through the courtesy of WTVN and the American Broadcasting Corporation.

While on the rage of talking about people behind the scenes of the local stations, the Promotion Department at WTVN deserves some consideration. Under the leadership of Harry Mohr, promotion manager and his assistants, Marianne Mathews and Barbara Coski. This trio makes it possible for the TV viewer to receive the type of entertainment they want to see. Day in and day out they are constantly looking for new ways to make TV more enjoyable for the pleasure of its listeners. For example: Recently the late show was shifted around so much that they, themselves didn't actually know what was going to be shown on the late hour show. However, they did end up with a very appropriate name—The Hour Glass'.

Also headlining new shows on the local channels is the Ted Mack Amateur Hour. This, however, is not new as it will just be returning to the screen with a new line of talent on the way to stardom.

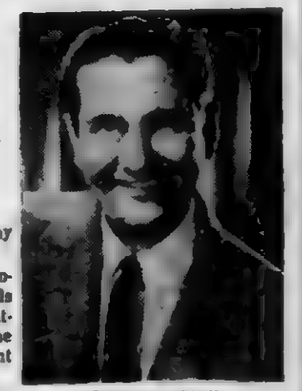
CHANNEL 10

Chet Long, a favorite of Columbus, brings to the viewers and listeners, facts of news happenings in the area. Chet keeps a busy schedule not only on the news outlook of the city but also is active in many civic activities in the area.

A well known trademark with the Channel 10 newscaster is his "closing thought." At the close of his programs he always finds time to offer to the public a phrase of wisdom.

Local Scene

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Mar. 17, 18 and 19 the Columbus Independent Players will present their first play of the year for their club.



The club will give "New Girl In Town" at the Hartman Theater. Showtime will be at 8 p.m. all three evenings. Tickets can be obtained from members of the cast or Players Club or by contacting the Clock Restaurant, 161 N. High-st.

The New York City Opera Company will make an appearance in Columbus on Thursday, Mar. 10 at 8 p.m. The famed company will present "The Ballad of Baby Doe." Reserved seat tickets can be obtained by calling or writing the Ohio State University at Mershon Auditorium.

Plans are making headway for the day when the Irish will don their derbies and swing their shillelaghs in a procession from the K of C Hall to St. Patrick's Church and on to the Neil House for breakfast. Members of the Shamrock Club, namely Buddy O'Cotter, Jim O'Callahan and Larry O'Corcoran, will proudly display the Irish in the blood as they proudly march to the Neil House for their annual St. Patrick's Day Breakfast on Mar. 17.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEW

Champagne Bandmaster Rates Ohio As 'Tops'

Lawrence Welk

The first of a series of telephone interviews with prominent stage, screen and television personalities was received this week. Lawrence Welk will share the first week of this series.

Born on a farm near Strausburg, N.D., on Mar. 11, 1903, the bandleader who now shares has champagne music with thousands of people across the nation, has been a showman the biggest part of his life.

His musical career started out by his playing instruments by ear. That fails true with him today. At the age of 57 the one time farm boy has gained fame with his ear for music.

Welk's family life finds him sharing his spare time with his two girls and a boy not leaving out his two grandchildren. He likes sports, golfing and fishing as a sideline to his everyday activities.

"I feel very close to the people of Ohio" were Welk's words over the phone. He further stated that Ohio has offered the nation some very great talent in the field of show business.

Welk's memories of Ohio take him around Euclid Beach near Cleveland. He said that he has appeared in several other cities in the Ohio area that bring back fond memories but this was in his prime when he was just getting a foot in the field of music.

Plans are in the making that he will return to Ohio this summer with his show. He said they are in hopes of compiling a large show for a Goodwill Tour to be presented this summer.

In closing, the master of the champaign music said that they feel very close to the people of Ohio.

A Weekly Guide For Things To Be In Your Leisure Hours

IN YOUR SPARE TIME

Who's Who Behind The Scenes In TV

BY ROGER SWANEY
CHANNEL 4

After talking about all of the national shows appearing over the local stations, the TV Beat is going to familiarize the readers with part of the backbone of the local stations who help make these shows possible, both locally and nationally.

Jerry Razor, a WLW-C staff member, has been outstanding on such Channel 4 shows as Petticoat Party and Meetin' Time.

Plus his professional duties at the studio he also finds time to work with the Columbus Players Club. He played the lead part in the Players Club 1959 production of "Pal Joey."

Razor hails from a small town located south of Columbus called Commercial Point. He is a graduate of OSU with an Arts and Sciences degree in Radio and Television.

Entering the second half of its 1959-60 season, WLW in conjunction with NBC has seen few changes in its schedule. New daytime shows being televised over '4' are Play Your Hunch, Loretta Young Theatre, Comedy Playhouse and Adventure Time.

Hitting the evening spotlight is Overland Trail, Man From Interpol and Masquerade Party. These shows offer the viewer a mixture of drama, comedy and audience participation.

CHANNEL 6

A new series being started this week in the 'Idle Hour Guide' will be telephone interviews with professional personalities. Lawrence Welk is taking the highlight of this new series for this week. These interviews are made possible for television editors through the courtesy of WTVN and the American Broadcasting Corporation.

While on the rage of talking about people behind the scenes of the local stations, the Promotion Department at WTVN deserves some consideration. Under the leadership of Harry Mohr, promotion manager and his assistants, Marianne Mathews and Barbara Coski. This trio makes it possible for the TV viewer to receive the type of entertainment they want to see. Day in and day out they are constantly looking for new ways to make TV more enjoyable for the pleasure of its listeners. For example: Recently the late show was shifted around so much that they, themselves didn't actually know what was going to be shown on the late hour show. However, they did end up with a very appropriate name—"The Hour Glass".

Also headlining new shows on the local channels is the Ted Mack Amateur Hour. This, however, is not new as it will just be returning to the screen with a new line of talent on the way to stardom.

CHANNEL 10

Chet Long, a favorite of Columbus, brings to the viewers and listeners, facts of news happenings in the area. Chet keeps a busy schedule not only on the news outlook of the city but also is active in many civic activities in the area.

A well known trademark with the Channel 10 newscaster is his "closing thought." At the close of his programs he always finds time to offer to the public a phrase of wisdom.

Local Scene

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Mar. 17, 18 and 19 the Columbus Independent Players will present their first play of the year for their club.

The club will give "New Girl In Town" at the Hartman Theater. Showtime will be at 8 p.m. all three evenings. Tickets can be obtained from members of the cast or Players Club or by contacting the Clock Restaurant, 161 N. High-st.

The New York City Opera Company will make an appearance in Columbus on Thursday, Mar. 10 at 8 p.m. The famed company will present "The Ballad of Baby Doe." Reserved seat tickets can be obtained by calling or writing the Ohio State University at Mershon Auditorium.

Plans are making headway for the day when the Irish will don their derbies and swing their shillelaghs in a procession from the K of C Hall to St. Patrick's Church and on to the Neil House for breakfast. Members of the Shamrock Club, namely Buddy O'Cotter, Jim O'Callahan and Larry O'Corcoran, will proudly display the Irish in the blood as they proudly march to the Neil House for their annual St. Patrick's Day Breakfast on Mar. 17.

Champagne Bandmaster Rates Ohio As 'Tops'

Lawrence Welk

The first of a series of telephone interviews with prominent stage, screen and television personalities was received this week. Lawrence Welk will share the first week of this series.

Born on a farm near Strausburg, N.D., on Mar. 11, 1903, the bandleader who now shares has champagne music with thousands of people across the nation, has been a showman the biggest part of his life.

His musical career started out by his playing instruments by ear. That falls true with him today. At the age of 57 the one time farm boy has gained fame with his ear for music.

Welk's family life finds him sharing his spare time with his two girls and a boy not leaving out his two grandchildren. He likes sports, golfing and fishing as a sideline to his everyday activities.

"I feel very close to the people of Ohio" were Welk's words over the phone. He further stated that Ohio has offered the nation some very great talent in the field of show business.

Welk's memories of Ohio take him around Euclid Beach near Cleveland. He said that he has appeared in several other cities in the Ohio area that bring back fond memories but this was in his prime when he was just getting a foot in the field of music.

Plans are in the making that he will return to Ohio this summer with his show. He said they are in hopes of compiling a large show for a Goodwill Tour to be presented this summer.

In closing, the master of the champaign music said that they feel very close to the people of Ohio.

BETRAYED

Toronto—"It's not right to steal," a little boy exclaimed in a loud voice to a woman in a department store. A store detective, hearing the words, took the woman, Mrs. Mary Landry, 30, into custody. After brief questioning, she admitted that she had stolen some goods. The little boy was her son, police learned.

A festive evening with friends and relatives marked the once-every-four-years wedding anniversary of Jack and Lulu Mae O'Ryan, 761 S. Third-st, last Saturday, Mar. 5. The O'Ryans celebrated their twenty-fourth anniversary, though it was only the sixth February 29 that has occurred since they said their "I do's". (Two of the invited guests had to leave early, to be in attendance at the hospital while awaiting the arrival of their "spanking" new grandson.

The new grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. Courtney) The party also marked a "farewell to Ohio" for two other guests, who planned to move to Florida a few days later. Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews, of Frankfort-st, planned to do their moving earlier this week.

Florence Franz, 291 Jenkins-av, made a bus trip to Kansas not too long ago, to see her oldest son, Bob, before he shipped overseas to Korea, where he now is stationed.

Our "ailing" list seems a little lengthy this week, for that's one list we'd rather see kept at a minimum' Mr. Stanley Weiss, whom we'd mentioned in two previous editions, underwent surgery at Grant Hospital last week. Mrs. Florence Reinhart, 596 Mohawk-st, is understandably depressed by the surgical loss of a leg at White Cross Hospital. She is now home, for any card-minded readers. Harry Barton, though not a South-Sider, had the unpleasant experience of hearing the doctor tell him he has only a few months to live, but is determined to fool the doctors. His well-wishers might like to send a card to 1363 W. Third-av. M.M. "Marty" Horch, 1133 S. 22nd-st, a sealer of weights and measures for the city, is now at home after an eye operation in Grant Hospital, and we're happy to report he was in good condition at the time we received the information.

We don't want to overlook two birthdays of such nice people as Elizabeth Colwin, Mar. 4, who resides at 186 Donaldson-st, or Mrs Arthur Swisher, 582 Siebert-st, who was one of the Feb. 29 celebrants.

Two interesting postal cards received in last week's mail are of interest to a segment of column readers, since the writers are "displaced" Columbusites. Dave Leonard, 515 Forest-st, sent a panoramic view of Genoa, Italy, and says the city is hard to get to, as it is built on a mountain. The June, 1959 South High graduate is a sailor aboard the U. S. S. Bordelon.

The other postal was sent by Adele (Olson) Weber, now a Michigan resident, and an ardent ski enthusiast, vacationing in Vermont. She and husband, Clayton, found less snow in Vermont than was in Michigan, though this last storm probably changed that fact' The Webers have been busy with their new home, so have been extremely busy.

Anticipation of a birthday causes excitement in the lives of these youngsters this week: Terry Jackson, Mar. 14; Joanne Parks, Mar. 10; Larry Preston, Mar. 11; Robert Miller, Mar. 10; Glenda Hill, Mar. 13; Jane Fluhart, Mar. 10; Patti Haffner, Mar. 6; Walter Reed, Mar. 13; Carol Fitzpatrick, Mar. 14; Linda Kristoff, Mar. 13; Darrell Paxton, Mar. 6; Kathryn Heinlein, Mar. 15; Gale Landefeld, Mar. 12; Marcum Linville, Mar. 6; William Broyles, Mar. 15; Marcy Goodfleisch, Mar. 11; Steve Miller, Mar. 13; Leisa Carle, Mar. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Christian, 305 Markison-av visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr and Mrs. Charles Belt, during their stay in California. The Belts reside in Redwood City, and are former Columbus residents.

As per promise to Juanita Berger, president of Mother's Variety Club, here's a reminder that the group is asking for donations of rummage for its Mar. 24 project. Profits they make are used for child-welfare work. The numbers to call are: HI. 4-8348, to reach Mrs. Berger, or HI. 3-5504, to contact Mrs. Ed Klein.

Trudeau Guild 10 held its annual birthday dinner last evening at the Riverside Restaurant. Mrs. Herbert Hampton is chairman of Guild 10.

The Moosehaven Committee of Chapter 206 Women of the Moose, is in charge of this evening's chapter night program, held at 36 W. Sycamore-st. Chairman Ida Wharton has asked Mr. Leo Casey to be the guest speaker. Mr. Casey is state director of the Loyal Order of the Moose. Mabel Gregory, senior regent of Chapter 206, will preside at the enrollment ceremony. Refreshments will follow the meeting. On Wed., Mar. 16, the drill team of Moose Lodge No. 11 will sponsor the weekly dinner at the Sycamore-st address. Gertrude Larson and John Chamberlain, chairmen of the dinner, have chosen as their menu: steak with mushrooms, mashed potatoes and gravy, salad, coffee and jello. Dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. The price is $1 for adults and 50c for children.

On Tuesday, Mar. 15, the Pocohontas Ramona Council No. 2 will hold its annual zone meeting. Other councils from Columbus, Marion and Delaware are invited to attend. Betty Fox is the zone chief. Council No. 2 will sponsor a fish dinner Friday, Mar. 18. Further information will be given next edition.

Here's an item that was temporarily mislaid during a more hectic week than usual, but it is still newsworthy. PFCM Dick Brixner was named "Soldier of the Month" not too long ago at his oversees camp in Germany, for which congratulations are in order. Mrs. Brixner, 824 Heyl-av, Dick's mother, suggested his South High School friends might like to write to him, so here's his address. R-A 15602153 29th T. Co., Mr. A.C.F.T. Mat. Dir. APO 46, New York, N.Y. We understand also that Sue Brixner, Dick's sister, had a memorable February birthday when at least 68 of her schoolmates attended her "informal" 17th birthday celebration.

Capital University Mothers Club will meet Friday, Mar. 11, at Troutman Hall, at 1 p.m., for a guest day program. Mrs. W. C. Bockelman will be the speaker.

The Ladies' Aid of the Wagner Memorial EUB Church will sponsor a pizza dinner Friday, Mar. 11, from 6 to 9 p.m. Chairman of the dinner is Mrs. Robert Payne, 1031 Wilson-av. Others helping are Mrs. Clarence Derenburger, 1036 Oakwood-av, Mrs. Dwane McLin, 3222 B-av, and Mrs. Robert Long, 1009 Oakwood-av.

The public relations committee of the Campfire Girls met this past Monday, Mar. 7, at the Campfire Girl office, 716 S. High-st.

Found-!! Someone whose writing is harder to read than ye Gadabout's! "Doc" Crary is the person, so if this next item contains some wrong information, we read it wrong A 25-mile pre-Olympic was run on Feb. 28 by the Franklin Bicycle Club. Two cyclists completed the 25-mile run, Jim and Bob Feroti, while Mike Crary completed 17 miles on that cold day. On Mar. 27, another 25-mile run will be held, this one open to interested cyclists of Franklin County, while on Apr. 17 a 50-mile pre-Olympic sprint will be open to all Central Ohio. A 20-mile sprint race will be held by Franklin Club members on Mar 13, when every five laps will be a sprint lap. All interested cyclists are urged to contact "Doc" Crary, HI. 3-4062, or at his home, 256 Deshler-av. He is sincerely interested in seeing the youth of the community expend their energy in this healthful form of athletics, and you know, he has a good idea!

An item that reached us just at deadline time is anent the rummage sale that will be held by Burma Social Club this Saturday, Mar. 12, at St. Stephen's Community Center on Barthman-av. Working on the committee are Ruth Kleinlein, Dorothy Estright, Helene Bateman and Emma Ebinger. For anyone wishing to donate items for the sale, the person to call is the president of the group, Doris Wander, HI. 3-1748.

One wedding anniversary and several birthdays are included in our adult congratulation section. John and Mary Leist, 1204 Oakwood-av, merit the anniversary greetings today, while "Fran" Paulus, Ethel Messer and Tom Wilson will celebrate natal days. Fred Swickard, 484 Reinhard-av, will join with his granddaughter, Leisa Carle, 4056 Parsons, in a double celebration for his March 12 and her March 11 birthdays. Ethel Weber, a long-time friend, has a March 13 birthday. Herb Hampton and the South Side Leader's Isabelle Coslett both have Mar. 16 birthdays.

Classrooms will be open at St. Mary's School at 7:30 tonight, prior to the 8 p.m. PTA meeting. Rev. Burkley will show films of last year's school events. Southwood PTA executive board will meet at the school at 1:30 today. Plans for upcoming Family Fun Night, scheduled for Mar. 24, will be discussed.

Two South High athletes, with their parents, will attend the all-city banquet to be held on Monday, Mar. 14, at OSU's Ohio Union. All-city football and basketball players are the honor guests for that evening. Willard Kirby and Tom Noble were chosen because of their prowess on the football field. Also attending will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kirby and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Noble.

FELLOWSHIP CHURCH—Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, one of the landmarks of the South Side, still rings out its call each Sunday to its worshippers. The methodist Church has twe active clubs, the Youth Fellowship and the WSCS. The WSCS consists of three circles. The church boasts two choirs, a chancel choir and a senior choir both consisting of approximately 40 members. Gates-Fourth Church is presently preparing for its annual Fellowship Supper.

South Side Methodist Church Nears Sixty-Four Years Service In Area

Gates - Fourth Methodist Church, corner of Gates and Fourth-sts is now nearing its 64th year in the community. It was dedicated Sunday, May 3, 1896 with Rev. Louis Graessle serving as its first pastor.

The Gates-Fourth Church is an outgrowth of the Livingston-av Methodist Church.

The present church enrollment by membership stands at 403. Sunday school heads the church quota by 40 with an enrollment of 452.

The present pastor of Gates-Fourth Methodist Church is the Rev. Carl E. Brown. He is a graduate of Findlay College and has an STB degree from the Boston University of Theology. He came to Gates-Fourth from Johnstown Methodist Church Johnstown, O., in June, 1957. Rev. and Mrs. Brown have a son Ronald, who is a student at Ohio State University.

Sixteen pastors have served Gates-Fourth through its 64 years. Forty-five charter members made up the first congregation. One of the original members, Mrs. Mayme Reinkens, residing at 82 Thurman-av is still active in the church.

LOCAL GIRLS WIN NATIONAL HONORS

Area High School Students Take Scholarship Tests

Twenty-eight students at South High School took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test on Tuesday, Mar. 8 according to an announcement from H. Delbert Swain, principal.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational development and college aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what can be learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

The test is the first step in the sixth annual competition for Merit Scholarships provided by some 100 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself. Over $15,000,000 has been awarded in the first four years of the program.

For students taking the test on March 8, results will be reported to all participating schools before the end of the spring semester in time for use by class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses.

Some 10,000 Semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, will be named early next fall. Names of Semifinalists are published in a booklet which is widely distributed among college and other scholarship agencies.

Each Semifinalist will be asked to take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance in the second examination will become finalists in the Merit Program. Winners of Merit Scholarships will be selected from this group of Finalists on the basis of school records and recommendations, test scores, extracurricular and outside-of-school interests and accomplishments, and other indications indicating future promise. Each Finalist in addition to being considered for a Merit Scholarship is awarded a Certificate of Merit attesting to his outstanding performance.

Four-year scholarships are awarded to the winners with stipends depending on financial need. Minimum award in 1961 will be $100, the maximum will be $1,500.

The National Merit Scholarship Program is a nationwide search for students who demonstrate extraordinary ability to benefit from a college education. More than a million and a half high school students have participated in the Merit Program, and in the fall of 1959 more than 3,100 Merit Scholars were enrolled in nearly 400 colleges and universities in the Untied States.

You'll enjoy your youngsters' school years more if you use books from your nearby Columbus Public Library to "brush up" on long-forgotten school skills. Let the library help you face your child's homework questions unafraid.

SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET

Schiller Neighborhood Girl Scout Leaders will meet at the Thurman Avenue Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Mar. 18. The date previously scheduled for Monday, Mar. 14 has been cancelled.

Area PTA Member Receives Honors

The Barrett Junior High PTA observed Founders' Day 1960 by awarding a state honorary life membership to John H. Shevlin, a teacher at Barrett Junior High School. The meeting was held Feb. 23. The program of the evening, "High Time to Hear Youth's Views," was presented by a panel of students and an elementary school teacher.

At the 1951 convention of the Ohio Congress, the convention body voted to establish state honorary life membership in the Ohio Congress, which may be purchased by any person or parent-teacher group wishing to honor an individual, either a parent-teacher member or someone in a related field who has rendered long and outstanding service to children and youth. The Barrett PTA certainly could not have made a better choice than in the selection of Mr. Shevlin to receive this award. He has proved his interest in the welfare of youth by his outstanding and long teaching career. He has been a member of the teaching staff of Barrett Junior High since 1929.

Shevlin began his teaching career in Washington County in 1913. He received his AB degree from Ohio University in

J. H. Shevlin

1925 and MA degree from Ohio State University in 1939, majoring in science. There are very few subjects he hasn't taught in his many years of teaching. Among them are Latin, English, mathematics, bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, three different sciences and geography. He also served in the U.S. armed services in World Wars I and II.

He is always an active member of the PTA. Often in his spare time he can be found practicing with the Barrett Orchestra. He plays the violin in the orchestra for student assembly and PTA meetings, not as a professionalist, but for the joy of working and being with youth. Shevlin resides with his wife at 227 E. Northwood. They have three grown sons and several grandchildren.

CSSO Maps Spring Events For South Side

Three oncoming projects were given the go-ahead by the Council of South Side Organizations at its monthly meeting. Heading up the agenda was the Clean-up, Paint-up Campaign that will be held in the community during week of Apr. 24.

Posters on the campaign will be made by area school students for display in local store windows. The South Side stores will work with the CSSO during this week set aside for the campaign and will run special sales on articles that will work in with the clean-up, paint-up weak.

Hitting the agenda for new area activities was the planning of the South Side Community Night that will be held at Jet Stadium. On this night Jet Stadium will feature the South Side in a game between the Columbus Jets and the Rochester Red Wings.

Several comments were tossed around as to how they could get the community to support the CSSO in this project. These comments are being given consideration by the Council executive committee and will be presented at the April meeting for the organization's approval.

The third item brought up that will be of benefit to the community was the Annual Fourth of July Celebration to be held at Southview Park. To date, the CSSO has lined up a one-hour variety show to be held that evening prior to the fire works display. The show will be presented by Kay Smith of Columbus. It will include local talent. Concessions were discussed and will be given more consideration at future meetings. Charles Custer, representative of Smiling Scot has offered the company's services for the celebration. This will also be given more consideration at the next meeting.

Brought up for the second month straight was the Groveport-pk area Junk Yard problem. Mrs. Carl Miller, 2341 Groveport-pk was present at the meeting to tell the Council the problem. The CSSO gave her a strong backing in the situation.

Prior to the meeting date, Bill Neno and Roger Swaney, representing the CSSO along with Councilman William Hoermle attended a meeting of the Zoning Commission and spoke in protest to the Junk Yards entering the community.

The council has assured the community that it will keep informed on the situation and offer any assistance in any way possible. Aired rather strongly was the opinion of the members that the people of the South Side let the powers at City Hall know that they are tired of having all of the undesirable things placed in their community.

Frank Fetch, president of the Old German Village Society worked in the program quite well. He was the guest speaker for the evening. Fetch spoke on the headway they are making with their newly formed society. He also showed a film of South Side homes already restored. Fetch told the CSSO that the area has a real potential of restoration.

He has extended an invitation to all organizations, civic clubs, PTA units, school and church heads to attend the meeting to be held at Schiller Park, Mar. 22.

Land Use Committee Has Important Job

It is interesting to learn that a new sub-committee of the Development Committee for Greater Columbus has been organized. It is known as the Land Use Planning Committee.

More careful attention to the subject of planning for Columbus and Franklin County has come about in recent years. But it may be that we are getting serious about the matter some 30 years too late.

Even now we have the problem of the one hand not knowing what the other hand is doing, or in some cases over-ruling what the other has done. This problem becomes increasingly difficult to cope with as the many governmental entities in Franklin County expand.

The news of the past few weeks has been quite interesting and very well sets the stage for the kind of problems that face our rapidly growing community.

City planners, and we understand with the city administration backing, just recently turned down a request for the enlargement of an East Side shopping center, stating that we have enough major shopping centers at this time. A few days later two major shopping centers are announced for the north side and within a short distance of an already established center.

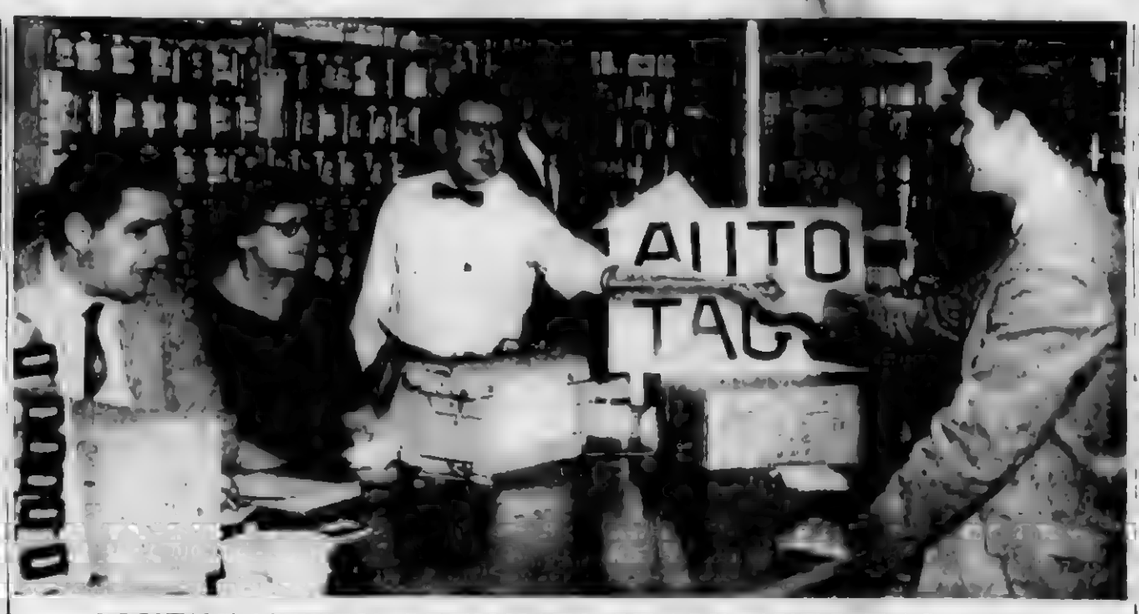
Much wisdom is needed for the development of long range planning for our city and county. But when such is accomplished there needs to be adequate provisions to make the plans stick.

The Development Committee is to be complimented on entering another important field of service and its recommendations deserve careful consideration.

* * *

Ain't it the Truth?

The item below was passed on to us by Jack Sensenbrenner and we think it is worth repeating. Originally the piece appeared in the ROANOKE (Va.) TIMES. The title is "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address Rewritten" and it goes like this . . .



"One score and six years ago our fathers brought forth upon this nation a new tax, conceived in desperation and dedicated on the proposition that all men are fair game.

"We are now engaged in a great mass of calculations, testing whether this taxpayer or any taxpayer so confused and so impoverished can long endure. We are met on Form 1040. We have come to dedicate a large portion of our income to a final resting place with those men who here spend their lives that they may spend our money.

"It is altogether anguish and torture that we should do this, but in the legal sense we cannot evade, we cannot cheat, we cannot underestimate this tax. The collectors, clever and sly who computed here, have gone far beyond our poor power to add and subtract.

"Our creditors will little note nor long remember what we pay here, but the Bureau of Internal Revenue can never forget what we report here. It is rather for us to be dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from those vanished dollars we take increased devotion to the few remaining; and that we here highly resolve that next year will not find us in a higher income bracket."

School Men Push Plan On Project

School Board Tuesday moved four steps closer to start of construction on Kent School, to be built between Kent and Gault-sts, about a half-block west of Kelton-av.

In four separate actions the board members approved working drawings on the building, set an Apr. 14 deadline for bids, approved purchase of part of the tract, and took the final step in condemnation proceedings on another portion of the site.

Board members also approved preliminary drawings, developed by Lewis F. Karlsberger, for a three-classroom addition to Livingston School, and took the final step in condemnation proceedings on a portion of the site of Parsons Elementary.

All projects are scheduled for completion in time for September occupancy.

Board members approved the purchase of two parcels of property on the Kent Elementary site—a two-story, single residence located at 1427 Kent-st, and a two-story single at 1431 Kent-st.

Condemnation proceedings are under way on two additional parcels. There are seven parcels of land in the tract, and they must all be purchased and cleared before construction can get under way.

The building will house nine classrooms and accommodate approximately 290 students.

Bids on the new Parsons School, to be constructed about one-third mile southeast of the Scioto School, immediately south and west of the end of Lee Ellen-pl, were to be opened Thursday.

Councilman Hoermle Speaks At Heimandale

Councilman William Hoermle was guest speaker at the organizational meeting of the Heimandale Community Club meeting Tuesday evening. He brought out in detail the ordinance that he recently introduced to the City Council concerning their area, along with what the community could do to better themselves.

William Neno, Council of South Side Organizations president also spoke to the group. He stressed to the approximately 30 residents present that the CSSO would back them on their journey to becoming a community organization as well as seeing that their area got a fair treatment for the betterment of the area.

Attorney William Brown, who is the legal counsel for the Heimandale area residents, spoke to them also on the ordinance that Hoermle introduced in Council. He pointed out a few parts of the ordinance that he would like to see changed for the peoples' benefit. He offered the people of the area numerous alternatives that they could take to better themselves and as well make a better community for themselves.

Roger Swaney, of the South Side Leader, gave the opening address at the meeting as well as acting as Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Swaney pointed out to the people that it depended on the efforts of area residents whether or not the Heimandale area could raise their living standards to other surrounding communities or whether it would fall as another slum area in the city.

At the closing of the program a verbal vote was taken to appoint a steering committee for the formation of this club. Those elected were Mrs. Carl Miller, chairman; Lloyd Burger, recording secretary and Logan Bibb, treasurer.

Next scheduled meeting will be Tuesday, March 29 at St. Stephen's Community House, 379 Barthman-av at 8 p.m. It is expected at this meeting that loose ends will start to be tied to form a community club. The officers urge every resident to attend.

Ruth Storch Chosen Area Best Citizen

Ruth Storch

Miss Ruth Storch, 690 E. Stone-st was named for the Best Citizen Award in the South Side. The judges based their decision from numerous letters received nominating Miss Storch as the Best Citizen.

The judges used four reasons why she should be elected as the Best Citizen. They are (1) For her untiring volunteer service as a lay advisor for the South Side YMCA Inter-Church Council; (2) For the many years of valuable service rendered the Young People of St. Paul's E and R Church; (3) For the loving service rendered the Senior Citizens of Pauline Home for the Aged and (4) For the voluntary service rendered the Young People of Southwest Ohio in Summer Camps as Councilor and advisor.

Gates - Fourth Methodist Church, corner of Gates and Fourth-sts is now nearing its 64th year in the community. It was dedicated Sunday, May 8, 1896 with Rev. Louis Graessle serving as its first pastor.

Area High School Students Take Scholarship Tests

Twenty-eight students at South High School took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test on Tuesday, Mar. 8 according to an announcement from H. Delbert Swain, principal.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational development and college aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what can be learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

The test is the first step in the sixth annual competition for Merit Scholarships provided by some 100 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself. Over $15,000,000 has been awarded in the first four years of the program.

For students taking the test on March 8, results will be reported to all participating schools before the end of the spring semester in time for use by class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses.

Some 10,000 Semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, will be named early next fall. Names of Semifinalists are published in a booklet which is widely distributed among college and other scholarship agencies.

Each Semifinalist will be asked to take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance in the second examination will become finalists in the Merit Program. Winners of Merit Scholarships will be selected from this group of Finalists on the basis of school records and recommendations, test scores, extracurricular and outside-of-school interests and accomplishments, and other indications indicating future promise. Each Finalist in addition to being considered for a Merit Scholarship is awarded a Certificate of Merit attesting to his outstanding performance.

Four-year scholarships are awarded to the winners with stipends depending on financial need. Minimum award in 1961 will be $100, the maximum will be $1,500.

The National Merit Scholarship Program is a nationwide search for students who demonstrate extraordinary ability to benefit from a college education. More than a million and a half high school students have participated in the Merit Program, and in the fall of 1959 more than 3,100 Merit Scholars were enrolled in nearly 400 colleges and universities in the United States.

You'll enjoy your youngsters' school years more if you use books from your nearby Columbus Public Library to "brush up" on long-forgotten school skills. Let the library help you face your child's homework questions unafraid.

SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET

Area PTA Member Receives Honors

The Barrett Junior High PTA observed Founders' Day 1960 by awarding a state honorary life membership to John H. Shevlin, a teacher at Barrett Junior High School. The meeting was held Feb. 23. The program of the evening, "High Time to Hear Youth's Views," was presented by a panel of students and an elementary school teacher.

At the 1951 convention of the Ohio Congress, the convention body voted to establish state honorary life membership in the Ohio Congress, which may be purchased by any person or parent-teacher group wishing to honor an individual, either a parent-teacher member or someone in a related field who has rendered long and outstanding service to children and youth. The Barrett PTA certainly could not have made a better choice than in the selection of Mr. Shevlin to receive this award. He has proved his interest in the welfare of youth by his outstanding and long teaching career. He has been a member of the teaching staff of Barrett Junior High since 1929.

Shevlin began his teaching career in Washington County in 1913. He received his AB degree from Ohio University in

J. H. Shevlin

1925 and MA degree from Ohio State University in 1939, majoring in science. There are very few subjects he hasn't taught in his many years of teaching. Among them are Latin, English, mathematics, bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, three different sciences and geography. He also served in the U.S. armed services in World Wars I and II.

He is always an active member of the PTA. Often in his spare time he can be found practicing with the Barrett Orchestra. He plays the violin in the orchestra for student assembly and PTA meetings, not as a professionalist, but for the joy of working and being with youth. Shevlin resides with his wife at 227 E. Northwood. They have three grown sons and several grandchildren.

CSSO Maps Spring Events For South Side

Three oncoming projects were given the go-ahead by the Council of South Side Organizations at its monthly meeting. Heading up the agenda was the Clean-up, Paint-up Campaign that will be held in the community during week of Apr. 24.

Posters on the campaign will be made by area school students for display in local store windows. The South Side stores will work with the CSSO during this week set aside for the campaign and will run special sales on articles that will work in with the clean-up, paint-up week.

Hitting the agenda for new area activities was the planning of the South Side Community Night that will be held at Jet Stadium. On this night Jet Stadium will feature the South Side in a game between the Columbus Jets and the Rochester Red Wings.

Several comments were tossed around as to how they could get the community to support the CSSO in this project. These comments are being given consideration by the Council executive committee and will be presented at the April meeting for the organization's approval.

The third item brought up that will be of benefit to the community was the Annual Fourth of July Celebration to be held at Southview Park. To date, the CSSO has lined up a one-hour variety show to be held that evening prior to the fire works display. The show will be presented by Kay Smith of Columbus. It will include local talent. Concessions were discussed and will be given more consideration at future meetings. Charles Custer, representative of Smiling Scot has offered the company's services for the celebration. This will also be given more consideration at the next meeting.

Brought up for the second month straight was the Groveport-pk area Junk Yard problem. Mrs. Carl Miller, 2341 Groveport-pk was present at the meeting to tell the Council the problem. The CSSO gave her a strong backing in the situation.

Prior to the meeting date, Bill Neno and Roger Swaney, representing the CSSO along with Councilman William Hoermle attended a meeting of the Zoning Commission and spoke in protest to the Junk Yards entering the community.

The council has assured the community that it will keep informed on the situation and offer any assistance in any way possible. Aired rather strongly was the opinion of the members that the people of the South Side let the powers at City Hall know that they are tired of having all of the undesirable things placed in their community.

Frank Fetch, president of the Old German Village Society worked in the program quite well. He was the guest speaker for the evening. Fetch spoke on the headway they are making with their newly formed society. He also showed a film of South Side homes already restored. Fetch told the CSSO that the area has a real potential of restoration.

He has extended an invitation to all organizations, civic clubs, PTA units, school and church heads to attend the meeting to be held at Schiller Park, Mar. 22.

Land Use Committee Has Important Job

It is interesting to learn that a new sub-committee of the Development Committee for Greater Columbus has been organized. It is known as the Land Use Planning Committee.

More careful attention to the subject of planning for Columbus and Franklin County has come about in recent years. But it may be that we are getting serious about the matter some 30 years too late.

Even now we have the problem of the one hand not knowing what the other hand is doing, or in some cases over-ruling what the other has done. This problem becomes increasingly difficult to cope with as the many governmental entities in Franklin County expand.

The news of the past few weeks has been quite interesting and very well sets the stage for the kind of problems that face our rapidly growing community.

City planners, and we understand with the city administration backing, just recently turned down a request for the enlargement of an East Side shopping center, stating that we have enough major shopping centers at this time. A few days later two major shopping centers are announced for the north side and within a short distance of an already established center.

Much wisdom is needed for the development of long range planning for our city and county. But when such is accomplished there needs to be adequate provisions to make the plans stick.

The Development Committee is to be complimented on entering another important field of service and its recommendations deserve careful consideration.

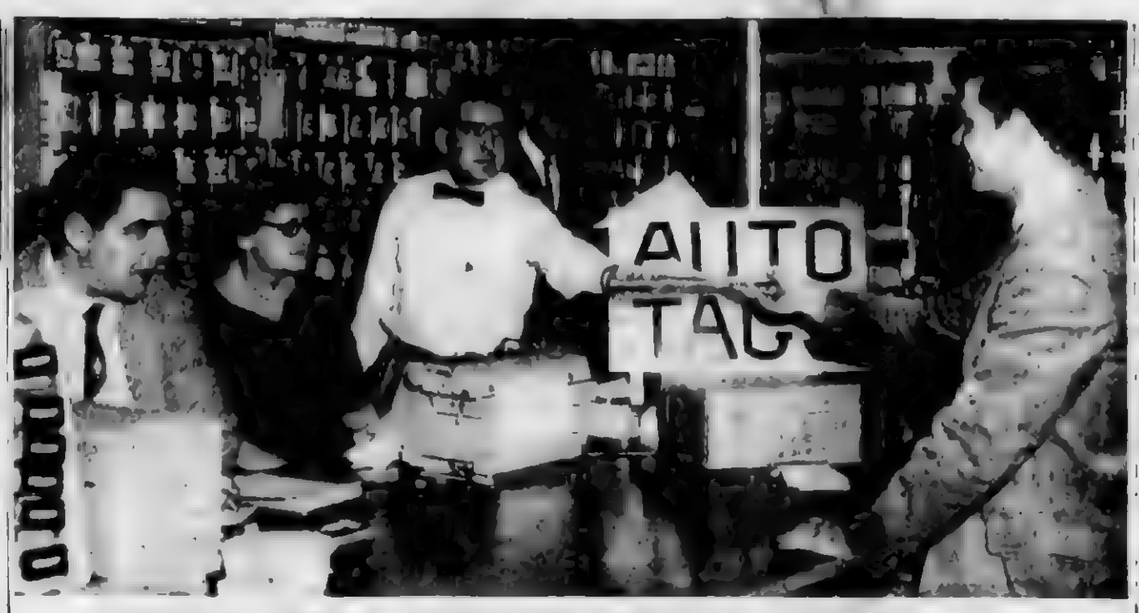
Ain't It the Truth?

The item below was passed on to us by Jack Sensenbrenner and we think it is worth repeating. Originally the piece appeared in the ROANOKE (Va.) TIMES. The Title is "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address Rewritten" and it goes like this . . .



"One score and six years ago our fathers brought forth upon this nation a new tax, conceived in desperation and dedicated on the proposition that all men are fair game.

"We are now engaged in a great mass of calculations, testing whether this taxpayer or any taxpayer so confused and so impoverished can long endure. We are met on Form 1040. We have come to dedicate a large portion of our income to a final resting place with those men who here spend their lives that they may spend our money.

"It is altogether anguish and torture that we should do this, but in the legal sense we cannot evade, we cannot cheat, we cannot underestimate this tax. The collectors, clever and sly who computed here, have gone far beyond our poor power to add and subtract.

"Our creditors will little note nor long remember what we pay here, but the Bureau of Internal Revenue can never forget what we report here. It is rather for us to be dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from those vanished dollars we take increased devotion to the few remaining; and that we here highly resolve that next year will not find us in a higher income bracket."

School Men Push Plan On Project

School Board Tuesday moved four steps closer to start of construction on Kent School, to be built between Kent and Gault-sts, about a half-block west of Kelton-av.

In four separate actions the board members approved working drawings on the building, set an Apr. 14 deadline for bids, approved purchase of part of the tract, and took the final step in condemnation proceedings on another portion of the site.

Board members also approved preliminary drawings, developed by Lewis F. Karlsberger, for a three-classroom addition to Livingston School, and took the final step in condemnation proceedings on a portion of the site of Parsons Elementary.

All projects are scheduled for completion in time for September occupancy.

Board members approved the purchase of two parcels of property on the Kent Elementary site—a two-story, single residence located at 1427 Kent-st, and a two-story single at 1431 Kent-st.

Condemnation proceedings are under way on two additional parcels. There are seven parcels of land in the tract, and they must all be purchased and cleared before construction can get under way.

The building will house nine classrooms and accommodate approximately 290 students.

Bids on the new Parsons School, to be constructed about one-third mile southeast of the Scioto School, immediately south and west of the end of Lee Ellen-pl, were to be opened Thursday.

Councilman Hoermle Speaks At Heimandale

Councilman William Hoermle was guest speaker at the organizational meeting of the Heimandale Community Club meeting Tuesday evening. He brought out in detail the ordinance that he recently introduced to the City Council concerning their area, along with what the community could do to better themselves.

William Neno, Council of South Side Organizations president also spoke to the group. He stressed to the approximately 50 residents present that the CSSO would back them on their journey to becoming a community organization as well as seeing that their area got a fair treatment for the betterment of the area.

Attorney William Brown, who is the legal counsel for the Heimandale area residents, spoke to them also on the ordinance that Hoermle introduced in Council. He pointed out a few parts of the ordinance that he would like to see changed for the peoples' benefit. He offered the people of the area numerous alternatives that they could take to better themselves and as well make a better community for themselves.

Roger Swaney, of the South Side Leader, gave the opening address at the meeting as well as acting as Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Swaney pointed out to the people that it depended on the efforts of area residents whether or not the Heimandale area could raise their living standards to other surrounding communities or whether it would fall as another slum area in the city.

At the closing of the program a verbal vote was taken to appoint a steering committee for the formation of this club. Those elected were Mrs. Carl Miller, chairman; Lloyd Burger, recording secretary and Logan Bibb, treasurer.

Next scheduled meeting will be Tuesday, March 29 at St. Stephen's Community House, 379 Barthman-av at 8 p.m. It is expected at this meeting that loose ends will start to be tied to form a community club. The officers urge every resident to attend.

Ruth Storch Chosen Area Best Citizen

Ruth Storch

Miss Ruth Storch, 690 E. Stone-st was named for the Best Citizen Award in the South Side. The judges based their decision from numerous letters received nominating Miss Storch as the Best Citizen.

The judges used four reasons why she should be elected as the Best Citizen. They are (1) For her untiring volunteer service as a lay advisor for the South Side YMCA Inter-Church Council; (2) For the many years of valuable service rendered the Young People of St. Paul's E and R Church; (3) For the loving service rendered the Senior Citizens of Pauline Home for the Aged and (4) For the voluntary service rendered the Young People of Southwest Ohio in Summer Camps as Councilor and advisor.

One of the letters received on her behalf states "Countless youth of the South Side know her as Ruthie and her efforts and personality have influenced thousands of young people."

Plus Miss Storch' regular duties at her job with the State Retirement System, she is a member of St. Paul's E and R Church, Advisor of the YMCA Inter-Church Council, Member of the Board of the Pauline Home for the Aged, St. John's E and R Youth Fellowship Group and Gra-Y Clubs.

According to Rev. Kaefer of St. Paul's E and R Church, he states: "When I came to the church over 31 years ago Ruth Storch was very active then, just as active as she is today. He further stated that her home is open to young people at all times.

South High Lutheran Church Is 'Church Of Lutheran Hour'

PORTALS OF WORSHIP—Zion Lutheran Church stands on a new foundation but the church structure in body is not new to the South Side. Zion's congregation was formed in 1882 by a small group of Missouri Synod Lutherans and worshipped in a church that they purchased, until they recently built their present church. The present Zion Lutheran Church is less than six years old, but the mortgage on the new structure has already been burned. Rev. Otto F. Stolzenburg is pastor.

In 1882 a group of Missouri Synod Lutherans banded together to organize a church for themselves on the South Side. The name adopted was the Evangelical Lutheran Zions Church. On June 21 the congregation dedicated its first church which had been purchased from St. Paul's Episcopal congregation, now located on E. Broad-st.

The first pastor of Zion Lutheran Church was Rev. Richard Herbst, who served faithfully for a period of 15 years. He was released in 1897 to become chaplain of the Home for the Aged in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Since 1897, five pastors have followed in the footsteps of Pastor Herbst. Immediately succeeding him was Rev. Zorn, who was installed in September, and followed by Rev. A. Haentzschel in 1904, Rev. Louis Steinbach in 1907, Rev. E. W. Bohn in 1910 and the present pastor, who has been of service to the church since 1920, Rev. Otto F. Stolzenburg.

During the more than 39 years of ministry with Zion Lutheran Church, Rev. Stolzenburg has watched Zion grow from a weak, struggling and divided group to a strong, virile congregation.

As the years passed the need for a new church became increasingly apparent. In April, 1941, a building fund was started in a modest way. As time went on, much serious thought, discussion and prayerful consideration were given to the church's problems.

In April, 1949, a general planning committee, consisting of three members from each organization of the church, was formed. This group met on numerous occasions to lay the ground work for a bigger and better church, which finally led to action.

On Apr. 19, 1953, groundbreaking ceremonies took place at the new S. High-st location. The actual construction of the new church started the day following the ground-breaking. Following shortly afterward was the laying of the cornerstone by Rev. Stolzenburg on June 21, 1953.

On Sunday, Mar. 21, 1954, the church opened its doors for the first worship service at the new location. The huge crowd assembled at the church doors and were led into the place of worship they had wished for for years, by Rev. Stolzenburg, singing the Hymn of Adoration.

On entering the church there is a spacious narthex separated from the nave by a redwood screen. On either side of the narthex, stairs lead to the lower level which houses the church school, kitchen and superintendent's office. On the right a stairway leads to the choir balcony and at the left is a glassed-in room that is used as a mothers' room or a bride's room for wedding purposes.

The nave is unique in church architecture, having laminated wooden arches supporting the entire roof. The heart of the entire church, architecturally speaking, is the chancel. In this area, beauty has especially been sought to provide the worshiper with a much warmer place to visit.

The design of the cast plaster rosettes on the side walls of the chancel was derived from the altar carvings, with special lighting in the floor to accentuate their beauty. The rosette motif is carried out in the communion rail and in the screen over the organ.

To the left of the nave are four classrooms. While this area is primarily used for Sunday School it can also be used for an overflow from the nave. Then to the right of the chancel is the pastor's study. The seating capacity for the church is more than 400 people.

St. John's Cagers Win Championship

The final week of play in the South Side YMCA Inter-Church Basketball Leagues produced two more team champions and three winners in the Foul Shooting Tournaments.

Frebis Church of God, fighting an uphill battle after losing first round honors, captured the Tuesday night Junior loop by defeating a fine team from Ohio-av EUB in tournament and the playoff games. Both games were decided by a three point margin with Frebis' overall scoring strength proving the big difference.

St. John E and R grabbed all the championship honors by defeating Ohio-av EUB in the Girl's Tourney final. Beth Leupp and Linda Koetz, two of the leagues highest scorers starred for the Saints, while Sharon Boquinst and Diana Lamp kept Ohio in the game until the final whistle.

Linda Koetz won the foul shooting tournament in the girls' division with an 11 for 20 record while honors in the junior boys class went to John Evans (11-20) in the Tuesday night league and Paul Klingman (10-20) of the Wednesday night boys.

Intermediate boys and members of the girls' league will hold their awards party at Washington-av EUB Church, Tuesday, Mar. 22. Speaker for the event will be Don Dicke of South High School and Capital University cage fame.

AWARD WINNERS—South High School held its 1959-60 Basketball Award Assembly Monday afternoon. Both junior and senior members of South's team were recognized. hold hold an "Everyone's Night Out" party to right, Dick Guyer, 1565 Fairwood-av, who received his first year award, and a trophy for Free Throw Champion, Eugene Harper, 848 Parsons-av, received his second year award and a trophy for the Most Valuable Team Player, and Bill Young, 465 Gates-av, who received his second year award.

Harper Wins Trophy As Most Valuable Pup

Eugene Harper was handed South High School's "most valuable player" award Monday at a special assembly which closed the books on a dismal season at the Bulldog camp.

Other special awards were presented to free throw champion Dick Guyer by Jack Shelton, faculty timer, and most valuable substitute Ken Kerns by Jo Chaney, girls physical education teacher.

Harper, sixth Bulldog to win the honor, was presented his award by Faculty Manager Dick Kate. Others who have won the honor are Jim Ferrell, Ron Allen, Jim Marshall, George Devlin and Ken Fowler.

Coach John Colmery, who guided his team to a 5-7 sixth place finish in loop action, termed the past season as one "from which we can learn much and hope to do better."

Featured speaker at the Monday event was Don Dicke, a senior at Capital U. where he won the school's scholar-basketball award.

Varsity letters were presented to Dick Guyer, Ken Kerns, Share Gregory, Tom Sims, Ken Lee and Terry Foster. Bill Young and Eugene Harper were awarded varsity medals.

Reserve lettermen are Ford Gaulke, Ron Bell, Al Wellman, John Whitt, Bill Price, Mel Standifer and Virgil Hollingsworth.

SouthThinclads Start Practice

By Gary Mallery

South High's track team is practicing full swing.

The only returning lettermen are Phil Hopkins, Dennis Mettle and Randy Swisher. Charles Shaner, South High track coach, says there are many good prospects in the turnout of boys for track.

The track team is still practicing in the gym, but when the weather is suitable the boys will be practicing outside.

It's Girl Scout Cookie Time

Over 5,000 Girl Scouts will be out to sell 250,000 boxes of cookies in the Columbus area, starting after school, Friday, March 18, and continuing through Monday, March 28, to support the camping program.

The Girl Scout Organization has been a Community Service since 1921 in the Columbus Area, meeting the needs of the maturing girls by providing a stimulating and inspiring program. As our communities are growing — so are the needs of the Girl Scout Council. By supporting the Cookie Sale, residents will help continue this educational and moral development for their future leaders.

The cookies are 50c per box and come in four varieties — four-flavor Sandwich Cremes, Chocolate Mints, Scot-Teas, and Savannahs. The cookies are made of pure ingredients and a special wrapping insures freshness for several months and storing in freezers.

Modern Fisherman Debunks Cold Weather Angling Myths

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Robert Strohm, 1536 Haft-dr, Reynoldsburg's intrepid ice fisherman, has been at it again.

In the midst of last week's Arctic weather he caught 15 bluegills from a farm pond. "Surprisingly," he said, "the ice was not very thick. The deep blanket of snow evidently kept the ice relatively thin, so I had to be careful."

An interesting observation by Strohm was that the fish were caught at all depths. This may mean that bluegills are on the move, and will be ready for artificial lures as soon as the ice goes out for good.

Another early March catch was a four and a quarter pound largemouth bass taken from the Scioto River by Herman Motter, 2258 Fishinger-rd. The fish was taken on a meal worm, which just goes to show you don't know what to expect when ice fishing.

Change Tactics With Season

The period of time between the end of ice fishing and the beginning of spring fishing is shortening each year. This is probably due to the fact that more and more fishermen learn that fish do not really become dormant during cold weather. Myths die hard, but the truth of the matter is that a lot of central Ohio anglers catch fish the year around — they just change their tactics to fit the season.

Even during uncertain March weather sportsmen are preparing for the onrush of the spring season. Gazing into the crystal ball shows that artificial nightcrawlers will be more popular than ever this year. The growth of these lures has been tremendous, and currently Heddon's, an old-timer in the business is entering the worm and eel field. These worms are getting fancier all the time, and this season you will see them with gold bands for added fish attraction.

Plastic Lures Are Catching

The so-called black eel was born in the South, when some enterprising angler dyed a foot-long piece of pork rind black and started catching bass on it like mad. About the same time the plastic industry reached a pinnacle of resourcefulness, and produced a phony nightcrawler that fooled everything from sunfish to barnyard chickens. Now, everything is mixed up and you have black nightcrawlers, plastic eels and happy fishermen.

You will find the artificial worms trussed up in harnesses for trolling in Lake Erie, and there are plenty of them sold mounted back of a June bug spinner. They are available in bulk quantities, and many fishermen carry a pocket full to thread on hooks like live works. Others come with hooks imbedded.

The secret in fishing these lures is to work them slowly. My first experience with "black eels" was on Lake Hamilton in Arkansas, and we worked them lazily along rocky shelves near shore. In one day we caught largemouth bass, spotted bass and smallmouths in different sections of the lake. Plastic worms are pretty much an all-round bait in this area too. Rock bass gobble them up as do largemouths and smallmouths. To catch bluegills you need the small edition — plastic red worms.

Contempating the coming fishing season is fun. Everyone dreams of having a banner year, as a result of finding a truly good bait. This year everybody will find plastic nightcrawlers and eels.

WLW-C To Televise 1960 Redleg Games

By Roger Swaney

A total of 26 baseball games of the Cincinnati Redlegs will be seen over Channel 4 during the 1960 season. Of the 26 games to be televised, 13 will be home games in color, according to WLW-C officials.

WLW-C is making available to schools, fraternal organizations, clubs and other interested groups a print of "In Focus."

In Focus is a story about television. It tells the effect that television can have upon a family, a town and a country. The film includes excerpts from television programs. The people who will tell the story of television are factory workers, farmers, homemakers, teachers and a host of other people. The people playing the part in this film did not have a script written for them nor words put into their mouths. They act the part as they feel toward the TV industry . . .

Motion picture star Jeff Chandler has been signed by Producer William Goetz for the title role of David for a series of two-hour-long Biblical dramas that the Academy award-winning movie producer will film in Israel for airing over WTVN-TV.

The Biblical dramas will tell of the adventures of David when, banished by King Saul, he was froced to live as an outlaw.

These presentations are expected to be presented over ABC as special programs in the 1960-61 season . . .

An hour-long documentary report on Korea will be telecast Tuesday, Mar. 29, at 10 a.m. John Secondari, who produced the filming will also narrate the production of what Korea is like today.

The story is based on Korea, a nation attempting to establish an independent life in an atmosphere which is not quite war but is so far from peace . . .

On Friday, Apr. 1, Person to Person with Charles Collingwood will present its special half-hour visit to Vatican City over WBNS-TV.

Acting as host for the program is Archbishop Martin J. O'Connor, rector of the Pontifical North American College in Rome.

The visit will originate in the Pontifical American College where the Archbishop will explain the operation of the 100-year-old college, which is for American students who are studying for the priesthood . . .

On Mar. 28 and Apr. 3 the Players Club of Columbus will present Anna Christie. The play was written by Eugene O'Neill. It will be given by the players at their theater on Franklin-av just off Washington-av.

Joyce Cavarozzy is playing the title role and Bob Rathbun, Hanley Collins, and Hester Ramsey are in feature leading roles. Others in the cast include Joe Myles, Merton Boyd, Roger Allen, Lewis Grey, Dale Landis and John Crawford.

Robert Denmead has designed the settings and Tom Boyd is acting as stage manager.

Erle Stanley Gardner, The Man Behind Perry Mason

A pile of books over 165 times higher than Mt. Everest, by one author! Original texts in English, translation into 20 languages, including Indian! A wide preoccupation with prison reform, crime detection, forensic medicine, courtroom justice. That's the story of a lawyer turned author, a champion of the unfortunate, a phenomenon in publishing. It's the story of Erle Stanley Gardner.

Twenty-seven years ago, a hard-covered mystery novel by a new author was placed on America's bookshelves. On its jacket — a terse prediction: "Perry Mason, criminal lawyer. Remember that name. You'll meet him again. He is going to be famous."

What makes this fictional attorney move at the pace he has? The answer lies partly in the working habits of his creator.

Gardner, an energetic Maestro of Mysteries, rises each working day at 4 a.m. to keep six secretaries busy recording his ideas. He often dictates parts of four different novels in an afternoon. Operates like a chess champion playing a half-dozen boards at once.

Gardner's been known to excuse himself from a dinner party, to return an hour later. In his study, just dictated: a complete chapter ready for another of his celebrated novels.

More than 107 million individual Perry Mason volumes have been sold in the U.S. and Canada alone, to say nothing of hundreds of thousands in England, with translations appearing in Czech, Danish, Dutch Finnish, French, German, Hebrew, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Slovene, Spanish, Swedish and a number of the Indian languages.

This legal pioneer also has intense interests in prison conditions and reform, scientific methods of detection, forensic medicine, lie detectors and criminal psychology. In short, he's a man dedicated to justice.

Such involvements require a great deal of peace and concentration, and Gardner finds them in four hideouts scattered throughout California. Home base is the Rancho del Paisano, a rugged 3,000-acre tract near Temecula where he turns out an average of 20,000 words a day. For diversion, this man, seventy on his last birthday, is yet adept at horseback riding and archery.

One of his most recent contributions was to help found a civic group in Texas. There, an attorney general organized a group of businessmen to educate people in nearby communities in the responsibilities of law enforcement. The group has been so successful — and appreciative of Gardner's personal contribution — that they have named him an honorary citizen of Texas, a Texas Ranger and an asristant Attorney General.

But Gardner has no such ulterior motives in turning out his works. He left a successful law practice to join the literary world simply because he enjoys it.

Like many other successful writers, Garden also uses a pseudonym — A. A. Fair. Under that byline, he's created other characters — such as Bertha Cool, a femme private eye. And under his own name, the "D.A." series presents the "other side" of courtroom battles.

Modern Fisherman Debunks Cold Weather Angling Myths

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Robert Strohm, 1530 Haft-dr, Reynoldsburg's intrepid ice fisherman, has been at it again.

In the midst of last week's Arctic weather he caught 15 bluegills from a farm pond. "Surprisingly," he said, "the ice was not very thick. The deep blanket of snow evidently kept the ice relatively thin, so I had to be careful."

An interesting observation by Strohm was that the fish were caught at all depths. This may mean that bluegills are on the move, and will be ready for artificial lures as soon as the ice goes out for good.

Another early March catch was a four and a quarter pound largemouth bass taken from the Scioto River by Herman Motter, 2258 Fishinger-rd. The fish was taken on a meal worm, which just goes to show you don't know what to expect when ice fishing.

Change Tactics With Season

The period of time between the end of ice fishing and the beginning of spring fishing is shortening each year. This is probably due to the fact that more and more fishermen learn that fish do not really become dormant during cold weather. Myths die hard, but the truth of the matter is that a lot of central Ohio anglers catch fish the year around — they just change their tactics to fit the season.

Even during uncertain March weather sportsmen are preparing for the onrush of the spring season. Gazing into the crystal ball shows that artificial nightcrawlers will be more popular than ever this year. The growth of these lures has been tremendous, and currently Heddon's, an old-timer in the business is entering the worm and eel field. These worms are getting fancier all the time, and this season you will see them with gold bands for added fish attraction.

Plastic Lures Are Catching

The so-called black eel was born in the South, when some enterprising angler dyed a foot-long piece of pork rind black and started catching bass on it like mad. About the same time the plastic industry reached a pinnacle of resourcefulness, and produced a phony nightcrawler that fooled everything from sunfish to barnyard chickens. Now, everything is mixed up and you have black nightcrawlers, plastic eels and happy fishermen.

You will find the artificial worms trussed up in harnesses for trolling in Lake Erie, and there are plenty of them sold mounted back of a June bug spinner. They are available in bulk quantities, and many fishermen carry a pocket full to thread on hooks like live works. Others come with hooks imbedded.

The secret in fishing these lures is to work them slowly. My first experience with "black eels" was on Lake Hamilton in Arkansas, and we worked them lazily along rocky shelves near shore. In one day we caught largemouth bass, spotted bass and smallmouths in different sections of the lake. Plastic worms are pretty much an all-round bait in this area too. Rock bass gobble them up as do largemouths and smallmouths. To catch bluegills you need the small edition — plastic red worms.

Contempating the coming fishing season is fun. Everyone dreams of having a banner year, as a result of finding a truly good bait. This year everybody will find plastic nightcrawlers and eels.

Gardner's been known to excuse himself from a dinner party, to return an hour later, in his study, just dictated: a complete chapter ready for another of his celebrated novels.

More than 107 million individual Perry Mason volumes have been sold in the U.S. and Canada alone, to say nothing of hundreds of thousands in England, with translations appearing in Czech, Danish, Dutch Finnish, French, German, Hebrew, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Slovene, Spanish, Swedish and a number of the Indian languages.

This legal pioneer also has intense interests in prison conditions and reform, scientific methods of detection, forensic medicine, lie detectors and criminal psychology. In short, he's a man dedicated to justice.

Such involvements require a great deal of peace and concentration, and Gardner finds them in four hideouts scattered throughout California. Home base is the Rancho del Paisano, a rugged 3,000-acre tract near Temecula where he turns out an average of 20,000 words a day. For diversion, this man, seventy on his last birthday, is yet adept at horseback riding and archery.

One of his most recent contributions was to help found a civic group in Texas. There, an attorney general organized a group of businessmen to educate people in nearby communities in the responsibilities of law enforcement. The group has been so successful — and appreciative of Gardner's personal contribution — that they have named him an honorary citizen of Texas, a Texas Ranger and an assistant Attorney General.

But Gardner has no such ulterior motives in turning out his works. He left a successful law practice to join the literary world simply because he enjoys it.

Like many other successful writers, Gardea also uses a pseudonym — A. A. Fair. Under that byline, he's created other characters — such as Bertha Cool, a femme private eye. And under his own name, the "D.A." series presents the "other side" of courtroom battles.

South High School Alumni Plans Important Meeting

A very important meeting is slated for the South High Alumni Association meeting, tonight at 8 p.m. Included on the agenda will be the planning of the annual reunion in May, appointment of the nominating committee and a report of the by-laws and constitution committee. Perhaps a explanatory word might be in order about the Alumni Association . . . no one is "appointed" as a member; a genuine interest in the school is the only requirement for attending the meetings. for ALL alumni are eligible to attend and take part. See you tonight at South High?

True to a promise made last December, Glee Oleta McNutt is letting us "in" on her trip to the Orient this spring. A postal mailed from Seattle, Wash. cronicles a meeting with one of her many shut-in friends (Mrs. McNutt is a tireless worker in behalf of shut-ins) and a party at the airport before departure of the 25 hours airtrip to Tokyo. She's promised to keep the postals coming, and we'll gladly share them by this medium.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, 137 E. Innis-av attained their 50th wedding anniversary last Sunday, Mar. 13. An open house celebration was held in the home of Mrs. William Winget, a daughter, who resides at 234 Bricker-blvd. The Bakers have eight children, 17 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A reminder from Norma DiGoria that this is change-over time for auto license tags and the place to buy them is at the Kiwanis station, located at Short's Cleaners, Whittier and Jaeger-sts.

Mary Julian, a co-owner of Julian's Market, 1526 Parsons-av, has had quite a siege of illness this winter and would certainly be cheered by cards at this time.

Others on the ailing list are Delores Culbertson, White Cross Hospital, room 308; "Bus" Hetenhouser, Grant Hospital, room 375 whose home address is 577 Kossuth-st; Virg Lenox, hospitalized for several days at Grant Hospital; Betty Dean, 898 Studer-av, who was in Mt. The dates we know are those of Ruth Martin, Mar. 17; Edna Strauss, Mar. 19; Elizabeth Gage, Mar. 22 also the birthdate of Betty Obert. Belated greetings to Mr. I. L. Southwood PTA members are eagerly anticipating the first Family Fun Night, to be held at the school next Thursday, Mar. 24. Square dancing will be called by Jim Wagner, with round dancing held intermittently. Duncan the Magician will entertain at two shows. Refreshments will be sold all evening.

Members of the Camp Fire Girls attended the annual Birthday Party held for them by Lazarus. Other items gleaned from the Camp Fire Girl bulletin tell us that the group needs a few more Folgers labels to receive a coffee-maker, to be used when training group meetings are held, etc. Send labels to Camp Fire Girl officer, 718 S. High-st. One item intrigued us, we'd like to know more about it . . . it is possible to visit an authentic reproduction of a Japanese Tea House, in Westerville. Is it a regular place of business, does anyone know? Camp Fire Girls also have the privilege of taking a ten week swimming course at the YWCA from Mar. 21 to May 28 for $6. With Camp time coming up, parents of non-swimming Camp Fire Girls should take advantage of this special.

It's Now Official

Ladies' old-fashioned bloomers are passe. The National Labor Relations Board has said so. In Alabama a textile mill decided a couple of years ago to discontinue making bloomers. There was no market for them. This threw eight people out of work. The union to which the eight paid dues filed a complaint with The NLRB, alleging unfair labor practices. The union urged the NLRB to compel the company to keep on making bloomers so the jobs could continue. After two years of mumbo-jumbo the NLRB decided that the company had the best possible reason for not making women's bloomers. They discovered that women don't even buy them anymore . . . much less wear them! We weren't told how they conducted the survey. —(Twin City Bulletin)

BOY SCOUTS RECEIVE GOD AND HONOR AWARDS

HIGH HONORS—Six boys, all members of St. John Evangelical and Reformed Church, received the God and Country Award at the Sunday morning Worship Service, Mar. 13. This award is given to these scouts who have completed outstanding duties and services to their church and community. The boys from St. John receiving this award have been under the direct supervision of Rev. Paul C. Kaefer, pastor of the church. The honored scouters are, left to right, Karl Groezinger, Ronald Cooper, David Henderson, Walter Dupler, Jon Ellifritz and Robert Pindell.

'Start From Scratch' Flood Committee Urges

One year following the ravaging flood of 1959 steps are being taken to seek a plan whereby such floods of the future can be prevented.

In a four-point resolution the Water and Sewage Committee of the Development Committee of Greater Columbus today recommended that the present Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy District be dissolved; that funds of the district be returned to the counties that paid into the district and that such funds be specifically reserved for the purposes originally intended; that the city withdraw the action in appealing the dissolution of the district; and that necessary steps be taken toward the formation of a new conservancy district.

'Should Start With Franklin'

The committee further states that the new conservancy district should be "limited initially" to Franklin County and such counties downstream from Franklin County and contiguous to the Scioto River and to each other which evidence their desire and intention of actively participating in a positive manner in the affairs of the new district.

"When organized and incorporated, the new district should consider the subsequent admission of other counties, within the Scioto watershed as defined by the Ohio Water Commission, as they express their willingness to support the district's programs and purposes for water resources planning and management to the end that the district not only ultimately embrace all counties within the entire watershed but in the process of development be compatible with the programs and purposes of the Ohio Water Commission."

Court To Reconvene

Judge Myron Gasseman, conservancy district judge, was to receive a set of the recommendations today. The 17-judge court will be reconvened very soon for further consideration of the matter. Following the flood last year the court had asked dissolution of the district. Soon thereafter the city, through Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, had sought to delay the dissolution of the district.

In the 25 years that the Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy District has been organized it has nothing to its credit. It has been determined that the district is too large and that all the counties involved do not have the same interests in flood control.

Much interest has been shown in the formation of a local district that will take immediate steps to get some kind of a flood control and water conservation program under way.

These recommendations come after many weeks of study by the committee, and consultation with numerous people qualified to discuss the matter, according to C. Carlton Hartley, chairman of the water and sewage committee.

Meat Imports and Surpluses Don't Jibe

It doesn't make sense that we should have abundant surpluses of meats in this country and that farmers should be paid a subsidy while increasing amounts of meats are imported.

County Agene George Gaynard this past week, in a local address, called atention to some of the farm problems. Just recently an editorial in Chicago Drovers Journal placed emphasis on the condition, too. They point out an increase in meat imports of 243 percent in the past year.

We understand from reliable sources that a local large food market is selling an abundant amount of imported lamb . . . imported from Iceland. Some persons might say, "So what? If the price is lower, why not?" Therein lies the rub. For the most part people don't know the difference and there is actually no difference in price . . . to the consumer.

It doesn't seem to make sense to allow such practices to continue when neither the farmer nor the consumer is benefited.

Penny-per-game will be enjoyed again this season by youthful fans when they buy the familiar Jet Badge.

Sale of the badges, which sell for 50 cents apiece, begins Monday, Mar. 28, and continues until May 1.

Badge wearers are entitled to see al of the Jets' home games free except for opening day, Sundays, holidays and special occasions. As in the past, badge wearers must be accompanied by an adult.

Any school age boy or girl—teenage and high school youths included — is eligible to buy a badge. The same youth groups that have sold badges for the past several years will sell them again this year.

These groups are Boy Scouts of America, The Boys' Club, Catholic Youth Organization, The Jewish Center, and members of the YMCA, and the Girl Scouts.

Proceeds from the sales of badges, after costs are deducted, are kept by the youth organizations to support activities within their groups. After the sales campaign officially closes on May 1, any child without a badge who desires one, can buy it from a member of the organizations selling them.

Since the program was begun in 1955, badge sales have rocketed each year. Last year's record badge sales exceeded 30,000. This year's sales are expected to equal or even surpass that number.

The badge sales committee is again headed by Chairman Dick Hahn.

Dr. Alfred Etter To Be Lecturer At Church Meet

Wagnalls Memorial Church, Lithopolis, will hear a lecture by Alfred G. Etter, Sunday, Mar. 27, at 2:30 p.m. His theme will be entitled "A Missouri Story."

This is the story of the land and the life upon it. Before it was too late, Dr. Etter, native Missourian, recorded life as it used to be on an old Missouri farm. This is a color film that paints the peacefulness of autumn and then destroys it with winter's sharp edge. It awakens the world with the singing of the meadow lark and frog at springtime and lulls it in summer with the drowsiness of doves and cicadas.

Depicted is the territorial behavior of the red-headed woodpecker, battles of the mockingbird, where the rights of the possum and raccoon exist.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Interfaith Group Seeks Better Television Programs, Movies

Your readers have been showing an interest in the quality of entertainment presently available to Columbusites in movie theaters and on television. Perhaps they would like to know about the work of the Interfaith Committee for Better Entertainment in Columbus.

This committee is composed of women representing the three faiths, that is, members of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, of the United Church Women of Columbus and Franklin County, and of Temple Israel. Two years ago they organized themselves into a committee to study and publicize current entertainment.

Their first project was the publication of FAMILY FEATURES. FAMILY FEATURES is a classification of motion pictures for family patronage. Basing their classification on ratings supplied by three national rating services, the committee groups movies suitable for the whole family regardless of how young the children may be, for teenagers, and also for mature teens.

Another project of the Better Entertainment Committee is the distribution of "Committee-of-One" postcards. These are of two kinds, one expressing praise and the other, disapproval. There is space on either card for a personal message in addition to the message carried by the card itself. They may be sent to movie exhibitors, movie producers and distributors, local radio and TV outlets, national radio and TV systems, newspapers, etc.

The Better Entertainment Committee realizes that local exhibitors of movies have many difficulties to face and often are handicapped in their efforts to present good entertainment.

We sympathize with them in their need to avoid operating in the red. So it is that we urge the people of Columbus who want wholesome entertainment to support at the box office, the many fine things which come to us, and to avoid spending any money on the violent and sexational things which may be available.

—Mrs. W. L. Harris

Area Girl Scouts Hold International Dinner

Troop 593

Brownie Troop No. 593 recently entertained its families with an international pot-luck dinner and program. Two senior scouts from Troop 261 along with their leaders, Mrs. Helen Rolph, showed color slides and told of their experiences at the Girl Scout Cabana located near Cuernavaca, Mex.

The Brownies of Troop 593 have for several weeks worked very hard constructing full length paper uniforms of the various countries of the world where girl scouting is organized. Wearing these costumes were: Sally Blair, Burma; Merri Borst, Italy; Donna George, Great Britain; Jane Held, South Africa; Miriam Reynolds, Phillipines; Scotty Runyon, Lebanon; Carolyn Salyer, United States; Sandy Schaffran, Mexico; Diana Simons, Panama; Gayle Snyder, Japan; Nola Swarmer, Germany; Vicki Waldeck, France; Virginia White, Ceylon. The Brownies of Troop 499 surprised their leader, Mrs. George Savage, on Feb. 22 with a surprise birthday party. The entire party was arranged by the girls themselves with the aid of Mr. Savage, whose primary duty was to get Mrs. Savage away from their home long enough for the Brownies to conceal themselves under furniture, behind doors, and any place large enough to hold an excited Brownie. The girls presented Mrs. Savage with a plant as an extra birthday surprise.

Awards were presented to many girls for their long service to Girl Scouting, and a program was held entertaining the girls with community singing under the leadership of Dr. Merrill Davis, followed by a Comedy Trampoline act by Chase and Parks.

TB Skin Test To Be Given Area Students

Tuberculin skin tests, provided to first-graders last spring, will be given to 3,000 students in the seventh, 11th and 12th grades in 36 Catholic Schools, including four in this area, according to the Tuberculosis Society.

Friday, Mar. 25, 166 students at St. Mary's School will receive the skin tests. Monday, Mar. 28, 55 students at St. Leo's School, 59 students at St. Ladislas School and 107 students at Corpus Christi School will receive the tests.

Whether, and to what extent, tuberculin tests replace, or supplement chest X-rays on the high school level depends upon results of this pilot program, the Tuberculosis Society stated. Both detection weapons have advantages of their own X-rays reveal abnormalities besides TB in the chest area. Tuberculin tests find positive reactors who may not now have the disease but who will be candidates for active tuberculosis since they have TB germs in their bodies.

"PPD", harmless in itself, produces an allergic reaction to any TB germs present in the body. This "positive" reaction is characterized by a swollen welt, measuring five or more millimeters, appearing on the arm.

Pat Carroll

PHENOMENA

Carl Junction, Mo.—After a tornado struck the farm of Gene Bryant, he found that his 14 cows and five hogs were not even scratched, but the barn in which they were housed had vanished.

The twister developed out of a nearly cloudless sky while the family was gathered at home. No one was injured.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEW

Pat Carroll's School Days Acting Leads To Stardom

Louisiana born Pat Carroll, a natural at music and the art of comedy, started in the business during her high school days. Her first interest was with Little Theatre groups during that time. After college, a brief teaching career and some free-lance radio acting, the lure of New York became too strong to resist and the years 1947 to 1949 saw her in nearly 200 stock productions. In 1949, during the second World War, she took charge of a traveling theatre group for the U.S. Army.

This was only the start for what today is one of America's leading female comediennes. Her path to fame was gained through appearances on the shows of Jimmy Durante, Mickey Rooney, Ann Sothern, George Gobel and Dennis Day. She has been featured with Maurice Chevalier, Perry Como, Buddy Hackett and Jeannie Carson, as well as entertaining on Producer's Showcase and several Max Liebman "Spectaculars." All of this was climaxed in 1956 when she was awarded the Emmy for "best supporting actress" for her hilarious portrayals on the Sid Caesar Show.

Miss Carroll was married to Lee Karsian, a New York talent executive, in 1955. Taking a two year intermission to make a home for her husband and raising two children, she has returned to the stage and TV screen in the same fashion that she left it.

Since her return she has been guest artist on such shows as Tennessee Ernie Ford, Pat Boone, Patrice Munel, Masquerade Party and Jack Parr, not leaving her weekly appearance on Keep Talking.

As for the immediate future and in addition to her already crowded schedule, Miss Carroll has set out to reorganize her fan clubs, providing them with materials and with additional purpose so that as a group they might make worthwhile contributions to the community.

Miss Carroll is at present writing her autobiography, as well as developing a whimsical down to earth weekly newspaper column on show business.

The popular young star's gift in the entertainment field continues to grow. Ever since she was 13, when she organized her first vaudeville show, she has acted, sung, danced, clowned, composed and played the accordion — all with a rare degree of success.

Long wall known as a rare female comic, Pat Carroll only recently began to use the variety of intellectual talents she has been perfecting since she studied drama at Catholic University in Washington. Still fascinated by learning, she studies English literature at home while she takes an extension course in law from LaSalle University. All the while, she practices her show business techniques like a ballerina.

EUGENE ORMANDY

Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, makes it a rule to play something on each of his programs that his hearers will hum or whistle on their way home. After his Columbus concert, Wednesday, 8 p.m., Mar. 30, at Veterans' Memorial, the romantic melodies from Tchiakovsky's "Pathetique" Symphony will ring in many ears.

Other items in that program will be a Sinfonia for Double Orchestra (No. 1, in E flat major, Op. 18) by Johann Christian Bach, the Prelude and Fugue for String Orchestra by the American composer, Roy Harris, and a Divertimento entitled "Paganiniana" by the contemporary Italian, Alfredo Casella.

The Philadelphia Orchestra concert is the final item for this season in the series sponsored by the Symphony Club of Central Ohio. Tickets are on sale at Summers' Music Store, 144 E. Broad-st. The box office telephone is CA. 4-1515, and at Zeisler's in the Lane Shopping Center.

PHENOMENA

Carl Junction, Mo.—After a tornado struck the farm of Gene Bryant, he found that his 14 cows and five hogs were not even scratched, but the barn in which they were housed had vanished.

The twister developed out of a nearly cloudless sky while the family was gathered at home. No one was injured.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEW

Pat Carroll's School Days Acting Leads To Stardom

Louisiana born Pat Carroll, a natural at music and the art of comedy, started in the business during her high school days. Her first interest was with Little Theatre groups during that time. After college, a brief teaching career and some freelance radio acting, the lure of New York became too strong to resist and the years 1947 to 1949 saw her in nearly 200 stock productions. In 1949, during the second World War, she took charge of a traveling theatre group for the U.S. Army.

This was only the start for what today is one of America's leading female comedi e n n e s. Her path to fame was gained through appearances on the shows of Jimmy Durante, Mickey Rooney, Ann Sothern, George Gobel and Dennis Day. She has been featured with Maurice Chevalier, Perry Como, Buddy Hackett and Jeannie Carson, as well as entertaining on Producer's Showcase and several Max Liebman "Spectaculars." All of this was climaxed in 1956 when she was awarded the Emmy for "best supporting actress" for her hilarious portrayals on the Sid Caesar Show.

Miss Carroll was married to Lee Karsian, a New York talent executive, in 1955. Taking a two year intermission to make a home for her husband and raising two children, she has returned to the stage and TV screen in the same fashion that she left it.

Since her return she has been guest artist on such shows as Tennessee Ernie Ford, Pat Boone, Patrice Munel, Masquerade Party and Jack Parr, not leaving her weekly appearance on Keep Talking.

As for the immediate future and in addition to her already crowded schedule, Miss Carroll has set out to reorganize her fan clubs, providing them with materials and with additional purpose so that as a group they might make worthwhile contributions to the community.

Miss Carroll is at present writing her autobiography, as well as developing a whimsical down to earth weekly newspaper column on show business.

The popular young star's gift in the entertainment field continues to grow. Ever since she was 12, when she organized her first vaudeville show, she has acted, sung, danced, clowned, composed and played the accordion — all with a rare degree of success.

Long well known as a rare female comic, Pat Carroll only recently began to use the variety of intellectual talents she has been perfecting since she studied drama at Catholic University in Washington. Still fascinated by learning, she studies English literature at home while she takes an extension course in law from LaSalle University. All the while, she practices her show business techniques like a ballerina.

Whether, and to what extent, tuberculin tests replace, or supplement chest X-rays on the high school level depends upon results of this pilot program, the Tuberculosis Society stated. Both detection weapons have advantages of their own X-rays reveal abnormalities besides TB in the chest area. Tuberculin tests find positive reactors who may not now have the disease but who will be candidates for active tuberculosis since they have TB germs in their bodies.

"PPD", harmless in itself, produces an allergic reaction to any TB germs present in the body. This "positive" reaction is characterized by a swollen welt, measuring five or more millimeters, appearing on the arm.

Philadelphia Orchestra To Stage Concert

EUGENE ORMANDY

Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, makes it a rule to play something on each of his programs that his hearers will hum or whistle on their way home. After his Columbus concert, Wednesday, 8 p.m., Mar. 30, at Veterans' Memorial, the romantic melodies from Tchiakovsky's "Pathetique" Symphony will ring in many ears.

Other items in that program will be a Sinfonia for Double Orchestra (No. 1, in E flat major, Op. 18) by Johann Christian Bach, the Prelude and Fugue for String Orchestra by the American composer, Roy Harris, and a Divertimento entitled "Paganiniana" by the contemporary Italian, Alfredo Casella.

The Philadelphia Orchestra concert is the final item for this season in the series sponsored by the Symphony Club of Central Ohio. Tickets are on sale at Summers' Music Store, 144 E. Broad-st. The box office telephone is CA. 4-1515, and at Zeisler's in the Lane Shopping Center.

TB Skin Test To Be Given Area Students

Tuberculin skin tests, provided to first-graders last spring, will be given to 3,000 students in the seventh, 11th and 12th grades in 36 Catholic Schools, including four in this area, according to the Tuberculosis Society.

Friday, Mar. 25, 166 students at St. Mary's School will receive the skin tests. Monday, Mar. 28, 55 students at St. Leo's School, 59 students at St. Ladislas School and 107 students at Corpus Christi School will receive the tests.

Whether, and to what extent, tuberculin tests replace, or supplement chest X-rays on the high school level depends upon results of this pilot program, the Tuberculosis Society stated. Both detection weapons have advantages of their own X-rays reveal abnormalities besides TB in the chest area. Tuberculin tests find positive reactors who may not now have the disease but who will be candidates for active tuberculosis since they have TB germs in their bodies.

"PPD", harmless in itself, produces an allergic reaction to any TB germs present in the body. This "positive" reaction is characterized by a swollen welt, measuring five or more millimeters, appearing on the arm.

UPO (Unidentified Pond Objects) Solved

Fred Strunk, Cincinnati farm pond owner, thought he had ghosts in his pond. He reported seeing white objects moving around the pond, according to Dale Roach, Hamilton County game protector, Ohio Division of Wildlife. Later he discovered that they were white muskrats.

When the trapping season opened, Strunk live trapped five of the white muskrats, presumably a family group. He tried to keep them alive, but all but one of the uncommon fur bearers died. The muskrats were not true albinos as their nose, eyes and ears were a normal brown color.

Strunk's pond is located in Anderson Township.

UFO (Unidentified Pond Objects) Solved

Fred Strunk, Cincinnati farm pond owner, thought he had ghosts in his pond. He reported seeing white objects moving around the pond, according to Dale Roach, Hamilton County game protector, Ohio Division of Wildlife. Later he discovered that they were white muskrats.

When the trapping season opened, Strunk live trapped five of the white muskrats, presumably a family group. He tried to keep them alive, but all but one of the uncommon fur bearers died. The muskrats were not true albinos as their nose, eyes and ears were a normal brown color.

Strunk's pond is located in Anderson Township.

Double Ring Nuptial Ceremony Unites Anne E. Eyster, Joseph A. Goodrich

MRS. JOSEPH AARON GOODRICH

In a candlelight ceremony at Oakwood Methodist Church Saturday afternoon, Mar. 19, Miss Anne Elizabeth Eyster and Mr. Joseph Aaron Goodrich were united in marriage. Rev. Carl E. Hicks officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denton D. Eyster, 2770 Eastminster-rd. Mr. Goodrich's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Goodrich, 992 E. Mound-st.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of lace with nylon net scalloped skirt and set-in-cummerbund. The apron-effect back featured a large butterfly bow.

Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a small flowered half-hat, and she carried a French nose-gay of feathered white carnations centered with blush-pink cymbidiums upon a white Bible.

Miss Mary Jane Eyster served her sister as maid of honor. Miss Jean Eyster, a cousin, and Miss Amy Leonard were bridesmaids.

All wore identical gowns of lace over taffeta: The maid of honor's gown was blue and the bridesmaids' were deep pink. Their small flowered head bands matched pastel satin cummerbunds and each carried a small bouquet of white rosebuds with pastel ribbon.

Mr. Ernest F. Goodrich served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. David Eyster, the bride's brother, and Mr. Robert Newell.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social room.

The bride is a senior in the College of Education at Ohio State University. Mr. Goodrich is associated with Kroger Co.

Cartons 'N' Candy Needed For Orient Easter Treats

An SOS came our way last week and we hope the appeal reaches lots of interested readers. The appeal is for empty cottage cheese cartons and Easter candy to give to patients at Orient State Hospital.

Margie Speakmon, 820 S. Third-st, is the hard-working South Sider who makes the appeal. She didn't receive the "go-ahead" signal until last week, so we'll have to work fast to reach her goal. Last year the state had provided treats for Orient, but does not plan to do so this year, so Easter treats at the institution will depend strictly upon private contributors. To reach Margie by phone, call her at HI. 4-0832.

The Franklin Bicycle Club, Inc., will hold a 25-mile pre-Olympic run, open to residents of Franklin County. For further information, call "Doc" Crary, HI. 3-4062.

The Downtown "Y" will be the scene of an area sports festival this Saturday, Mar. 26.

A mother-son birthday duo will celebrate their joint natal day on Mar. 28. The celebrants are JoAnne and "Skipper" Young, 717 City Park-av.

Heart Beat No. 3 is collecting sales tax stamps in a drive that will last until the end of April. All funds derived from this source go 100 per cent to the Heart Fund, so the group would appreciate receiving any amount, large or small, from interested readers. For pick-up of the stamps, call Mrs. William Bertch, BR. 9-9308, or Mrs. Lewis Kackley, CL. 2-1075. Mrs. Kackley's address is 575 Gilbert-st, if any donor cares to send the stamps through the mail.

A belated birthday greeting to little Miss Susie Schodorf, 284 Sheldon-av, who celebrated her birthday on St. Patrick's Day, Mar. 17.

Columbus' loss is Chicago's gain, for personable Bob Ross and his bride, Neida, henceforth will be residing in Chicago. Mr. Ross will minister to the Brookfield congregation in the Illinois city.

Our sympathy to Mary Cahill, 1526 Fairwood-av, who lost her mother, Mrs. John Ferguson, of Shenandoah, Pa., last week.

Birthdays that occur when the March lamb should be preparing for his debut: Sally Larimer, Mar. 27; Marilyn Vonsteenburgh, Mar. 26; Stephanie Carter, Mar. 28; James Heinlein, Mar. 30; Karen Keeney, Mar. 26; Vicki Skunza, Mar. 23; James Harrow, Mar. 24; Jean Truax, Mar. 28; Michael Myers, Mar. 28; Donald Joseph Murnane, Mar. 26, and Joann Murnane, 642 Hanford-st, Mar. 30.

Senior Regent Mabel Gregory will preside at the regular March business meeting tonight when Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, convenes at 33 W. Sycamore-st. Next Wednesday, Mar. 30, the hospital committee of Chapter 206 is in charge of the 5 to 7 p.m. weekly dinner.

Chairman of the committee is Lucy Brown. Price of the meal is $1 for adults, 50 cents for children.

PTA activities: Lincoln Park, tonight at 7:30, will hear from Robert Schmidt, YMCA secretary, Mrs. Frederic Mauger, neighborhood chairman of Ohio Trefoil Girl Scouts; Robert Meade, field director of the Boy Scouts, and Walter Bohl, director of special education.

Siebert Street PTA will meet Tuesday, Mar. 29, at 7:30 p.m. OSU players will present "Help Wanted," a timely play.

Fornof PTA will hold a dessert supper at the school from 6 to 8 tonight.

Southwood School will hold its first family fun night tonight from 7 to 9:30. Free square dancing will be held on the school's first floor, with Jim Wagner taking charge of that phase of the program. Duncan, the Magician, will present two shows, at 7:15 and at 8:15, in the auditorium. Souvenirs, pennants, scarves and T shirts will be sold. The menu includes hot dogs, soft drinks or coffee, potato chips and candy.

PEBS, Chapter 2, met in the home of Mrs. Millard Hussey, 2694 Floribunda-dr, this past Tuesday, Mar. 22, for a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Donald Ryan assisted the hostess.

Get-well cards are appropriate this week for James Moore, 254 Hanford-st.

Birthdays are uppermost in the thoughts of these residents this week: Ervin Aschner, 494 Seymour, Mar. 24, also the birthdate for Joan Butler; Marie Cook, Mar. 25; Dorothy Weakley and Margaret Spiker share Mar. 26 as "their" day; Virginia Leonard, Mary Leist and Oscar Workman have a special regard for Mar. 27. Mar. 27 is an important day for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Paskell, 171 E. Markison-av, who will be wed for 56 years this coming Sunday. Mar. 28 is an "extra special" one for Nellie Kaufman, "Doc" Crary and Ray Shaffer; on Mar. 29, greetings are in order for Margaret Turner, John Brandum and Deanna Brewer; Mar. 30, our friend Rose De Matteo adds a new year, after Pappy Time gives his permission.

Priscilla Dicke, Cincinnati Bible Seminary student, was a week-end Columbus visitor last Saturday and Sunday.

Congratulations to newlyweds, Paul and Carol Jean Gage, who exchanged their vows on Mar. 19. Mrs. Gage is the former Carol Jean Miller.

Linda Estep will change her name to Mrs. Wayne Gaines on Saturday, Mar. 26, in the Obetz Nazarene Church. Miss Estep, 171 E. Mithoff-st, is a graduate of South High School and Mr. Gaines, 326 Marboro-av, graduated from Hamilton Township High School.

GUIDES TO THE SELECTION OF BUTTER AND CHEESE

Are you a label reader? If so, you will find butter and cheese are two dairy products that may bear a U.S. grade designation. These grades are a means of identifying and comparing quality when buying the products. The following brief descriptions of these grades may serve as a guide in determining which is best suited to your needs.

GRADES OF BUTTER

For more than 30 years, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has been carrying on a voluntary program of butter grading. The manufacturer has to request the service. Once requested, the government takes over the grading operation and you can use the federal label as an assurance of quality.

There are four U.S. grades for butter. Only the first two (GRADE AA—93 score and GRADE A—92 score) are commonly seen in food stores. It would take a very discriminating person indeed to tell the difference between the two top U.S.D.A. grades.

Both must have a pleasing and desirable flavor, must be manufactured from fresh, sweet cream, and extreme care must be exercised all through the production and marketing process. GRADE B (90 score) butter is manufactured from sour cream, and although it is acceptable to some people, lacks the sweet, fresh taste of the two top grades. GRADE C (89 score) butter is used for cooking and is not usually found at the retail level.

The letters AA, A, B or C (numerical scores 93, 92, 90, or 89) on package without the prefix "U.S." indicates the butter has not been certified by a Federal butter grader.

For use as a table spread, the U.S. Grade A butter certainly is satisfactory to the majority of butter users. The advisability of paying a premium price for U.S. Grade AA might be questioned. For cooking purposes, if you want a less expensive product, a shift to margarine instead of Grade B butter might be the answer. Margarine sells for a lower price than Grade B butter.

GRADES FOR CHEESE

For the most part, the grading of cheese is used in commercial trading. However, some graded Cheddar cheese is available at retail level. If graded it will carry the marks, "U.S." Grade AA, A B or C. Grading is based on the flavor, body, and texture of the cheese.

Price differences in cheese are based on grade, length of aging, fat content, and the built-in services.

It has been estimated that it costs two or three cents per pound per month to ripen cheddar cheese. And we all know that such services as elaborate packaging and slicing have to be paid for, and that the cost of these services usually is reflected in the price we pay per pound.

Letter To Editor

We would like to add our feelings to the others about the type of television programs they now have on the movies

Although my children do not attend the movies they do watch television and we would like to see more religious and educational programs on to direct their minds in better channels so as to train them to be good citizens and to better utilize the privilege they have here in the United States of America.

For the generation of today will be the leaders of tomorrow and we certainly don't want gun-shooting immoral leaders at the head of our government that so many of our boys died to preserve in the wars past.

We have privileges that no other country has, and we feel that we take too much for granted rather than fighting for the right to give our children clean educational programs in the movies and on television.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Boaters are buzzing these days like a bunch of outboard motors.

All the discussions center around the new boating laws passed last year by the Ohio Legislature. Basically, the laws are designed to accomplish two things, the uniform numbering or licensing of boats, and the safe operation of boats.

The laws have been in force since the first of the year, and the new Division of Watercraft, 1800 W. Fifth-av, has been working almost around the clock to get forms and licenses distributed to dealers by the time boaters and fishermen get the fever be out on the water.

seem a little binding to those

Perhaps we can clear up a few questions that are being asked almost daily. The new licenses will apply to all waters within the territorial limits of the state. The licenses are recognized by all other states, and will permit boating anywhere in the U.S. for a period not to exceed 90 days.

Each boat is required to have its own number which is to be displayed on each side of the bow in block letters at least three inches high. The certificate of number is renewable each year, so your boat will retain the same number for as long as you own it. At the same time a certificate of number is issued, each boat owner is furnished with an annual boat plate to be attached to the stern of his boat.

The advantages of universal boat numbering are obvious. Boaters can now go any place in the state with a single license, and can take their boats on out-of-state trips without worrying about additional licensing. The laws will also help cut down boat and motor thievery, because serial numbers would have to be changed before a stolen boat could be licensed again. The U.S. Coast Guard is planning to release stolen boat and motor numbers at regular intervals to authorities throughout the nation.

The safety regulations may who have boated without giving safe practices a thought. All powercraft must now carry fire extinguishers capable of putting out a gasoline fire. A life preserver, ring buoy, buoyant vest, or buoyant cushion, must be available for each person aboard. Every child under 10 must wear a life jacket while aboard any watercraft under 18 feet in length.

There are a number of other safety regulations that are explained fully, and you can get the full details on the numbering rules in a free pamphlet called "What About The Ohio Boating Acts of 1959?," that may be obtained from: Publications, Ohio Department of Natural Resources, 1500 Dublin-rd, Columbus 12.

The list of boat license agents in this area will be made available soon, according to the Division of Watercraft.

Christian Living Cleans Lives As Snow Covers Dirty Ground

One of the most beautiful sights in nature is that of freshly fallen snow.

In the country, the crysals lend softness to the harsh outlines of barren trees. The contours of fields, fences and houses are softened.

In the cities, the more grim aspects of human inhabitation are especially quieted by the cold and glistening covering.

All that is dirty and poverty-ridden seems cleaner, more elegant. Dead leaves, garbage and broken bottles are, like the sidewalks, for a time smoothed over with this beautiful pure cloak.

Almost before our eyes though, the while snow becomes darkened with soot. The crystals turn to slush, then mud and finally reveal the filth of the gutters—the unpleasant facets of life that men for a while were given the chance to forget.

South, Marion-Franklin High Active At Mock Convention

Symington 'Nominated' At Meeting

Serious-minded delegations from Minnesota (Marion-Franklin High School) and New Jersey (South High) saw carefully planned political strategy pay off Saturday at the mock political convention held at Capital University.

The payoff came Saturday evening with the third ballot "nomination" of Sen. Stuart Symington for the presidency. This was the mock Democratic convention. Other students will return to Capital this Saturday for the Republican session.

With all the aplomb of seasoned politicians, the youngsters, armed with gigantic signs, balloons and name-confetti "beat the drums" for their favorite-son choices.

South's delegation was undecided for some time during the campaigning but finally gave its support to the Symington group. Marion-Franklin's delegation fought unsuccessfully to "nominate" Sen. Hubert Humphrey for the presidency and then the vice-presidency. Although defeated, they turned their efforts to completing the Democratic platform.

Dick Reese of Marion-Franklin said, "It was a wonderful experience and a great opportunity to meet many new people and learn more about the operation of our government."

Representing South were Willard Kirby, Dick Guyer, Sharon Mitchell, Lee Helbert, James Sullivan, Edward Snodgrass, chairman; Aileen Wymer, Bill Ochfenwald, Kevin Weiddenbaum, Don Wilkerson, Timyra Dodd, Barbara Farkas, Nate Seward, Bernice Perry, Janet Martin, Julie Williams, Ralph Kleinline, Ben Matheny, Leroy Webb, Jerry Gruber, John Shumacher and Earl Grosninger.

Marion-Franklin's delegation included Dick Reese, Ron Leddy, who gave the nomination speeches; Diane Nippert, Katherine Edwards, John Monan, Marlene Wilson, Helen Daniels, Bob Ree, Wilbert Longworth, Dan Hall, Don Mosley, Elaine Grundy, Janice Spradlin, Mary Frasier, Nancy Rohr and Steve Hilburn.

SOUTH HIGH POLITICIANS—Twenty-two students represented South High School Saturday under a New Jersey banner as they took part in the mock political convention held at Capital University. The South delegation was led by Edward Snodgrass, chairman.

MINNESOTA FOR HUMPHREY—The Minnesota delegation, composed of Marion Franklin students, backed Senator Hubert Humphrey at the mock Democratic convention held at Capital University last Saturday.

Columbus' Active Blind People Are Finding Bowling Easy, Fun

The popularity of bowling has grown by leaps and bounds in the past few years until now, even blind persons have been attracted to the sport.

Not to be outdone by the women's and children's leagues, Columbus blind folks decided that lack of sight need not keep them from enjoying the ten-pin pastime.

People with normal vision ask, "How is it possible for a blind person to bowl?" The blind bowlers claim it really isn't very difficult at all and only special equipment required are metal railings to help the blind judge the width of the alleys.

"The biggest battle," said one blind bowler, "is getting up the nerve to try bowling the first time. From then on it gets easier and easier. Of course our averages never get as high as those of bowlers with normal vision, but we have fun and good competition within our own league."

He added, "Our league is made up of blind people who aren't content to just sit at home. We are active people and want to stay that way even though we can't see. Bowling is one of the few sports that can be adapted to our disadvantage."

The local blind bowlers' groups was founded in 1950. In 1952, Mrs. Marilyn Ballenger, whose husband is blind, helped organize the Columbus Blind Bowlers' League, which meets every Sunday at Main Lanes in Whitehall.

Members number approximately 25 and represent residents from all over Franklin County. The league is made up of four teams of five bowlers, with a few substitutes.

Biggest interest to area blind bowlers at the present is the State Blind Bowlers Tournament to be held Saturday and Sunday, Apr. 23 and 24, at Main Lanes.

Charles Buhrts is president of the local league and Charles Hobson is president of the state group. Many of the state officers and representatives in Blind Bowlers are Columbus residents.

The blind bowlers invite anyone to watch them bowl Sundays at 6:30 p.m. and especially urge sighted persons to interest their blind friends in bowling with the league.

Rev. Schluer Named Pastor Of St. John's

At a special meeting of the congregation following the service Sunday, Rev. Ralph E. Schluer was named pastor of St. John's Evangelical Protestant Church, succeeding Rev. Arthur R. Detwiler, who recently accepted a pastorate in Houston, Tex.

Rev. Schluer came to St. John's in June, 1957, as associate pastor, and has served as interim pastor since last December. A native of St. Louis, Mo., he was graduated from Washington University there, and from Eden Seminary, the theological school of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, at Webster Groves, Mo.

Previous pastorates have all been in Ohio — at Kettlersville, Chillicothe and Hamilton.

Rev. and Mrs. Schluer, the former Athalia Ernst, have three children, Carole, Larry and David. They reside at 1495 Aven-dr.

St. Mary's Easter Egg Hunt Planned

The annual Easter Egg Drive to be held throughout St. Mary's parish will begin Apr. 4. All donations will go to St. Anne's and St. Vincent's Orphanages, Sisters of the Sick Poor and the Good Shepherd Home.

Donations will be picked up by contacting HI. 4-3609 or HI. 4-9907.

54 Schools Participate

The school was one of 54 central Ohio high schools attending the event, sponsored by Capital University's Political Science Department.

Republican delegates from the participating schools will take over next Saturday, for their mock convention.

U.S. Rep. Walter H. Moeller opened the day's session. He discussed accomplishments of previous Democratic administrations in the keynote address.

Rousing demonstrations, fairly rocking the rafters of Mees Hall, caucuses and meetings, preceded the nominations.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Texas, was the unanimous choice for the vice-presidential "nomination."

Sen. John F. Kennedy, Massachusetts, led on the first two ballots for president.

He had 286 votes on the first ballot, Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Texas, had 234 and Symington, 215. The vote on the second was, 275 for Kennedy, 248 for Johnson, and 234, Symington.

Symington received 418 votes on the third ballot, Kennedy, 311, and Johnson, 48.

The mock political conventions anticipate the national presidential conventions to be held this summer in Los Angeles and Chicago.

Conventions are run entirely by students. Each high school is assigned a state and is entitled to send one half of the number of delegates that the state actually sends to the national convention. Students draw up their own platforms and nominate nationally prominent candidates.

Features, patterned after national conventions, are state caucuses, demonstrations for nominees, final balloting of the states, and nomination of the vice-president.

Village Attracts 20 South Side Representatives

The newly organized German Village Society met Thursday night with spokesman for 20 South Side organizations, representing approximately 5000 persons, to discuss plans for restoration of the area's former German section.

Organizer Frank Fetch said the leaders expressed interest in the proposal and will recommend to their groups that a representative from each be appointed to work as an executive council with the society.

Next meeting of the society will be held Apr. 10, 2:30 p.m. at Schiller Park Shelter House.

Furnace Causes $1650 Home Fire In South Side

An estimated $1650 damage to a five-family house at 1808 S. High-st Wednesday evening was caused by a fire started by an overheated furnace, according to firemen.

A resident discovered the fire when he went to the basement and saw flames above the furnace, said firemen. The fire spread from the basement through the walls of the frame house.

Heimandale Club Meets With Top City Planners

More than 60 South Siders turned out Tuesday night for a public discussion on junk yards at a meeting sponsored by the Heimandale Civic Association at St. Stephen's Community House.

Mrs. Karl Miller, president of the civic group, opened the meeting with brief remarks and turned the discussion over to Harold L. Buchanan, principal planner for the City Planning Commission.

Buchanan, chief speaker, endorsed the work of the civic club and encouraged greater community spirit among the residents of the South Side.

He told the group that since the citizens have organized he feels they will be able to accomplish more toward getting rid of junk yards in the area. He said he plans to inform City Planning Director Jack Bachtel of the group's action and feels that more attention will be focused on the area and its problems.

Buchanan gave a detailed report of how the South Side had developed before the district became a part of the city. He explained that the natural shape and facilities had made it desirable for industry and that with the heavy manufacturing came the junk yards.

He said that work is being done to rezone many sections of the area to residential to cut down on industry in the future.

William Maloney, of St. Stephen's, offered suggestions on organization and planning to the civic club members. Bill Neno, president of the Council of South Side Organizations, gave a talk on organization and the effects of working together.

The civic association's attorney, William Brown, told the group he had gone before the zoning board to seek a new hearing on the junk yard but the board rejected his request.

The members voted to adopt the name "Heimandale" as a permanent name for the civic club and passed a motion setting the club up as a permanent organization. Lloyd A. Burger, recording secretary, said Wednesday that the group will not meet regularly, but only when certain happenings require special sessions.

Already Successful Fair Can Be Among Finest

An Editorial

The Franklin County Fair of 1959 was judged the best in the state. This is an honor and deserves the plaudits of the whole community.

We have observed with interest some developments that have taken place in recent years to improve the Franklin County Fair. We have observed, too, that if some proper steps are taken now, the Franklin County Fair will be enlarged and can very well be developed into one of the best in the country.

Today Hartley Newspapers take pride in recommending the following long range planning program:

Place emphasis on making the Franklin County Fair one of the finest events in Ohio, encouraging exhibitors from all over the central section of the state.

Form a long range planning committee to set up a proposed plan for the fair's expanded development during the next five years and to suggest procedures for obtaining funds whereby improvements may be realized.

This committee should be composed of five men or women appointed by the fair board president. The committee chairman should have the authority to appoint whatever sub-committees may be desired.

The committee should weigh best usages of the fairgrounds and seek further utilization of the grounds and buildings throughout the year.

Seek more and better permanent buildings for the grounds as well as better all-around facilities including better streets, lighting and cleanliness. Appearance of the grounds should be improved and ways determined to keep the fair from becoming obnoxious to Hilliard residents during the fair season.

Careful study of the fair program with special consideration to the change that has come about in a county that is rapidly becoming more urban than rural. Attention should be given the need for additional displays, perhaps of manufactured items as well as agricultural so that the fair will represent all of Franklin County.

Continued and expanded emphasis on youth activities among suburban people.

Development of an all-around program that is likely to appeal to all members of the family.

Change the constitution to make provision for election of three members to the board of directors from each of five sections of the county: Northeast, Southeast, Southwest and Northwest, plus Columbus. Nine additional members should be elected at large with the county agricultural extension agent retaining his ex-officio membership.

One member should be elected from each district and three at large annually. This could be meshed into the present program over a three-year period.

Determine if expansion of the fair program might eventually call for purchase of additional ground and, if so, take steps toward such a purchase before the land is no longer available.

Consideration to developing the fair board's secretary position to one of year-around operation with emphasis on promoting and planning the fair.

Special emphasis on development of membership, thus encouraging more interest in the county fair. A special membership drive should be held annually under direction of a specially - appointed membership committee.

The matter of assured representation from all sections of the county should prove popular and should provide much more enthusiasm and membership support for the fair when this comes to pass. Several counties now have such a plan.

No fault is being found with the present fair board. It has done a good job. These recommendations are merely based on the need for an expanded development of the county fair. It is hoped the board president will see fit to take steps toward putting such a program into high gear. Results obtained will not be immediate but many good things could be provided for the fair in the next few years.

South Side 'Y' Names Two Top District Taffy Salesmen

Mike Drakulich, from the Four Ships Chapter of the Smith Road Gra-Y Club, and Bob Hoderfield, of the Southwood Club, have been named the South Side Branch YMCA's two district champion taffy salesmen.

Mike won the South "Y" District Top Sales honor with a total of 157 sales. Bob copped the South "Y" North District Top Sales with 200 sales.

Nineteen Gra-Y Clubs of the South Side YMCA sold a total of 6764 boxes of taffy during their recent sale. The north district moved 3,199 and the South district clubs sold 3,565. This was a total average of about 13 pounds sold by each boy.

The sale enabled the clubs to make a combined gift of $676.40 toward the YMCA World Service program, which is a missionary project of the International YMCA movement in helping peoples of less fortunate countries to help themselves.

Besides their World Service project, the clubs will share a like amount in carrying out a local service project to buy some pieces of badly needed equipment or other worthy projects within their own schools or community.

BIBLE COMMENTS

Church Can't Clear Path, But Can Help

Eager to protect the morals of their congregations, many clergymen embark on extensive programs to rid local magazine stores of what they consider dangerous literature.

The traffic in obscenity is big and evil business—one that could poison the foundation of the society. The foundation is our young people, and they are the ones most influenced by anything they read or see.

Yet, as Christians, the clergy must be careful that in their zeal, they do not substitute another danger and lose sight of positive ideals. Obscenity has been defined as that which incites peuile—immature—interests.

To condemn wholesale all books that deal with the baser instincts of man in serious literature should not be the wish of the knowledgeable religious person.

To censor without discriminations opens the church to the charge that it is operating on a negative set of values; attempting to head off all unsuitable influences instead of firmly building its own influence as a bulwark against sin.

The church cannot lead its followers by clearing a glistening path before them. It must hold up its true and courageous standards for all to see—and people will find their own way.

TEENS HOLD FINAL SQUARE DANCE

ROOSEVELT HI-Y, Y-TEENS—The Roosevelt Junior High School Hi-Y and Y-Teens sponsored their final square dance of the school year last Friday. Proceeds of the dance will be used to purchase an AM-FM radio for the school. The dance was actually a "Barn Dance" and the gym was decorated with farm animals, shovels, pitchforks and scarecrows. Jim Wagner, of the South Side YMCA, was the caller. Club presidents, Marshal Martin, Hi-Y, and Karolyn Klemm, Y-Teens, furnished records for the dance.

WIN YOUR EASTER HAM!

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits—Valencia oranges, grapefruit, bananas, fresh pineapple, frozen orange juice

TO HELP WITH YOUR MARKETING

This week you will have to choose between taking a little extra money to market or shopping very carefully. This is especially true of fresh produce. Florida has taken another beating from rains and a cold wave. Higher prices can be expected until crops recover. Biggest price increase is noted on cucumbers, but peppers, squash, green beans and other tender vegetables are up also. Potato prices are higher. Be sure to check quality before buying—some of the old potatoes are only fair now.

On the brighter side, broccoli is more reasonable and its rich green color means high quality and good nutrition. Cauliflower is more plentiful, and there's lots of good cabbage. Asparagus is lower in price and the quality is generally good. However, the hardy vegetables will continue to be the more economical choices until warm weather arrives. Watch, too, for special prices on frozen and canned vegetables.

CITRUS FRUIT EXCELLENT

Florida Valencias—the favorite juice oranges—are now at their best eating and worth the extra effort of making fresh juice for breakfast. We can have frozen orange juice all summer. Grapefruit should be enjoyed to the fullest, for supply will dwindle soon and quality will be lower. Pineapples are probably at their lowest price levels for the year. Banana supplies are large and quality is good.

Long red stalks of rhubarb suggest fresh rhubarb pie. It will be cheaper when our homegrown rhubarb comes to market, but the rosy color and delicate flavor of hot house rhubarb makes it a welcome addition to menus. Strawberries will probably be higher in price — if they are available—because of the heavy rains in the Plant City, Florida, area. It's too soon to estimate the damage at the time this was written.

WEATHER AFFECTS MEAT PRICES

Livesock marketing is expected to return to normal after being disrupted by bad weather. Indications are that pork prices will decline slower than usual this spring, due to the decrease in hog supplies for market. Hams are being held for the Easter trade. However, the output of canned hams this year through mid-February has been reported to be 26% greater than a like period in 1959, so they are particularly fine bargains.

BEEF PRICES are steady but expected to drop some in April as supplies increase. Some near-cost specials may be found in chuck and rib roasts—continue to "shop the ads."

Extra Large and Large Size Eggs are still among your best protein buys in spite of recent price jump. You'll have to blame the weather again for the decreased egg supply.

FISH—For fresh fish, smelts and herring are your best buy this week. Lake Erie is still frozen over, so we will have to wait later than usual this spring for fresh perch, pickerel and bass. There are ample supplies of frozen fish at low prices.

OLD MARION AREA NEWS

EUB Church Youth Group Will Give Skating Party

By June Davis
HI. 4-6949

Almost all residents in our neighborhood were without lights last Monday night.

We sure were digging out candles. Good thing they were found easily. I think the lights were out about two hours. I heard on the late news that it was due to a fire at a nearby factory.

Mrs. Marianne Renz, formerly of Rockwell, visited recently with Mrs. John Schneider of Rockwell-rd.

We had Sunday visitors from Linden. They were my parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walls, aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickett.

Marion-Franklin High School will have a representative from Miami, Fla., speaking to the students on Mar. 31.

The Cancer Society is having a program at Marion-Franklin. A film will be shown and a local doctor will give a talk on cancer.

Thursday at 7:15 p.m. the youths from South High EUB Church will go to Grove City for a skating party. The party will be from 7:30 p.m. until 10:30 p.m. Adults are needed to drive.

Vicki Hoppes bowled the high single game of 170 in the Junior Miss League at Rainbow Lanes. A surprise party was given in her honor afterwards. The party was attended by Cathy Astimpole, Susan Smith, Janice Smith, Mary Riffle, Linda Last, Carol Gibson, Kitty Fox, and Sandy Moore.

Guy Fridley Funeral Held

Funeral service for Guy V. Fridley, 76, of 219 Deshler-av, was held Friday at Evans Funeral Home. He died Mar. 23 at his home after a short illness.

Mr. Fridley, an attorney for 44 years with law offices at 83 S. High-st, was a former superintendent of schools in Hamilton Township. He had also taught three years in the Philippines.

He was a past master of Lockbourne and South Gate Masonic Lodges, past high priest of Ohio Chapter RAM and past royal patron of Pallas Court, Order of Amaranth. He was a member of Scottish Rite.

Surviving are his wife, Maude R., and two brothers, Utley and Earl, both of Canal Winchester.

Public Library Braces For Another Decade Of Growth

"FOR A BETTER-READ, BETTER-INFORMED AMERICA"

National Library Week
April 3-9, 1960

Just as every dog has his day, every industry, business and association has its special week. Last time we counted there were several hundred such "weeks" in the American calendar.

Few, however, are so vital to the welfare of our way of life as the approaching National Library Week, which will be observed in more than 5000 communities in all 50 states from Sunday, April 3, through Saturday, April 9.

Here's what President Dwight D. Eisenhower has to say about its importance.

"The strength of our nation is founded in the minds and hearts of its citizens — individuals who have sought out the truth and have formed their own convictions. In this search, the freedom to read is an indispensable asset. During National Library Week, I hope that all Americans will make a special effort to seek out the treasures of knowledge, ideas and spiritual insight provided by our libraries across the land."

Your nearby public library will be holding "open house" during this week. But that's nothing unusual — the public library is open the year-round to serve your informational and recreational needs that can be met through the "wonderful world of books." A uniquely American institution, your public library opens its portals to all, regardless of race, creed, political affiliation or color.

National Library Week will be observed to the tune of a challenging slogan, "Open Wonderful New Worlds . . . Wake Up and Read!" and with the avowed objective of "A Better-Read, Better-Informed America."

You can join in the spirit of the observance by visiting your public library, by cashing in on your "freedom to read" birthright. Many of our nation's foremost statesmen are fully as alarmed by the "reading gap" as they are by the "missile gap." Help plug the "reading gap" by using your public library!

WHITEHALL BRANCH—Fifth and latest of the branch buildings of the Columbus Library System, it was opened just over a year ago at 4371 E. Broad-st. Truly the "dream" building of the system, it is air conditioned and has special facilities for children. It boasts the largest book collection of the branches—29,000 volumes. Twenty-nine school classes visited during the year. Mrs. Eunice Houck, librarian, said story-craft sessions will be held this summer.

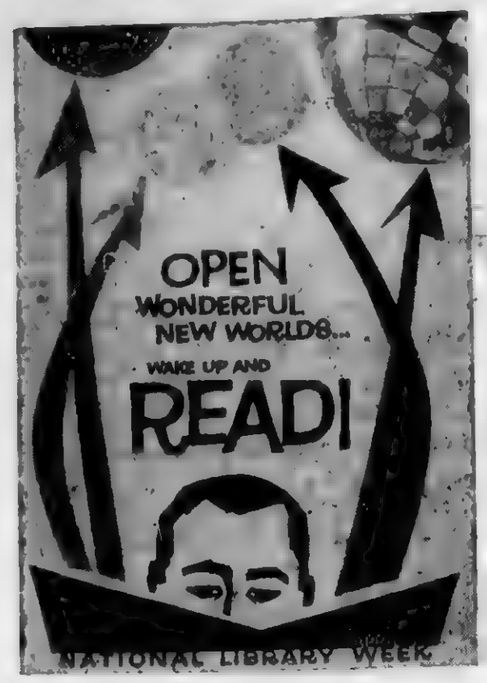
HILLTOP BRANCH—Hilltop has proved to be the "readingest" section of town over the years. For more than five years before the opening of the Hilltop Branch in 1928, the community supported its own library. The present building, at 2955 W. Broad-st, was the first branch built by the Columbus Library System. It was dedicated in Mar. 1950. The 23,000-volume collection is maintained by Miss Mary Elizabeth Keyes. Thirty-three story sessions were held last year.

HILLTONIA BRANCH—Serving a growing community, it opened Jan. 3, 1959 with all new books, new furnishings and a new staff. In a leased building at 2282 W. Mound-st, built to library specifications, it shares tenancy with the county unit of the American Cancer Society. Fifty-one classes from nearby public and parochial schools visited during 1959. Hilltonia has done much to relieve overcrowded Hilltop Branch. Miss Marie Biehl is branch head.

FRANKLINTON BRANCH—Has been in the same leased building at 840 Sullivant-av, since Jan. 1943. It contains about 10,500 books. Patronage has fallen off since the expressway bisected the West Side. A search is under way for a more centrally located site. About 3,000 readers hold cards from Franklinton. The branch, headed by Miss Ellen Metzger, carries on a very active program with children in the summer months. Last year 402 youngsters took part in 34 story hour sessions.

PARSONS BRANCH—Miss Margaret Bausch has been head of the South Side branch since it first opened in a leased storeroom at 1124 Parsons-av, on Oct. 4, 1928. The present branch at 845 Parsons-av, was completed in 1956 at a cost of $99,414. Catering greatly to the children, it features a special story-hour room, and traditionally sponsors pet and puppet shows. Some 5,000 card carriers have access to more than 21,000 volumes.

BOOKMOBILES—Four huge bookmobiles service suburban and built-up residential areas of Franklin County. Last year the Bookmobiles checked out 574,000 of the 2,134,00 loaned out by the Columbus Public Library System. The Bookmobiles stop at public and parochial schools throughout the county as well as at village intersections. Adults are welcome aboard at all stops. Largest of the "libraries on wheels" holds some 5,000 volumes.



Area Book Loans Top 2 Million

The past year brought not only an all-time high record of service and library usage but also the end of a decade of unprecedented growth of the Columbus Public Library system.

For the first time in history book loans exceeded the two million mark. This was nearly triple the figure loaned in 1949, according to Margaret E. Carroll, librarian.

Cognizant of the so-called "population explosion" the library board in 1959 awarded contracts for a two-story addition to the Main Library and enlarged facilities for bookmobiles. This coupled with the new mechanical charging system will speed up the central processing of books to serve the various community branches.

In the last decade residential branches have been brought up to twelve and a 13th has been committed for Hilljard.

Limited horizons are dangerous to a free people. Be grateful that you live in a society based on the freedom to read. For a better-read, better-informed America — OPEN WONDERFUL NEW WORLDS . . . WAKE UP AND READ!

Another postal from Orient-touring Glee Oleta McNutt reached this writer from far-away Japan last week. The resident of 380 Whittier-st reveals that she plans to visit Hong Kong, Manila and Honolulu before turning homeward. Her message indicates she is "really having a ball" to quote her directly.

A large family gathering surprised John Brandum for a birthday celebration last Sunday, Mar. 27. Mr. Brandum, of 684 S. 22nd-st, shares March as a birthday month with his daughter, Joan Butler, their birthdays occurring on the 29th and 24th respectively.

St. Ladislas Altar Rosary Society will hold its monthly meeting tonight at 8 p.m. in the basement. There will be Rosary before the meeting at 7:30 p.m.

On Fri., Apr. 1 and Sat., Apr. 2, Chapter 206, Women of the Moose will hold a rummage sale at 213 E. Main-st. Bessie Pugh, chairman of the project, states that the sale will be held from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Profits of the sale will be earmarked for the Hall's Improvement Fund, to ready it for the state convention.

Does a menu of chicken, home-made noodles, salad, peas, coffee and home-n. de pie sound appealing? That's the menu that chairmen Emma and Harold Rosenbloom have picked for the weekly dinner at Moose Hall, 36 W. Sycamore-st, Apr. 6. The Civic Affairs committee of Moose Lodge No. 11 and Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, are in charge of the 5 to 7 p.m. dinner.

A renewal of wedding vows made 50 years ago, on Apr. 2, 1910, will highlight the 5th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Otto M. Oborkons, 60 E. Jenkins-av, this Saturday at the residence. The original vows were repeated in New York State.

The couple's six children, with their families, will be among those witnessing the rites to be performed by Dr. E. L Klotz at 3 p. m. An open house will be held the home from 1 to 5 p.m. The six children are Otto, Edward and George, all Columbus residents, Mrs. Howard Henry, Mrs. Dale Baum, and Mrs. James Youngman, also Columbus residents.

Mrs. Youngman was a patient in Mercy Hospital not too long ago; we hope she has improved greatly at this writing.

Birthdays that come as the calendar flips to April are: Lawrence Latta, April 4; Lee Shirtzinger, Apr. 3; Gary Wirtz, Apr. 6; Sharon Daines, Apr. 4; Joe Landefeld, Apr. 4; Johnny Waugh, Apr. 3; Debby Bayes, Apr. 5; Eva Kocsis, Apr. 5; Susan Dennis, Apr. 4; Cindy Carsey, Mar. 31.

Adult birthdays are those of Florence Franz, Ralph Maciocc and newly-engaged Kay Wolford, all April 1; Larry Kuson, Apr. 2; Barbara Holliday, Apr. 3; Margie Boyd, Apr. 5 and Laura Lenox, Apr. 6.

The PVA of Orient Institute will meet Sunday, Apr. 3, 2 p.m. in the school library. Election of officers will be held.

The Fellowship Class of Southwood Church of Christ will meet in the home of Miss Betty Warner, 198 Southgate-dr, Fri., Apr. 1 at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Richard Donovan will assist the hostess.

Hospital list includes "Bus" Hetenhouser, Room 375, Grant Hospital, and Mrs. Roland Eswein, hospitalized in Mt. Carmel.

Trudean Guild 25 will meet Wed., Apr. 6, at 8 p. m., with hostess Mrs. Raymond Souder, of 1717 S. 3rd-st.

If the Gage and Miller families spend the whole month of April just "resting" who could blame them? The month of March was a hectic one, as this resume will show. For Paul Gage, 1738 S. 5th-st, and Carol Jean Miller, 1004 E. Whittier-st, it meant graduation from OSU on March 18, and then their wedding in Ohio-av EUB on March 19. Prior to the exchange of vows, bride-elect Carol had been guest of honor at eight showers that we know about.

The bride, a music major, who was president of OSU's Women's Glee Club, and the groom, a ceramics engineer, spent a brief honeymoon in Cincinnati, as Paul was due to report to Long Beach, Calif., and a tour of duty as an ensign with the U.S. Navy. Paul's mother, Elizabeth Gage, celebrated her birthday on Mar. 22, with a quiet family gathering.

The silver wedding anniversary of the elder Gage's was also a family affair, celebrated on March 16. The Gages had wed in 1935 in a double ceremony, with Elizabeth's sister, Joan and Joseph Gerstner. The Gerstners were unable to attend the family celebration as Joseph is stationed in Sicily and Joan is residing in Maine.

Schoolday friends of Roland Lambert might like to send cards to Texas, to cheer that gentleman's ailing wife, as she convalesces in a San Antonio hospital these days. Roland's mother, Mabel Lambert, 1720 S. 3rd-st, and sister, Marguerite Henry, are at present in the Lone Star State, caring for the new grandson of the Lamberts, while the baby's mother is recuperating from surgery. For the card-minded, the hospital address is Fort Sam Houston General Hospital, Ward 15 A, San Antonio, Texas. A poignant factor about the junior Mrs. Lambert's hospitalization is that she is a native of Germany, so she has no relatives of her own to visit her at this time.

Our own effervescent editor, Roger Swaney, found himself unexpectedly in Room 826, Mt. Carmel Hospital, because an appendix decided to act up and require immediate surgery. He should be home by now, but his cards will reach him if sent to the South Side Leader, 2465 W. Broad-st. He's a fine young man, a "Big Brother" and interested in all the sick and handicapped; so do remember him when sending cards, won't you?

A second 50th wedding anniversary to chronicle this editon is that of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Beach, 216 Lear-st, on Sunday, Apr. 3. The couple's daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Williams, 748 S. Warren-av, will honor her parents by holding an open house at her residence from 2 to 6 p.m. Walter, Howard and Lawrence, the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Beach, are also Columbus residents.

Don't forget the cottage cheese cartons and "fillings" that Margie Speakman, 820 S. 3rd-st, is collecting to give to patients at Orient State Hospital. Her phone is HI. 4-0832.

Named Head Of Students

CORRINE HALL

Corrine Hall has been elected president of the Association of Off Campus Students at the College of St. Mary of the Springs.

An honor student and vice-president of the junior class, she is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Hall, 1185 Studer-av. She is a 1957 graduate of Rosary High School and is majoring in elementary education.

Deshler Parents Date Discussion Meeting

Deshler PTA Parents Education Discussion Group will meet Wednesday, Apr. 6, 1:30 p.m.

Topic will be "Junior-Sized Jitters".

Miss Marilyn Dicks will moderate a panel that will include Mrs. Glenna Palmer, Mrs. Acy Blair, Rev. Robert Long, and Dr. Carey Paul. A discussion period will follow.

The ? Mark

How is it with you today? Is the fog too heavy for you to find your way to church? Does Saturday's dissipation bear too heavily for you to dare try worshipping God on Sunday? Have clouds obscured from your eyes the light of the cross? Do you shun all responsibilty of citizenship in building a better community, a better church, a better world? How big is the question mark before your eyes? There is a way that seemeth right to a man but the ways thereof are the ways of death. If you have no concern for truth and honor... if your end is gain at the expense of your fellowman... if your horizon is the patch of woods a few feet before you... then your contribution to mankind and God is questionable, and if all men were like you, the millennium might never come. We are charged with being our brother's keeper, building churches, and bringing in His Kingdom. God will reward every man according to his stewardship while here. Why not clear up the question? See the cross caught in the focus of the great lights. It beckons you and me. And make no mistake, we'll reap just what we sow. Don't fail your church. Don't fail God. Don't fail yourself... attend church regularly.

Man Comes Up With Electronic Gadget To Help Locate More Fish

become useful, and you won't be fishing completely "blind." Skill will always be part of a fisherman's tackle.

This handy little instrument invented by Jack Pickering is light and sturdy, and should appeal to a lot of fishermen. Some interest has been expressed by fish biologists in using the electronic fisherman in studies where quick water temperatures are needed. More details are available by writing to: Electronic Fisherman, Inc., Box 741, Columbus.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

Fishermen in this area will soon be exposed to a gadget that is presently going by the name of "electronic fisherman." The device is the brainchild of A. R. "Jack" Pickering, 630 E. Royal Forest-blvd, who began to design it mentally while fishing for lake trout in Canada.

The instrument is actually a sensitive thermometer that gives you rapid water temperature readings on a dial. You can let the probe out a foot at a time, and while your partner is threading his guides, you can determine water temperature at every depth. Experienced anglers will realize that this easily obtained, accurate information will help them catch fish.

"Nothing in the world will put a fish on your hook," says Pickering, "but this will help you find fish and the catching will be up to you."

Fish Seek Oxygen Zone

How does water temperature help you find fish? During summer in almost all bodies of water there is a warm layer of water on top, a cooler layer on bottom. The zone where the two layers meet is called the thermocline. Heavy wind action may mix the layers of water, but they keep to themselves for the most part. With no contact to the atmosphere the cool layer of water soon becomes depleted of oxygen. (Aquatic plants are a source of oxygen in water, but few of them grow in deeper water).

A fish must have oxygen to live, so you will not find a lot of sport fish in the cooler waters during summer in Ohio lakes. You will sometimes catch bluegills in deep water in the summer, but only after some mixing action has provided oxygen to the lower depths. More bluegills are caught near the surface.

Thermocline Depth Varies

The tricky thing is finding the thermocline. It may be three feet below the surface on one side of the lake, and eight feet below on the other. Or, it may vary from day to day at the same location.

Some experience is necessary to use water temperature as a fishing aid. It would not be a sound rule to never fish in the cool zone in Ohio, or in northern lakes. By experimenting, however, the information will

Unity Accepted As New Member Church Council

Dr. G. Weir Hartman, executive director of the Columbus Area Council of Churches, will be guest speaker at Unity Church of Christianity Sunday, Apr. 3, 11 a.m.

At the service he will present a plaque and certificate to Rev. Curtis Wilson designating Unity Church as a member of the council.

Unity started in Columbus as a small group in the early 1900's and in 1944 incorporated as a church at 50 W. Fifth-av. In 1958 the first unit of a planned building program was completed at 3568 Olentangy River-rd.

Unity Church is affiliated with the world headquarters of Unity School of Christianity and Silent Unity, Lee's Summit, Mo., where its ministers receive their training and ordination.

Advice: Anyone who is lavish with the compliments will get along in this life. People absorb flattery like kittens lap up cream.

Police Arrest Four Youths For Robbery

Unarmed robbery charges have been filed by juvenile officers against four youths who stole a 19-year-old girl's purse containing $30 last Wednesday as she walked in the 1200 block of Siebert-st.

The youths said they took the money to finance auto repairs. The license number on the getaway car, noted by a witness, led detectives to the home of one of the juveniles.

Patricia Asbury, of 1185 Linwood-av, reported the thieves grabbed her from behind, knocked her to the ground and fled with her purse.

CSSO Heads Plan Three Area Projects

Cleanup-paintup campaign, South Side Community Night and the July 4th Celebration were discussed at the Thursday night executive meeting of the Council of South Side Organizations.

Bill Terry, representing Hartley Newspapers, told the executive committee of the council that the cleanup campaign will be launched the third week in April with a special edition of the Leader.

Howard Henry reported that the Moose Lodge Drill Team and the Harmony Glee Club have agreed to perform at the council's second annual South Side Community Night to be held June 10 at Jet Stadium.

Henry also said he is trying to line up a German band to entertain throughout the evening.

Paul Stecker, who served as chairman of the meeting, said that he has contacted the Columbus Fireworks Display Co. and a suggested display and contract will be presented to the council for approval in the near future.

Paul said his main concern at this time is getting approval of the Charitable Solicitations Board to conduct the council annual drive for funds which support its projects in the community.

PARSONS LIBRARY

Interest In Bird Books Grows As Spring Nears

Requests at the Parsons Branch Library for books about birds, bird watching, and the building of feeding stations and bird houses always step up considerably as Spring approaches, according to Librarian Margaret Bausch

The amateur bird-watcher will find helpful suggestions on how to start his hobby in such books as Mary Pettit's "My Hobby is Bird Watching", William Jerr's "Advanced Book of Birds" and Sanger's "The Bird Watchers".

Aid in identifying the countless species of living birds can be obtained in such colorfully illustrated manuals as "The Golden Picture Book of Birds" by Clara Hussong. This book includes over 80 different birds found in your own back yard, in the woods, etc., and how to attract them. Other books are "Look for a Birds Nest" by Robert Scharff and Richard Lee Hawk's "A Pocket Guide to Ohio Nature".

Still another aspect, how to attract birds to your yard and make friends with them, is covered in such books as "Seventy-two New Bird Houses, Feeders, You Can Make" by Sibley; "How to Build Bird Houses and Feeders" by Schutz and "Birds in their Homes" by Webb.

For the person who likes to read interesting and curious facts about birds, the library has Parker's "Animal Travels" which includes facts on migration of birds as well as such titles as "Birds of the World" by Holsaert.

Allen D. Cruickshank's "Pocket Guide to the Birds, Eastern and Central N. American" contains 72 Natural Color photographs and 78 drawings of birds. Also John Audubon's "Birds of America" is a source for identification of birds.

Which tire is BEST for you?

Buying the right tire is as easy as B-F-G!

B-F-G "HT" Silvertown

This Extra Smileage tire is best for drivers who pile on the mileage, can take advantage of its economy. For only 10% more than a new-car tire, it delivers 22% more mileage. Extra quiet rubber, too.

B-F-G Long Miler

Best bet for 'round town drivers who don't travel the superhighways, or don't often speed it up. Same tread design as the new-car Silvertown but the body's not quite as rugged... and we don't recommend it for constant high-speed driving.

B-F-G Silvertown

By far the best tire for Normal driving. Tough Tyrex cord body. Big tread puts lots of non-skid rubber on the road. Built to give more Smileage for drivers who take a few long trips each year, hundreds of short ones, and a lot of city-country, all-around driving.

Society Will Outline Plans At Special Meeting Sunday

The next meeting of the German Village Society, 659 S. Third-st, will be held Sunday, 2:30 p.m., at Schiller Park Shelter House

Frank Fetch, society president, said Wednesday that representatives from practically every social, civic, service and fraternal organization in the South Side are expected to be in attendance.

Purpose of the group is the preservation, restoration and renewal of the old German section of Columbus, located in the Mohawk-Livingston area.

A tentative program for completing this purpose will be outlined at the meeting by Richard Eislet, director of the local chapter of the American Institute of Architects. Also appearing as a speaker will be Ralph Wilinson, program director of the Southern Kiwanis Club.

Professional Aid

Fetch said that the society's board has sought counsel from both Eislet and Israel Stollman, professor of planning at Ohio State University.

Eislet will explain a suggested program and also ideas of Stollman, who is out of town, to the group Sunday. Fetch said that some sort of plan of action or program must be adopted if the society is to succeed in its purpose.

He is urging all interested persons in the South Side to attend, as well as residents from all over Columbus. He feels the project is of major concern to the entire city.

Fetch compared the possible historical and appearance values of the proposed German village to those of Williamsburg, Georgetown and the French Quarter in New Orleans. He said it could be a major asset to the city and could avoid future slum clearance of the area.

He pointed out that the representatives of the various clubs and organizations in the area will be named to an advisory board and that strength in numbers may be the key to the success of the project.

However, Fetch said that large numbers of interested people are fine but that without finances the project would fail. The society is presently trying to boost its financial strength through three types of memberships:

A $25 businessmen's membership; a $12 membership for people residing in the area or with property interests there, and a $5 membership plan for interested people throughout the city. Further information on this may be obtained at the society's office on S. Third-st, across from St. Mary's school, or by calling CA. 1-8888.

Businessmen Plan Bicycle Safety Drive

The South Side Business and Industrial Association at its monthly meeting last Tuesday voted to sponsor a bicycle safety campaign for the South Side.

The action came after Officer Stephen McDonald of the police department's Traffic Safety Education section explained how similar campaigns have been conducted in other cities.

An association committee will meet soon to set up the program and select exact dates. The campaign will begin before schools let out for the summer vacation period.

Heading the committee is Howard Hoemle, association president. Serving with him are Joe Ronson, Max Borst, Dwight Kife, George Horvath, Lou Reeves and Leo Dietlin.

As outlined by McDonald and agreed to by the associ-

Out-Clinic Will Care For 80 Patients Daily

Details of a new Diocesan Child Guidance Center, which will join the Mt. Carmel Hospital complex of buildings, were announced this week.

The building, thought to be the first in the country specifically designed for the purpose, will be constructed on the northwest corner of State-st and Souder-av, in time for use next winter.

Bids will be advertised about two weeks, and start of construction is planned in approximately six weeks, according to the architectural firm.

The building will be financed with Diocesan funds and a Hill-Burton Federal grant.

Although a separate operation, the Guidance Center will benefit with the close relationship to Mt. Carmel Hospital and the new psychiatric wing, providing a well-rounded, co-ordinated program for service.

Facilities of the out-patient clinic will be sufficient to care for 80 children with exceptions—emotionally disturbed youngsters of all races and creeds and their parents—each day.

The three-floor, 30-room building will be divided into three centers. The ground floor will house active therapy with rooms for play and craft therapy and speech therapy.

Administrative offices, conference and lecture room and remedial therapy rooms are planned for the second and, on the third, offices of staff psychologists and psychiatrists, library, record room, and space for research.

The building's design permits expansion by adding an additional floor when the need is indicated.

The entire design of the building assures privacy for consultation and, at the same time, through the use of glass at the entrance and careful planning throughout, is attractive and inviting.

Founded in 1952

The center, started in 1952 in the remodeled, third floor of the diocesan office, moved to larger rented quarters at 1000 Bryden-rd in 1958.

Sr. Francoise du SS was appointed first director of the center.

To date, the staff has treated more than 2000 youngsters, in

Consecration Services Scheduled Sunday At Clair Methodist Church

The day that the congregation of the Clair Methodist Church has been looking forward to for quite a while will take place Sunday.

At 3:30 p.m. consecration services of the new $87,000 worship structure is scheduled to be conducted Dr. Harold McAdow superintendent of the Columbus District, Ohio Conference of Methodist Churches, is scheduled to speak.

The Clair Methodist Church is located at Barthman-av and S. Ninth-st. Pastor is Rev. Robert H. Streaty.

Also on the Sunday afternoon program will be Dr. B. B. Spohn, of the Methodist Union, Dr. Lee C. Moorehead, of the Indianola Methodist Church; and Rev. Richard Washington, of Kelly Chapel Methodist Church.

Special music will be presented by the church choir under the direction of the pastor's wife, Mrs. Baleska Streaty. Elizabeth Streaty, of Detroit daughter of Rev. Streaty, will be guest pianist.

To build the new structure four apartment flats were purchased at a cost of $21,000. Rev. Streaty reported. Two dwellings were razed and the remaining apartments were renovated. They now contain a parsonage, conference room and pastor's section.

The new section is of contemporary design, with a glass front, laminated arches, and contains a seating of 250. The basement will be used for Sunday School rooms.

Plans for the future call for transforming the parsonage into an educational unit and to buy a new parsonage.

The new unit has a modern kitchen and rest room facilities. A parking lot is located at the rear of the church with accommodations for 20 cars.

Church school services begin at 9:30 a.m. with worship services scheduled for 11 a.m.

Evenings services are slated at 7:30 p.m.

During Holy Week, services will be conducted nightly at 8 o'clock with visiting ministers and choirs in charge.

From that time on, and until 7 p.m., prizes will be awarded to some lucky boy or girl every half-hour.

Clip the ad in this newspaper on page five. There'll be another next week. Clip them both out, write your name, address and telephone number on the egg and deposit your entry in the container located in the mall section of the shopping center. You do not have to be present to win.

All youngsters up to 12 years of age are eligible. Prizes include a table radio, roller skates, balls, bats, apparel for boys and girls, Easter baskets, shoes, stuffed toys, golf sets and many other gifts.

Hamburgers, French fries and Coca Cola will be given to all winners.

A PROPOSAL—Carl Beyer, an oldtime resident of Columbus' South Side, has his own ideas about curbing juvenile problems. His proposal would provide youths quitting school with a trade.

A Cure For Discouraged Youth?

By Bill Rush

There are some who see wrong and say "What is this younger generation coming to?".

Other disturbed individuals see the same act and remark "Oh well, what can I do about it?".

South Sider Carl H. Beyer, who lives with his wife at 658 Southwood-av., never asks these questions.

Instead, the grey-haired native German has given serious thought to the individual question, "What can I do?".

Active in youth groups and an auxiliary police officer, Beyer took advantage of a recent trip back to Germany to study the same problem there.

After hours of thought, he put down on paper his ideas. This is the story he tells:

"With every passing day you read in the newspaper about crimes committed against society by young adults.

"These crimes can be measured in staggering sums of money paid for the apprehension, prosecution, and detention of the guilty.

"It can also be measured in human suffering of the victims as well as those responsible for the young adult committing the crimes.

"This situation was made worse by the eruption of World War II. It may subside if world peace can be maintained.

"First of all, we know the parents are at fault—working mothers who are needed at home think they must obtain luxuries for their families. In exchange they let their children grow wild.

"Too many American parents are working and have no time to properly care for their growing offspring, therefore a wholesome family life is unknown to many children of all ages. The parental responsibility law should be backed by all means.

"Delinquency stems from young people shirking their obligations; thus misdemeanor follows. In many cases younger boys are misled or influenced by older boys to turn to alcohol and/or drug addiction.

"After spending 9½ years at the Southside Settlement, where I worked with children of all ages in wood class and shop work, experience has taught me the child's character can be traced to his or her environment at home.

"A short time ago I visited my only sister in Germany and while there I was afforded an excellent opportunity to see the progress made with their delinquency problem. Some time ago, Chancellor Bismark, who was noted for his executive ability, farsightness and diplomacy, suggested a law in which every young person over 14 years of age, if leaving school, must learn a trade.

"The first three years of this trade were to be spent as an apprentice with pay, then one year as a journeyman. After passing the examination as a master he was registered as such. This did away with delinquency and loafers, of which there was an abundance.

"As a master of trade he receives work through the Trademen's Home. Board and room are furnished free by every trades home, which is supported by the cities. Each tradesman carries an identification card or a license of his trade and this is registered at the police department.

"When I arrived in West Germany on my trip abroad in 1955, I noticed such a diference in the people; they are so polite and cooperative. I was pleased to see young boys, average age of 15 years working as apprentices and making a good living.

"We have to thank Chancellor Bismark; he gave us the trades law. There is hardly any crime among this age group.

"We drove past a very large penal institution and I inquired, 'What is this building filled with?' The answer was, 'Here we keep the enemies of our government.'"

South High Class Of 1935 Still Seeking More Members

South High School's "25 year class" committee has had the opportunity of traveling all over central Ohio while working out plans for the reunion of the 1935 year class. The committee has met in Ashville, Amanda and Columbus, with plans to journey to Lancaster this Saturday for another meeting.

As is always the case when a group hasn't convened for a long period, a portion of the number has not been located, so it seems neighborly to utilize some of this space to name the missing members. (The reunion committee states it cleverly: "The Dog-gone Department"—Lost Bulldogs, Blue and Gray breed, 1935 South High graduates.")

Those unfound are: Louella Abele, Mary Lee Beard, Theresa Bartok, Betty E. Bigelow, Freda Boltin, Mildred Braun, Margery Cartwright, Estelle E. Crossley, Ida Daskovich, Helen Day, Dorothea Evans, William Freeman, Janet Gillenwater, Alfred Gooch, Ruth Ellen Harris, Loretta Harman, Lily Belle Hill, Harry Hiller, Donn Hines, Fred Immel, Rolan C. Karch, Mary J. Kiener, Jack A. Killworth.

Mary G. Knight, Helen Lehnert, Leonard LeMay, Pauline E. McDaniel, Dorothea Miller, Helen Miller, William Earl Nader, Donna Neer, Ralph Olander, Eunice C. Olive, Marjorie Pinkerman, Esther P. Reid, Pauline Ringer, Evelyn I. Samuels, Hulda Schmidt, Robert Scurlock, Louis Shaver, Clara Simmons, Anna Lee Spung, Robert B. Stahle, Denver Stewart, Sylvia B. Terry, Mary Virginia Theado, Doris Weiler, Harold R. Weese, Mae Wilkins, Mary L. Yuhas.

If any reader knows the whereabouts of any of these folks, please call one of these three committee members: Lenore Garner Lyle, HI. 3-4189; Virginia Brodt Wieckers, HI. 4-1795; or Ruth Wolfe Cooper, after 6 p.m., at HI. 4-9624.

The 25 year class will meet May 20, the same date on which all South High graduates will meet, from the year 1900 up to the brand new recipients of 1960 diplomas.

It's with a sense of personal loss that we say "adieu" to the Earl Clark family, 1042 Lockbourne-av, who are moving to Benson, Ariz. Mr. Clark will do missionary work among the Indians of that state.

Aperio, to open, said the ancient Latins, and we say April. To these youngsters, April means the "opening" of a new year: Michael Donohoe, Apr. 13; Karen Allen, Apr. 7; Valarie Gibbs, Apr. 10; Brenda Hill, Apr. 7; Michael Jack, Apr. 13; Sharon Fillinger, Apr. 10; Susan Olney, Apr. 12; Judy Waugh, Apr. 12; Martin Komives, Apr. 12; Larry Snyder, Apr. 7; Kathy Church, Apr. 11; Kathy Giuffre, Apr. 12; Mike Jones, Apr. 10

Quiet Celebration

A quiet family dinner will mark the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Garner, 693 E. Whittier-st, this Sunday, in the home of their daughter, Lenore Lyle, 408 Thurman-av. Another daughter, Roberta Mills, 342 S. Huron-av, will assist her sister in the celebration.

The dinner precedes by one day the actual anniversary, an event of Apr. 11. The Garners are grandparents of four youngsters, to complete the family circle.

Since the quiet observance of the Garners' 50th anniversary is necessitated by the ill health of Mrs. Garner, it would be nice if their friends would remember them with a pretty card on this important day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cherryholmes, 618 Markison-av, had a happy time getting acquainted with the youngest members of their family not so long ago. Rev. and Mrs. Ed Cherryholmes of Ypsilanti, Mich., were Columbus visitors, and with them were their newly-adopted children, Chucky and Lee Ann.

The young minister was active in "Y" work and civic projects while residing with his parents at the Markison-av address and we know his many friends will be interested in hearing about the two additions to his family.

Just discovered . . . a way to feel extremely ancient, ready for the rocking chair and lacy shawl! How? When your firstborn reaches voting age! Sooo, happy birthday, little (?) Don, on Apr. 9. Other Aires birthdays are those of Sarah Hughes and Ralph Mouser, on Apr. 7; Emerson Darst and Mrs. Houston, Apr. 8; Dora Dayton, Apr. 9; Dorothy Whitacre, Jane Deible and Pauline McDaniel, Apr. 12, and Carol Turner, Apr. 13. Anniversary celebrations will be celebrated by Geneva and Clint Thompson, Apr. 8, and by Don and Martha Thomas, Apr. 11. Ted Day also has an early April birthday.

Exhibits Slated

Thirteen local artists will have some of their work exhibited in the auditorium of the Central YMCA, this Saturday and Sunday, Apr. 9 and 10. The showing will be from 8 to 10 p. m. Saturday, while on Sunday the open house will last from 2 to 5 p.m.

Two South Side artists exhibiting at the Long-st address are Ruth Athey, 568 E. Moler-st, and Anna Neff, 1367 Moler-st.

Area meetings within the week are scheduled for these groups: South High Alumni members will meet at 8 p.m. at the school, Tuesday, Apr. 12. Trudeau Guild 10 will meet on Wednesday, Apr. 13, 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Harold Eichel, 1341 S. Third-st. The executive board of Siebert Street School will meet at 1:30 p.m. at the school.

Capital University Mothers' Club will meet Apr. 8 at 12:45 p.m., in Troutman Hall on the campus. Miss Allene Montgomery of the dramatics department of Capital will present the "Masquers" in a short skit.

Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, will serve roast beef, hashed brown potatoes, green beans, coffee and pineapple for their weekly Wednesday dinner, served at the Moose Lodge, 36 W. Sycamore-st, from 5 to 7 p. m. Chairman of the dinner is Helen Sailor and the committee in charge of the dinner includes officers of the chapter. Adults need pay only $1, and a nominal 50 cents will pay for a child's portion.

The Practical Nurses Association of Ohio rates a happy birthday at this time for making much progress in the first 10 years of its existence, which is being observed this week. Luncheon in the Hall of Mirrors, an affiliated group section, and a banquet in the ballroom of the Deshler-Hilton highlighted yesterday's meetings.

Today's schedule includes a 9-11 a.m. meeting in the Franklin County Veterans' Memorial building. Dr. Jerome D. Folkman and Leona Bowers will be featured speakers in the next segment of the day's meeting. A question and answer period will follow the brief speeches.

From 1 to 3 p.m., the nursing sectional meeting will be held in the assembly hall. James H. Moss will preside over a panel discussion, with general discussion being held following the panel's portion of the meeting. The practical nurses will meet as an affiliated group of the Ohio Hospital convention.

The beginner, primary and junior departments of the Southwood Church of Christ will participate in an Easter party, held at the church, Saturday, Apr. 9, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Lots of Cookies

Imagine baking cookies enough for 150 people. That's the task that Margie Speakmon will undertake about a week from now, to put in the "cottage cheese" Easter baskets she will fix for some of the patients at Orient State Hospital. She still was needing cottage cheese cartons when we checked with her last week.

It's such a fine gesture on Margie's part, since she has no one in Orient, but does it because of the pity she feels for those patients who are practically abandoned by their relatives after entering the institution. If anyone cares to contribute candy, etc., to the project, the phone is HI. 4-0832.

Trudeau Guild 10 will meet Wednesday, Apr. 13, at 8 p.m. Hostess for the meeting is Mrs. Harold Eichel, who resides at 1341 S. Third-st.

A Post-lenten spring dance sponsored by St. Mary's Dads Club will be held in St. Mary's Gym at 700 S. Third-st Saturday, Apr. 23, from 9 till 12 p.m.

The round and square dance music will be furnished by the Rhythm Jesters. Chairmen of the affair, which is open to the public, are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tanner.

Six members of Columbus Chapter 1, American Gold Star Mothers, have completed an orientation course at Chillicothe Veterans' Hospital and were honored at a recognition ceremony Mar. 31.

Receiving certificates were: for 300 hours, Mrs. George A. Neibler, and 100 hours each, Mrs. Percy Reed, Mrs. A. R. Cottrill, Mrs. Frances Fischer, Mrs. Cora Beaver and Mrs. Charles Shoemaker.

Eleven members of the chapter attended the Department of Ohio three-day convention Apr. 3, 4 and 5, in Akron. They were Mrs. E. H. Bartlett, president; Mrs. E. A. Gerber, Mrs. Frank Distelzweig, Mrs. Albert Heitz, Mrs. Harry H. Robins, Mrs. Percy Reed, Mrs. D. W. McConnell, Mrs. Anna Hatton, Mrs. Jas. G. May, Mrs. Charles Shoemaker, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Florence Tipton and Mrs. Edna DeLong.

RAILROADERS TAKE SPEECH

WILL TALK FOR INDUSTRY—Fred Immelt, left, of 2921 Templeton-rd, and James W. Donahue of 186 Meier-st are explaining the finer points of a diesel locomotive to Prof. Paul Carmack of the Ohio State University speech department. Immelt and Donahue are among some 16 local railroaders who are learning to speak up for the railroad industry in a 13-week speech course conducted for the Speakers Bureau of the local Railroad Community Committee. South Cinder Burners Take To The Track

South opened its track season at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, at the indoor track meet Mar. 5. Kenny Schumacher was the highlight for the South track team there.

Kenny, Bulldog shot putter, placed fifth with a throw of 46 feet 3½ inches.

As a sophomore last year Kenny received first place honors in the all-city track meet with a throw of 44 feet. Coach Chuck Shaner has big hopes for Kenny in his remaining two years.

Although the relay teams didn't place at Denison, "they are coming along fine," Coach Shaner said.

Lemon Pollard placed third in the Broad Jump. Kenny Schumacher placed second in the shot put.

The 80 relay team, Jack Ferguson, Lynn Hurd, Dave Tyler, and Lemon Pollard, came up fourth. The Mile Relay, put together by four quarter milers, Phil Hopkins, Dave Tyler, Randy Swisher, and Dennis Mettle, placed fifth.

Adding these scores, South came in seventh place out of 14 participation schools in the Greater Columbus indoor track meet.

Buelah Park All Prepared For Long Meet

Everything is set at Beulah Park for the opening of the 1960 racing season. This year it will be conducted in one 44-day meeting which ends Monday, May 30. Because of Good Friday, Apr. 15, there will be no racing on this date.

Beulah is out to better last season's record in mutuel play which was a record $12,031,641 and Robert Y. Dienst, president and general manager, believes that the long session has a good chance of bettering this mark. He figures that racing should be more formful and that the grade of competition should improve with horses campaigning steadily over the local oval.

There will be many familiar faces among the jockeys and trainers at the meeting. Beulah patrons have shown in the past that they have their "favorites" to follow and a great many of them will find popular riders and conditioners ready.

Paul Ward and Guillermo Silva who led the two meetings in 1959 are expected back to seek additional honors and they will be joined by Jimmy Dobson, Bobby Wall, Colin Knisley, J. C. Frenandez, Harrel Bolin, Paul Herron, Phil Borgemenks and John Neville to mention just a few.

As usual the Ohio Championship will be the top race of the meeting. It is scheduled for Saturday, May 21 and will have a purse of $10,000 added. Nominations close Monday, May 9 and weights will be announced by Racing Secretary Charles W. Smith on Monday, May 16. The distance is a mile and sixteenth.

BIBLE COMMENT

Jesus Caused Revolution; But Not Rebel

Jesus was the cause of a spiritual revolution, but he was not a rebel. He sought a revolution through positive constructive action and teaching.

Jesus said that He did "not come to destroy, but to fulfill" (Matthew 5:17).

If He set His "I say unto you" against what people had been taught in the past, it was an advancement from the law of measured justice — from the law of "an eye for an eye" to the larger law of love and mercy. This, as Jesus knew, was the only way toward constructive and better relationships from the jungle of mutual recrimination and revenge.

Who is right and who is wrong in the international and personal disputes that range around us are not easily determined.

But one cannot help but feel that constant reprisals—the harsh word answered with another harsh word—is endangering our entire world community. If men would learn to forgive and forget, there would be far less fear, more hope for the nations and peoples concerned — and for the world in its quest for peace and safety.

Very definitely it was fulfillment, rather than destruction, that Jesus sought in relation to the religion which had been that of His home, His teaching and His environment.

When anger grips the wheel, safety slips away! Backseat drivers can do a first class job of raising your temper to the boiling point. But hold on! Showing your critic just who's running things may get you into a dangerous situation. 37,000 people died on our highways last year. Many were victims of drivers who, in one thoughtless moment, allowed their emotions to take over the wheel. So keep your head..,losing it could cost you your life!

FBI Chief Praises 'Y' Expansion Effort

FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover has added his endorsement to the $2½ million YMCA-YWCA Joint Expansion program in Columbus which entered its final phase Mar. 22.

Said Mr. Hoover: "During these days of unprecedented increase in juvenile crime, Americans look to organizations such as the YMCA and YWCA for guidance and help. These dedicated organizations . . . cannot hold the line alone. They need, and must have support and encouragement.

"While the primary responsibility for child development belongs to the parents, our complicated society with its many temptations demands that all of us assist wherever possible.

"I earnestly hope that the people of Columbus will support the Joint Expansion Program and thereby create greater facilities to cope with the problems of youth.

Hoover is an acquaintance of A. E. Rowe, local program director, from the days of 1947-49 when Rowe was director of the Freedom Train. Its valuable cargo of government documents was guarded by the FBI.

Other chairmen of the Expansion Program are Richard Ninde, general; H. Bartley Arnold, citizens committee; and Melvin Tharpe, public relations.

SEEKS CAREER YOUTHS

President Eisenhower has told heads of executive departments to keep an eye out for bright young men to fill top career posts during the next ten years.

He said in a memorandum that the government "faces the possible loss of two-thirds of its top career managers" during that period.

A survey of 751 career officials in the top three pay grades, he said, indicates two out of every three will become eligible for retirement during the 60's. Two out of every five will be ready to retire by 1963. The figure did not include any losses because of death, disability and resignation.

TREASURY CHANGING STAND

Congressional sources say the Treasury is changing its stand against a House-passed bill to allow self-employed persons to set up tax - deductible retirement funds.

The Administration opposed the bill last year, saying it would cause a loss of $365,000,000 in revenue.

The sources said the Treasury will suggest now that self-employed persons be put on an equal footing with corporations, which now can deduct from taxes their share of the cost of pension plans. Employees, however, must pay income taxes on their contributions.

BUDGET REQUEST PLANNED

The Navy plans to seek $975,000,000 for six more Polaris submarines in a supplementary budget request, Admiral Arleigh A. Burke, Chief of Naval Operations, to the Senate Preparedness subcommittee revealed recntly.

These would be in addition to three Polaris submarines that are provided in the budget before Congress. They would bring the total program to eighteen nuclear - powered submarines equipped to fire 1,200-mile missiles.

The mud and splash of thawing weather not only affect the appearance of your car, says the Columbus Auto Club, but also help to diminish the effectiveness of your headlights and taillights. Don't let the dirt accumulate. Clean car lights often.

Indianapolis — Six-year-old Timothy Brennan is back home with his mother now, Mrs. John R. Brennan, after being lost in the woods near Indianapolis. In a game of "swamp fox" Timothy was to hide in the woods and his three brothers were to find him by following the sound of his "swamp fox" howls. Timothy howled, but his brothers could not find him. Neither could a search party of 200 adults until after hours of hunting.

Twelve churches also indicated that they are very much interested in a Slow Pitch League that will be organized providing the necessary diamonds are available.

Churches represented by at least one team are Frebis Church of God, Gates-Fourth Methodist, Hungarian E. & R., Livingston Methodist, South Congregational, Washington Avenue E. U. B., Wagner Memorial E. U. B., Emmanuel Lutheran, Oakwood Methodist, St. John E. & R., St. Paul E. & R., South Methodist, Southwood Church of Christ, Thurman Methodist, Ohio Avenue E. U. B., and St. Paul Lutheran.

Franchises are still available in all leagues and interested South Side churches are urged to contact the South Side "Y" (Hi. 4-2151) at once.

Scholarships For Science Are Readied

Each year the Junior Division of the Ohio Academy of Science sponsors scholarship tests at the annual State Science Day, which will be Apr. 22, at Antioch College, Yellow Springs.

The Academy supports this activity because of a desire to help superior students obtain a scholarship if they need one to further their education. The scholarship committee of the Academy does not grant scholarships. It does recommend the names of outstanding students to the proper authorities at Ohio colleges for scholarship consideration. Thus, if a student needs financial assistance in order to go to college, the student should apply to the college of his or her choice for it. If the student wants a recommendation from the Ohio Academy of Science, then he or she should make arrangements to take the Academy Scholarship Tests.

Only high school seniors are eligible, and must have an overall high school grade average of "B" or better, and no final grade in science or mathematics of less than "B." The student must also participate and be rated at the State Science Day during his senior year. For further information contact AX. 9-9097.

New Novena Series Is Set

Awards Presented At Parties For YMCA Inter-church Loop

Team and individual sportsmanship awards were presented at parties held recently for participants in the South Side Branch YMCA Inter-Church Basketball Leagues.

Southwood Church of Christ won awards in both the Tuesday Junior and Intermediate Leagues. Thurman Methodist representatives won the high honor in the Girls' League, with South Methodist chosen as tops in the Wednesday Junior League.

The following girls and boys were selected by their teammates as the player on their team who displayed the best sportsmanship throughout the season: Sharon Boquist, Sally Metzgar, Judy Klingensmith, Margie Russell, Barbara Nicholson, Linda Bateman, Larry Gutridge, Bill Stout, Mike Debus, Dan Larimer, Ron Franz, Jim Cripe, John Summer, Gary Kipp, Robert Hoersdig, Robert West, Richard Fabing, David Blair, Sam Shannon, Jim Silvania, Ronnie Cooper and Tom Flocken.

Special league awards also went to the championship teams. Oakwood Methodist copped the Intermediate title, Frebis Church of God proved best of the Tuesday Junior class, while St. John E. & R. added two more cups to their trophy case by copping the Girls' and Wednesday Junior Boys pennant races.

Church League Umps To Meet

In an effort to better their softball program for the 1960 season the South Side Y Inter-Church Athletic Association has scheduled umpires' meeting for Monday, Apr. 11, at the South Side Branch YMCA, 864 S. Third-st, at 7:30 p.m.

William Hickle, former minor league baseball star, and now umpire in the Columbus area, will be present to instruct the group.

All churches fielding teams in the South Side Y League are urged to have their umpires present and any other interested persons are welcome.

Apartments For Elderly Moving Along

While architects complete plans for a West Side Senior Citizens Center, the Columbus Metropolitan Housing Authority expects to advertise within a week for bids to build a similar housing unit at Champion and Mt. Vernon-avs.

The 10-story apartment will include 124 living units. CMHA Director Taylor said the city has decided to air-cool the chapel, library, office and community rooms of the near East Side residence center. A master TV antenna is also being considered, he said, "since good reception is essential to the happiness of the elderly residents."

The city now holds title to all the vacated properties on the site near Sunshine Park. Title insurance is being acquired and demolition bids will probably be advertised by the end of the month, Taylor said.

Parking at the side of the road at night, says the Columbus Auto Club, always is a dangerous practice. If you must pull off the road in an emergency, make certain you are completely off the highway. Leave your car lights on and use flares to warn traffic of your presence.

South Nine To Meet Hounds In Opener

South High's baseball squad will try again this afternoon to open its baseball season at Grove City. The Bulldog's scheduled opener last week at Grandview was cancelled because of wet grounds.

With eight lettermen returning from last year's squad, Coach Bob Fearing is looking forward to a good season.

Defense wise, the Bulldogs figure to be fairly good, but will need to fill the shortstop position. Hitting should be better overall from last year. Tom Noble led the Pup batsmen last year with a .400 average while Jim Cordell was close behind with .398.

Lettermen from last year's squad who will be required to share a major share of the Bulldog load are Cordell, Gene Harper, Willard Kirby, Ken Lee, Jerry Meinrod, Dick Guyer, Zimmerman and Spencer Mizelle.

Last year, South finished with an 8-4 record in the City League and 10-7 overall.

Apr. 8—North.
Apr. 12—Aquinas.
Apr. 14—at West.
Apr. 18—at St. Charles.
Apr. 22—Marion-Franklin.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Outdoor Fun Possible On Shoestring Budget

With the income tax deadline drawing nigh, and the government issuing statements on the cost of living it's difficult to get away from the subject of money for very long. So, what about the cost of outdoor sports?

Fishing widows, members of bowling leagues and television watchers have always done a lot of talking about the tremendous cost of fishing and hunting. But, when you get down to actualities, maybe it isn't so.

Today it's possible for a neophyte angler to equip himself for months of outdoor pleasure with a small outlay of money. For instance, a cane pole can still be purchased with pocket change and a can of worms can be obtained for the price of a little exercise. Evan a good rod and reel combination isn't expensive. There are some dandy rigs on the market that retail for less than $12. Of course, a rod and reel are just a start. A man needs a variety of lures and miscellaneous equipment which can total $100 or more, and once he really gets the bug he will want a more expensive rod and reel.

I'd like to know how many rabbits and squirrels were shot in Ohio last year with single action shotguns. Certainly the total was tremendous, for these inexpensive guns are as efficient for one shot as any others. Choke requirements might not be exact, and the fit of the stock may not suit an expert gunner but these single shot weapons are popular and they are effective.

Hunting, then, is much the same as fishing—it costs just about what you want it to. In general, quality equipment is the best investment. The first cost is only slightly higher, and maintenance cost is almost nonexistent. Reputable manufacturers replace equipment which fails, and will repair worn equipment at very low cost.

Fishing: 30 Cents An Hour

A boat and motor require more of an outlay, but such an investment is worthwhile to many people. One fellow who keeps tabs on such things purchased an aluminum boat and a 10-hp outboard three years ago, and he figures he has already gotten his money back. Despite the fact that he owns a boat, motor, and a considerable amount of fishing tackle, he estimates that it costs him approximately 30 cents an hour to fish.

Candidate Offers U.S. Bond, Cash In Essay Contest

A prize of a $25 U.S. Savings Bond will go to the first place winner, $10 to second, and a copy of "History of Ohio and Its Government" to third place winner.

Participants are asked to write not more than 75 words on the subject, "My parents should vote in the primary election because. . ." Entries should be received no later than Apr. 20 and addressed to Stockton For State Representative Committee, 224 Leland-av. The contest is sponsored by Edward J. Stockton, 1265 Country Club-rd, candidate for state representative.

TB Drive Ends Up Over Top

For the first time in three years the Franklin County Christmas seal campaign surpassed its $200,000-goal, the Tuberculosis Society has announced.

Receipts from the 1959 campaign totaled $201,408.45 on Mar. 31, end of the Tuberculosis Society's fiscal year, according to Dr. James R. Hull, general chairman. This is a seven per cent increase over 1958.

1959 contributions averaged $2.47, 15 cents more than in 1958, to set a new record for individual donations. Contributors increased from 80,363 in 1958 to 81,381 in 1959.

Christmas seal receipts finance free tuberculin tests for school children and free industrial and community X-ray programs in every part of the county. Contributions also pay for health education programs provided without charge in classrooms in every area of the county, and for important medical research on tuberculosis and other lung diseases.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Outdoor Fun Possible On Shoestring Budget

With the income tax deadline drawing nigh, and the government issuing statements on the cost of living it's difficult to get away from the subject of money for very long. So, what about the cost of outdoor sports?

Fishing widows, members of bowling leagues and television watchers have always done a lot of talking about the tremendous cost of fishing and hunting. But, when you get down to actualities, maybe it isn't so.

Today it's possible for a neophyte angler to equip himself for months of outdoor pleasure with a small outlay of money. For instance, a cane pole can still be purchased with pocket change and a can of worms can be obtained for the price of a little exercise. Evan a good rod and reel combination isn't expensive. There are some dandy rigs on the market that retail for less than $12. Of course, a rod and reel are just a start. A man needs a variety of lures and miscellaneous equipment which can total $100 or more, and once he really gets the bug he will want a more expensive rod and reel.

I'd like to know how many rabbits and squirrels were shot in Ohio last year with single action shotguns. Certainly the total was tremendous, for these inexpensive guns are as efficient for one shot as any others. Choke requirements might not be exact, and the fit of the stock may not suit an expert gunner but these single shot weapons are popular and they are effective.

Hunting, then, is much the same as fishing—it costs just about what you want it to. In general, quality equipment is the best investment. The first cost is only slightly higher, and maintenance cost is almost nonexistent. Reputable manufacturers replace equipment which fails, and will repair worn equipment at very low cost.

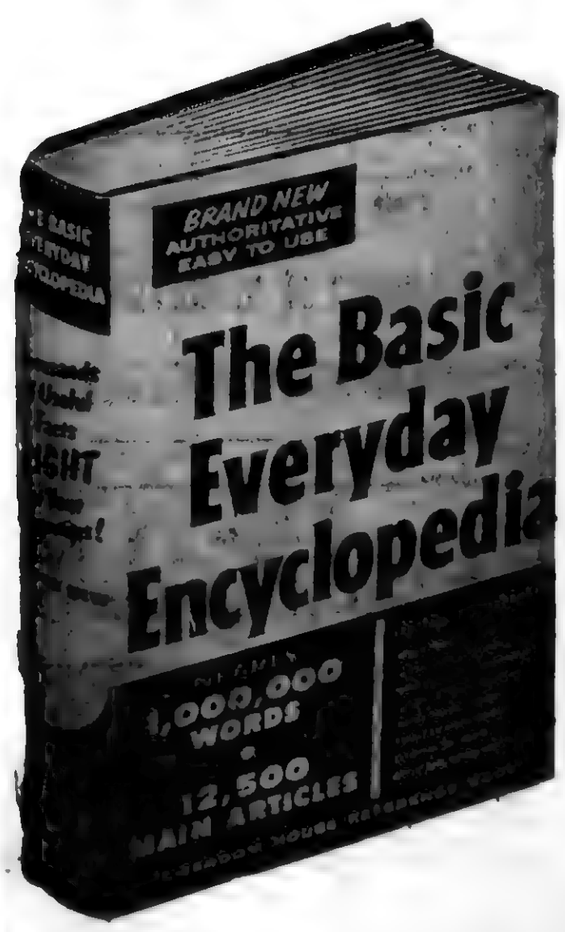
Fishing: 30 Cents An Hour

A boat and motor require more of an outlay, but such an investment is worthwhile to many people. One fellow who keeps tabs on such things purchased an aluminum boat and a 10-hp outboard three years ago, and he figures he has already gotten his money back. Despite the fact that he owns a boat, motor, and a considerable amount of fishing tackle, he estimates that it costs him approximately 30 cents an hour to fish.

Candidate Offers U.S. Bond, Cash In Essay Contest

Students from seventh through 12th grades are invited to participate in a contest calling attention to the forthcoming primary election.

A prize of a $25 U.S. Savings Bond will go to the first place winner, $10 to second, and a copy of "History of Ohio and Its Government" to third place winner.



Participants are asked to write not more than 75 words on the subject, "My parents should vote in the primary election because. . ." Entries should be received no later than Apr. 20 and addressed to Stockton For State Representative Committee, 224 Leland-av. The contest is sponsored by Edward J. Stockton, 1288 Country Club-rd, candidate for state representative.

Radio-TV Club To Sponsor 'Book Bank' For Hospitals

"Book Bank Barrel" is a unique project conceived by the membership of the Columbus Radio-TV Club. Throughout the greater Columbus area, there is a need by hospitals for reading material for their patients, according to the club.

The annual collection of books by representatives of radio and television stations and their affiliated enterprises will help fill this need. The books received in this campaign will be repaired, classified and then delivered to the hospitals in this area.

Barrels are now placed in more than 40 locations around Columbus. Citizens are urged to locate old books and leave them in one of these barrel locations. Persons desiring to give books may also leave them at any radio or television station.

A documentary on the problems and joys of old age titled "The Living End" will be presented on "World Wide 60" Saturday, Apr. 9, at 9:30 p.m., on Channel 4.

The film will deal with the prejudice against the older persons in employment circles, and other prejudices that drive the old to the feeling that they are useless and lonely.

Pat Boone will originate his ABC-TV "Showroom" in at least five European countries for four successive broadcasts starting Apr. 14. It will mark the first time a regularly scheduled weekly telecast has done a successive series in Europe.

The 24th Masters Golf Tournament from the Augusta National Gold Club will be a highlight on Channel 10 Saturday, Apr. 9, and Sunday, Apr. 10. This will be the fifth straight year that the nation's top golf tournament will be seen on the CBS Network.

The tournament will be broadcast from 3 to 6 p.m. Saturday and from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

"The Art Carney Show," will present "Victory" Friday, Apr. 8, at 8:30 p.m. in color on Channel 4. This drama is an adaptation of the Joseph Conrad novel, and will co-star Lois Smith, Eric Portman and Oscar Homolka with Carney.

Red Buttons, only actor to win both an Oscar ("Sayonara") and an Emmy (Red Buttons Show), plays the first Western role in the Death Valley Days tale of "The Million Dollar Pants," to be seen on Channel 10 Sunday, Apr. 17, at 9:30 p.m.

Helen Hayes, Dame Judith Anderson, Siobhan McKenna, Charles Bickford, Geoffrey Horne and Kathy Willard will star in "The Cradle Song," best known among the plays of Spanish playwrights Gregorio and Maria Martinez Sierra, to be presented Sunday, Apr. 10 on the Hallmark Hall of Fame on Channel 4.

"A salute to the American Theater," special hour-long, star-studded program devoted to the theme of freedom and anti-discrimination in the theater, featuring excerpts from 12 outstanding dramatic and musical plays, will be re-broadcast Friday, Apr. 8, 9 p.m. on Channel 10. Franchot Tone will be the narrator.

'MYSTICDALE,' OHIO REMAINS A MYSTERY

Effort of Secretary of State Ted W. Brown to locate a community in Ohio formerly known as Mysticdale still leaves the answer a mystery.

Secretary of State Brown's interest in the matter was enlisted by Columbus Chief of Police George W. Scholer who received a letter from Mrs. Maude Devonna Campe Park of Utica, N. Y., who believes she may have had relatives in Ohio.

Correspondence from Mrs. Park, who was born May 1, 1871, the daughter of Charles Joseph Campe and Annie Belle Finley Campe, reveals that visitors have told her that her ancestors had real estate in this town in Ohio, believed to be near Columbus.

Now, Secretary of State Brown, exhausted all research on the subject, is hoping someone may shed some light on the town described by Mrs. Campe as follows

"The main street was known as Porter Avenue, which continues over the county line, the road leading straight into Columbus, 14 miles distant.

"There was a police station, court house, postoffice, hospital, Presbyterian church—all in close proximity to Porter Avenue. There was a Park called Darian Park in which stood a statue of a citizen called Gregory Darian. On the eastern border of the town was a hamlet called "The Lick."

Those who aided Brown in the search, including the Ohio Historical Society join in the thought that such a town or city may have existed or still exists in some other state but the Columbus angle has them puzzled and intrigued.

PRESENTATION — Maurice Searle White receives the Mardico Award from James L. Wagner, right, assistant executive secretary of the South Side Branch YMCA.

MARKS SECOND RECIPIENT

Maurice White Named Mardico Award Winner

Maurice Searle White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. White, of 180 Benfield-av, has been named the recipient of the second annual Mardico Award, presented by the South Side Branch of the YMCA Marion District Council at its 26th annual Athletic and Recognition Banquet.

The award had its origination in 1959 and is to be presented to some worthy young person living within the former Marion Township area, which is now referred to by the South Side YMCA young people as the Marion District.

The Mardico Award is based on merit, character, performance, competence, Christian attitudes, sportsmanship, community service and self-application.

The judges said that Maurice is well-liked by classmates, has many friends, is very honest, courteous and obedient, expresses himself well orally, is a good thinker, well mannered, works well with others and uses good judgement as a rule.

The award winner has been a member of the Marion District Clubs since 1953, served on their council, and has accepted leadership responsibilities to the South "Y" Fornof Club.

Maurice's general academic rating in school shows slightly below average level of his class but he is rated high in application of abilities. He has participated in the school chorus, camera club, wrestling, projection club and Junior Hi-Y.

His hobbies include television and radio listening and viewing, mechanics, travel, swimming, baseball and basketball. He attends Benfield Church of Christ.

Maurice is an active member in the Ohio National Guard and assists his father with classes on "Safe Handling of Guns," sponsored through the National Rifle Association and Southeast Conservation Club.

Group Wants To Forestall Slum Area In South Side

300 Attend Sunday German Society Meet

Nearly 300 persons filled the Schiller Park auditorium to overflowing Sunday when the German Village Society met to review progress made in promoting restoration of the historic South Side.

The goal of the Society is to make the old German section of the South Side an excellent place to live and forestall a slum area.

A moving picture in color was shown to illustrate how this was done for other historic communities in the United States. There are now more than 100 paid members plus many volunteer workers interested in the project.

A boost was given to the efforts of the organization last week when five society board members were appointed by local groups.

They are Richard Higgins, of the Greater Columbus Board of Realtors; Fred C. Kaiser and Adolph Vogt, Columbus Maennerchor; Otto Kuepfe Jr., of Swiss Homes Association; and Norbert Mueller, of Germania Club.

The next two houses which the Society will undertake to restore are located at 754 Mohawk-av and 660 City Park-av. The group has permanent offices at Third and Sycamore. The phone number is CA. 1-8888.

Richard Eislet, director of the American Institute of Architects offered an outlined program for the Society to bear on as they wished.

The outline given by Eislet was drawn up by Israel Stollman, professor of planning at Ohio State University.

Eislet gave Stollman's complete program and then offered a few of his own ideas to help in the restoration and rehabilitation of the area.

Council president William Hicks and Councilman William Hoermle were also on hand and introduced at the meeting.

South Senior Essay Winner

He received a $50 scholarship for his winning essay on curfews as a means of curbing juvenile delinquency.

Hundreds of outstanding students from 43 states participated in the test.

Kevin was nominated by Robert Youmans, P.O.D. teacher at South, to participate in the test.

In addition to the essays, the students' scholastic abilities, honors and letters of reference were also considered in selecting the winners.

South High Athletes Given 26th Annual All-Sports Dinner

By John Auble, Jr.

It probably will never happen—but if they ever decide to give out an award to the school who staged the most unique athletic banquet, South High would be a high-ranking candidate for the nomination.

The 26th annual festivities were unique for one main reason — the usual "long winded" speakers were absent from the program.

Instead, the 1959-60 All-Sports Banquet Tuesday night followed this pattern:

The varsity men in all five sport (approximately 175) first met in the gymnasium. There they played badminton, shuffle board and basketball.

Then, the group gathered in the cafeteria for a chicken dinner. After the meal, they continued their games in the gym.

"The informalness of the banquet was well accepted," said John Colmery, head basketball coach. "The students liked the fellowship environment."

Besides the varsity athletes, the Girls' Athletic Association award winners were also present.

According to Colmery, the trophies were handed out in an all-school assembly nearly a month ago.

This 26th annual dinner marks the end of athletic activities for a good part of the varsity men.

Eight lettermen will be returning to Coach Bob Fearing's blue and gray baseball squad.

Looking over the athletes in the cafeteria, Colmery had this to say in conclusion: "There's no question about it. We were down this year." He smiled and added, "What more can a coach say at an athletic banquet except "Wait until next year!"

Fred Paas Dies At 59

He is survived by wife, Ruth E.; two sons, Fred H. and Edward; two daughters, Mrs. Anna Gehweiler, Ruth Saulters; two brothers, Edward and Louis; four sisters, Mrs. Francis Berndt, Alma Paas, Mrs. Bertha Hall, and Mrs. Anna Daehnke; 16 grandchildren.

2nd Community Night Planned At Jet Home

Why does the South Side feel very close to baseball?

Because many years ago organized baseball in Columbus got its start on the South Side.

That fact was brought out Tuesday night at the first meeting of a committee of the Council of South Side Organizations which will conduct the second annual South Side Community Night at Jet Stadium.

Co-chairmen of the committee are Harry Sells, South Side druggist, and Howard Henry, who through the years has worked with youth groups.

The special night — designed to be a community holiday—will be Friday, June 10, when the Columbus Jets play the Rochester Redwings. If the game is rained out, community night will be Saturday, June 11.

By then, committee members agreed, Columbus may well be on its way toward winning the International Baseball League pennant.

The council and organizations that make up the council will share in part of the proceeds from the sale of tickets to the community night. Their receipts will go to help finance their various youth programs.

Tickets will be available May 2 and they will go on advance sale at Fountain Drug Store and the South Side YMCA.

South Siders will be urged to attend the community night as family groups, with mothers and daughters and fathers and sons going together. A special effort will be made to get former South Siders to the event.

There will be a special entertainment program, details of which now are being worked out.

The committee will meet again at 8:30 p.m. Monday, May 2, at the South Side YMCA.

LIONS TO STAGE EGG HUNT

EGGS-ACTLY 2,000—That's the number of Easter eggs the Southeast Lions Club will have hidden at Schiller Park this Saturday for the annual hunt which gets underway at 9 a.m. There will be two divisions for boys and girls from six to eight and others five and under. Prize eggs totaling $116.80 in 10-cent to one dollar denominations will be among those hidden. Shown inspecting the eggs are (from left to right) Frank Neubeck, Stu Jones and Mike Mileusnick. Helping color the eggs were the Golden Agers and the Schiller staff members.

Children To Scramble For Eggs At Schiller

The Easter Bunny will be a busy fellow the day before Easter distributing 2000 eggs at Schiller Recreation Center in preparation for the egg hunt, scheduled to start at 9:00 a.m. on that day.

All boys and girls eight years and under are invited to participate in the hunt for 500 prize eggs which represent a cash value of from 10 cents to one dollar.

The children will be divided into two separate age groups and each will have its own section of the park in which to hunt.

Those who wish to hunt are asked to come to the Recreation Center building by 8:30 a.m. At the Center they will be divided into the following age groups; Five years and under will go to the auditorium and the six, seven and eight-year-olds will assemble in the Game Room for instructions.

The hunt will continue for about 45 minutes, after which the children finding prize eggs will be awarded the prize according to the color egg found. Only holders of prize eggs will be permitted back in the building after the hunt.

The hunt is co-sponsored by the Southeast Lions Club who will furnish the prize eggs and the Columbus Recreation Department.

Tom Randle Named New Jet Batboy

When the Columbus Jets open their season with Montreal, Wednesday, April 20, they'll have at least one new face kneeling in the dugout.

At a special dinner last Tuesday evening, Tom Randle, a Hilltonia Jr. High 9th grader, was named Jet batboy for the 1960 season.

The blond, six-foot, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Randle, 862 Demorest-rd, was a unanimous choice of the judges.

Tom is quite a sports fan, baseball—of course — ranking the highest. "It will be quite a thrill to be part of an organized baseball team and that would be possible as batboy" he wrote as one of his reasons why he wanted to be batboy.

TO HONOR PRESIDENTS

Southgate Optimist Club will honor past presidents on Apr. 27, at the Columbus Maennerchor, 966 S. High-st. Dinner will be by reservation. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Kirby Wheeler, Mrs. Herbert Eichhorn and Mrs. Harry LaVine.

Fun Carney To Be Held At Schiller

Schiller Recreation Center will hold its annual Fun Fair Carnival next Friday, from 4 to 8 p.m. in the gymnasium. Booths, barkers and many prizes will be there for the youngsters.

Sponsored by the Columbus Recreation Department, the Fun Fair will have no charge for admission.

Council Praises Village Group

In a special resolution passed Monday night, Columbus city councilmen commended the South Side's German Village Society for its neighborhood restoration project.

April 11 was also established as the starting date of a city-wide clean-up drive.

Ground Broken For Big Bear Store

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Great Southern Big Bear Supermarket were held for the huge shopping center south of Columbus on route 23 last Tuesday.

This newest Big Bear store is the first leg for Great Southern's expansion to the north, which will add another 40 acres and some 35 new stores to the center, according to Don Casto, developer.

Besides the Big Bear Store, this first expansion includes the construction of McDonald's Drive In and Household Finance.

The new Big Bear, a 28,500 sq. ft. store with an all-glass front and year-around air conditioning, will have a completely new design in store planning, according to Wayne E. Brown, who officiated at the ground breaking ceremonies.

This new store will be the sixteenth Big Bear supermarket serving the Columbus area and is another step in its continuing policy of "growing with Columbus," Brown added.

The company, with general offices at 770 W. Goodale-blvd, now operates 31 supermarkets in Ohio and West Virginia.

Society Urges Seal Users To Send Gifts Now

Local Motorcycle Racer Advises 'Keep Your Head And You'll Win'

Dick Klamfoth, winner of 17 national motor cycling events, considers racing an art. He said, "Use your head and keep out of trouble and you can usually win."

Klamfoth, who lives on Simsrd. near Groveport, engages in racing as a sport rather than a profession. The stakes aren't high enough for racing to be followed as a career, according to him.

He competes in 30 races a season on the average and travels 35 to 40,000 miles a year to attend meets throughout the country. Klamfoth said that the largest purse he ever won was $2,500 at the Daytona races. He came in first in this 200-mile race in 1949, 1951, and 1952.

Dick ran into trouble this year at the Daytona meet, when a racer spilled in front of him on the fifth lap and he hit his cycle. Klamfoth got up and continued in the race until the fifteenth lap, but was forced to quit the race because his engine was starved-out by a pinched exhaust. He said that at the time of the accident he was doing well, having moved up from sixtieth position to the fifth spot.

Klamfoth doesn't consider motorcycle racing a dangerous sport. Of the 7000 riders who enter the races throughout the country, one or two riders are killed yearly. He rode in 30 events last year and saw only two or three broken limbs.

He believes accidents are few because of the good sportsmanship of the racers.

He is looking forward to an added event this year in Ohio. Motorcycle races will be held at the Ohio State Fair in Columbus on the last day of the fair. He believes the $3500 purse will draw competitors from all over the country. He stated there will be nine different racing events on the last day and a motorcycle show the whole week of the fair.

Dick began racing as a novice in 1947, when he was seventeen and started racing in the expert class in 1949. He has won races at Laconica, N.H.; Richmond, Va.; Columbus; and Heidelberg, Pa. besides at Daytona title. He has also won the Canadian National Championship.

Join The Crusade On Cancer Tuesday, April 26

Fight Cancer With A Check-up And A Check

You can do two things to guard yourself against cancer: Have an annual health checkup. Alert yourself to the seven danger signals that could mean cancer.

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. A sore that does not heal.
4. Change in bowel or bladder habits.
5. Hoarseness or cough.
6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing
7. Change in a wart or mole.

If your signal lasts longer than two weeks, go to your physician. Give him the chance to give you the chance of a lifetime.

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Meats—Ham, pork loin roast, fryers, steak "specials."

Vegetables — Asparagus, broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, lettuce, celery, carrots.

Fruits — Valencia oranges, grapefruit, bananas, pineapple, frozen orange juice, frozen strawberries

YOUR EASTER MARKET BASKET

Ham is often considered to be the traditional meat for Easter. All kinds of hams are plentiful and, as usual, they are leading the meat "special" for the holiday week. However, a fresh pork loin roast or chicken may be an economical choice for you this year.

If your family prefers beef, you may find steak sales, featuring rib, round, sirloin and cube . . . and there is a good supply of fresh mushrooms to go with your steak. Lamb is available but you will likely pay a little more than last year because of the lower supply. Cold March weather and muddy roads seriously curtailed lamb marketings.

VEGETABLE CHOICES MORE VARIED

This week you will notice quite an increase in the supply of brightly colored crisp vegetables. Price tags, too, are more in your favor. For your Easter dinner, you can't go wrong on broccoli, cauliflower, or fresh asparagus. Head lettuce, as well as leaf and Bibb, are good salad choices. For variety, choose from endive and escarole, too. You may want to splurge a bit and use greenhouse tomatoes. Though the price is still high, the flavor is excellent. Vine-ripe tomatoes are also good, and the price quite reasonable.

HAVE PLENTY OF FRUIT ON HAND

The eating quality of grapefruit is at its very best. You're wise to use lots of them, for grapefruit prices will go up in a hurry as the season nears an end. Try thin slices of avocado with grapefruit. A huge crop in California explains the low prices on avocados.

More bananas for April than in March is the prediction. So, you can expect their price to stay low. Strawberry prices are still rather high and quality varies . . . you may want to use the frozen ones for awhile longer. Louisiana reports that its harvest will begin next week.

OTHER BUYS

You'll have no trouble finding all the high-quality eggs you want for Easter breakfast or the egg hunts that follow. Egg prices have leveled off after the recent sharp rises. Extra large and large sizes continue to be the best buys.

BROILER SUPPLIES have been curtailed to some extend by the recent cold stormy weather in the South which damaged many broiler houses. However, dealers are offering them at near cost levels this week, making them among the best meat choices.

FISH MARKETS will offer the first catch of Lake Erie perch this week. Dealers say the lake water is still very cold which means excellent flavored perch. Lake Superior herring and fresh smelts are also in good supply.

ENJOY YOUR EASTER FOOD SHOPPING.
IT SHOULD BE FUN

Local Resident Objects To Health Board Charge

Charged with failing to obey a board of health order, Ernest Rader, 201 Barthman-av, vowed to fight to keep his 50-gallon trash drum at his home instead of a regulation 30-gallon covered container.

Rader had his case continued to Thursday, Apr. 14, because his attorney was out of town.

"That drum is none of their concern," said Rader, who operates a general contracting firm from his home. "I have trash from that drum hauled away by a private firm and I put my garbage in another, regulation sized can."

Rader is one of more than a dozen persons who were ordered last week to replace improper refuse containers in what Dr. Joseph Drayer of the Board of Health called a "spring campaign."

"If I beat this charge there'll be some Cain raised." Rader stated. "I had to go downtown (police headquarters), be fingerprinted and post bond ($50) like a common drunk or criminal."

The South Side Branch YMCA, 864 S. Third-st, will hear reports on Clean-Up, Paint-up Campaign, South Side Community Night, and the Fourth of July Celebration on Thursday, April 14 at 7:30 p.m.

St. Mary High Presents Senior Play Apr. 28, 29

St. Mary High School's senior class will present its annual play on Thursday, Apr. 28 and Friday, Apr. 29 at 8 p.m. at Mohawk Junior High auditorium.

The play, "All in the Family", will have different casts on each of the nights. Several of the leads are performed by Lannie Wold, Judy Gaitten, Robert Ferstle and David Smigelski.

New Cleaning Method Used By Duraclean

Four major cleaning problems of floor coverings have been solved by the modern Duraclean process, George C. Bailey, owner and manager of Duraclean Service Co., 1146 Wilson-av, said this week.

He explained that floor coverings depreciate not only from ordinary wear, but because of an accumulation of soil, grit and sand deposits.

"When a carpet becomes matted", he said, "it imprisons this grit and sand so that the ordinary vacuum cleaner cannot remove it. Each sharp edge of these thousands of tiny particles becomes a little knife that cuts into the fabric pile whenever a foot presses against it.

Bailey explained the Duraclean process has solved four of the major cleaning problems by reenlivening the pile allowing free passage of grit to the vacuum cleaner; neutralizing and removing acid accumulations caused by smoke, soot and perspiration; eleminating the necessity for periodic scrubbing; and affording a safe treatment for even the most delicate rug.

Bailey is a member of "Duraclean of America" and his service dealership is part of a world-wide organization.

EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES — J. C. Penney and Company has opened a garden shop in its Great Southern Shopping Center store. Poor Knots In Fishing Lines Can Cut Strength 40 Per Cent

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Breaking of the knot used to tie fishing line — the weakest part of the linkage between angler and his catch—can be virtually eliminated. Studies conducted by DuPont show that selection of the knot and the way in which it is tied are the two most important factors in preventing loss of fish through knot failure on spinning line and leaders.

Repeated runs on electronic testing machines, backed up by high-speed movies to show why knots fail, proved that three knots will handle every fishing job usually, maintaining from 90 to 100 per cent of rated line strength.

Results with other knots varied widely.

Clinch Knot Preferred

For tying spinning lines and leaders to flies, lures and hooks, the improved clinch knot is recommended:

1. Thread the end of the line through the eye of the hook or swivel.

2. Double back and take at least five turns around the standing part of the line. Knot strength drops off sharply with less than five turns.

3. Thrust the end between the eye and the first loop, and then back through the big loop.

4. Slowly pull the knot up as tight as possible. Cut off the end at one-eighth inch. Do not attempt to break it off by hand.

Turns Important in This One

The best knot for joining two lines together is the blood knot:

1. Lap the ends of the strands to be joined. Twist one end about the standing part of the opposite line, making at least five turns. Count the turns to be sure. Four turns can drop the strength of a 10-pound monofilament down to eight and one-half pounds. Bend end back over turns and place between strands. Shift hold to prevent unwinding.

2. Repeat procedure for the opposite side, winding five turns in the same direction. Push end through strands at center of lap.

3. Pull the knot up slowly and tight, allowing the turns to gather, and cut off ends.

Improved End Loop

For those times when you need an end loop in your line, this knot is suggested:

1. Form a double strand by bending back about four to six inches from the end.

2. Then fold the "U" bend back and spiral around itself five times.

3. Next, insert the end of the "U" bend through the first loop made by its backward turn.

4. Pull up as tight as possible without breaking.

BEGINNER'S LUCK

The classic example of a beginner's good fortune belongs to Tore Falk, of Sweden. He made his first horse bet the other day, and collected his winnings — $125,000.

TV Specials Highlight Future Programming

Two hours of religious programming will highlight the Easter Sunday telecasting by WBNS-TV, Channel 10, and will feature the Catholic Easter Mass in the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception and the Protestant Easter Festival Service from the National Cathedral in Washington, D. C.

The Catholic service will be televised from 10 to 11 a.m., with His Excellency Archbishop Egidio Vagnozzi, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, as the celebrant.

From 11 to 12 noon, the Protestant Easter Festival will feature the Very Rev. Francis B. Sayre, Jr., Dean of the Cathedral. Both programs will be telecast live.

More televising radiance for the televiewing audience includes a total of 26 baseball games of the Cincinnati Redlegs which will be seen on WLW-C, Channel 4, announced James Leonard, vice president and general manager.

Of the 26 Redleg games presently scheduled, 13 are being played in Cincinnati, 13 are away, 13 are in color and 13 in black and white.

WTVN-TV, Channel 6 on your frequency selector, announced that they will telecast the Mike Wallace narrated controversial space film, "The Race for Space."

Columbus viewers will get a chance to view the film, despite the fact that it was denied time on the three major networks as a matter of Company policy because the film was not produced by their own news department staff. It will be shown April 27 at 7:30 p.m.

"The Race for Space," gives the true facts, impartially and objectively about the race between the USA and Russia in missile development. It contains American and Soviet rocket films never before seen outside our Intelligence Service, including first views of the dog-carrying Sputnik II.

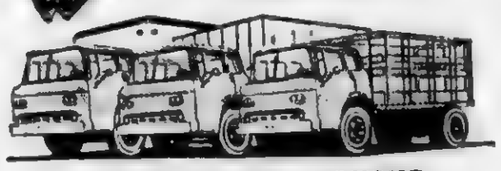
From the "Where to Go for "Entertainment" department, Mershon Auditorium on the Ohio State University campus announced that reserved seat ticket sales for the Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong "pop" concert began Tuesday, April 12, at the 15th and High-st ticket office.

The show, sponsored by Ohio Staters, Inc., is a related event of Ohio State's traditional May Week activities.

Program time is 8 p.m., May 6.

The OSU Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Norman Staiger, will present its annual home concert at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 24, also at Mershon Auditorium.

Highlight of the concert will be the performance of Gail Kubik's "Litany and Prayer," a work written especially for men's chorus and brass and percussion instrumentation. The School of Music Brass Choir, under the direction of Richard Suddendorf, will provide accompaniment for the Kubik work.



Admission to the program is free.

tuffed Crow ic In Area with the stuffed bird until 1914.

In that year, Mrs. Munday, realizing the young girl's attachment to the prized memento, gave the object to her.

The animal was placed on a stand in Mrs. Reiselt's parents' parlor, and continued to receive the admiration of the neighborhood children. Mrs. Reiselt brought the object with her to the Toy-rd residence, when she married. It now adorns one of the upstairs rooms of the household.

Mr. Reiselt, who also enjoys collecting antiques, prizes a boiler whistle brought to this area in 1840 by settlers immigrating from Eastern Pennsylvania.

A legend regarding this whistle relates that the settlers blew the whistle in elation when the crossing of the Allegheny Mountains was finished. The pressure built up in the fired-up boiler, being carted across the mountains by wagon dislodged the whistle from its mountings.

Reiselt also has a collection of early American farm implements, and a butter mold and pepper mill passed down through the family.

Mrs. Reiselt displayed a collection of old china and crystal including a 100-year-old wedding jar that converts into a fruit compote, when turned upside down.

They have a 50-acre farm, which Reiselt cultivated in spare time, before his watchman's duties begin for Ohio State Department of Public Works. One of the farm buildings was built of timbers that were originally in a pre-Civil War distillery operated by W. F. Reese, original owner of a large tract in the vicinity of Reese Station.

Mr. Reiselt, who also enjoys collecting antiques, prizes a boiler whistle brought to this area in 1840 by settlers immigrating from Eastern Pennsylvania.

A legend regarding this whistle relates that the settlers blew the whistle in elation when the crossing of the Allegheny Mountains was finished. The pressure built up in the fired-up boiler, being carted across the mountains by wagon dislodged the whistle from its mountings.

Reiselt also has a collection of early American farm implements, and a butter mold and pepper mill passed down through the family.

Mrs. Reiselt displayed a collection of old china and crystal including a 100-year-old wedding jar that converts into a fruit compote, when turned upside down.

They have a 50-acre farm, which Reiselt cultivated in spare time, before his watchman's duties begin for Ohio State Department of Public Works. One of the farm buildings was built of timbers that were originally in a pre-Civil War distillery operated by W. F. Reese, original owner of a large tract in the vicinity of Reese Station.

WORTHLESS

A North Carolina grand jury indicted a man on charges of trying to sell counterfeit Confederate money through the mails. The grand jury said he advertised it as the real thing.

Homemaking Hints

Put Zip Into Vegetables; Your Family Will Love Them

Bertha B. Everhart

Watch your family clamor for more and more vegetables when you try different methods of preparation; vary the seasoning and serve them more attractively.

Have you ever tried baking vegetables for a change? If not, try baking, sliced, diced or shredded potatoes, carrots, beets and squash in a casserole while your meat or main dish is in the oven. Red beets taste so good when shredded and baked. Peel red beets thinly, shred, add about one tablespoon water per red beet, salt and butter to season. Cover tightly and bake at 350 degrees for 20-25 minutes.

Any kind of squash may be diced and baked as for red beets. Winter squash (acorn and Hubbard) are excellent when cut in half and baked cut side down in a flat pan containing about one-fourth inch of water. When about tender, turn squash upright and season with salt, butter, brown sugar or honey. Bake 15-20 minutes longer.

By Steaming

Braising or panning produces vegetables which are unusually flavorful. Carrots, celery, beets, cabbage, cauliflower, spinach and other greens are good and different when prepared by this method. Slice, dice or shred the vegetable. Melt one or two tablespoons butter in a heavy skillet or saucepan, add vegetable and salt. Toss until vegetable is coated with fat. Do not add water. Turn heat low, cook covered or uncovered until tender but crisp.

By Broiling

Slice raw potatoes one-quarter inch thick, place on broiler pan, brush with butter, sprinkle with salt. Broil until brown, turn, brush with butter, add salt and complete cooking. Large Spanish or Bermuda onions, eggplant and tomatoes, are excellent broiled in the same manner.

By Seasoning

If you haven't already done so, experiment with herbs. Try adding a pinch of basil to peas; rosemary or marjoram to green beans the last few minutes of cooking time.

Important Reminders

To insure vegetables retaining their maximum in food nutrients: peel and cut vegetables just prior to using them; peel thinly—a swivel knife is an aid; cook in little or no water until crisp-tender.

Old Stuffed Crow Is Relic In Area

A stuffed crow that fascinated the children of Shadeville in the early 1900's is one of the prized possessions of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Reiselt, Toy-rd, Hamilton Township.

The crow was a pet of the Jacob Kinnel family of Fulton-st in Columbus until 1880, when the talking bird died and was stuffed.

The bird came to Shadeville in 1905, when one of Mr. Kinnel's grand-daughters, Mrs. Henrietta Munday, moved to the village. Mrs. Reiselt recalls herself and other children playing make-believe games with the stuffed bird until 1914.

In that year, Mrs. Munday, realizing the young girl's attachment to the prized memento, gave the object to her.

The animal was placed on a stand in Mrs. Reiselt's parents' parlor, and continued to receive the admiration of the neighborhood children. Mrs. Reiselt brought the object with her to the Toy-rd residence, when she married. It now adorns one of the upstairs rooms of the household.

Mr. Reiselt, who also enjoys collecting antiques, prizes a boiler whistle brought to this area in 1840 by settlers immigrating from Eastern Pennsylvania.

A legend regarding this whistle relates that the settlers blew the whistle in elation when the crossing of the Allegheny Mountains was finished. The pressure built up in the fired-up boiler, being carried across the mountains by wagon dislodged the whistle from its mountings.

Reiselt also has a collection of early American farm implements, and a butter mold and pepper mill passed down through the family.

Mrs. Reiselt displayed a collection of old china and crystal including a 100-year-old wedding jar that converts into a fruit compote, when turned upside down.

They have a 50-acre farm, which Reiselt cultivated in spare time, before his watchman's duties begin for Ohio State Department of Public Works. One of the farm buildings was built of timbers that were originally in a pre-Civil War distillery operated by W. F. Reese, original owner of a large tract in the vicinity of Reese Station.

Mercy Hospital Pathological Clinic Now Equipped For Pre-Marital, Pre-Natal Blood Testing Program

STAFF CAN HANDLE ANY NUMBER OF PEOPLE PER DAY

By John Poeppelmeyer

For couples who are about to be married and for those who have been together long enough to become a trio, a new facility is now ready at Mercy Hospital to which the young and the about-to-have-young can avail themselves.

Full approval has been given to Mercy's Clinical Pathological Laboratory by the Ohio Department of Health to conduct pre-marital and pre-natal blood testing.

"This is just a part of Mercy's continual efforts to provide the best in medical and hospital care for those in the community," observed E. B. Beard, administrator.

Tests are available, he continued, at anytime of the day and night by simply coming to the hospital. "Courteous and qualified technicians are on duty to perform the tests required," he added.

The laboratory staff is in the capable hands of Leonard Baker, the chief medical technologist. His aides are Evelyn Weininger, Richard Smith and Kathleen McClanahan. Baker pointed out that his staff can handle any number of people a day who would desire a test.

"It usually takes around six months for approval from the State Health Department to come through", Baker explained. During the six months evaluation period, his staff was selected to run 30 or more seriologys a month. Also part of the pre-requisite for state approvals is that so much space be allotted for testing.

What happens to the blood after it is taken? To a layman the technical terms are oft times confusing, but the procedure involved is fairly simple.

Purpose of this is to take the serum off, according to Baker. Serum is the watery portion of the blood.

The serum is then placed into a water bath for 30 minutes at 56 degrees centigrade. This process, Baker explained, is to inactivate any remaining substance that could interfere with the serum.

It is next placed on slides where an antigen is added. The anti-bodies in the serum act in opposition to the antigen.

Next, the "concoction" is placed on slides where technicians looking for a clumping action to take place, which would indicate the presence of venereal disease.

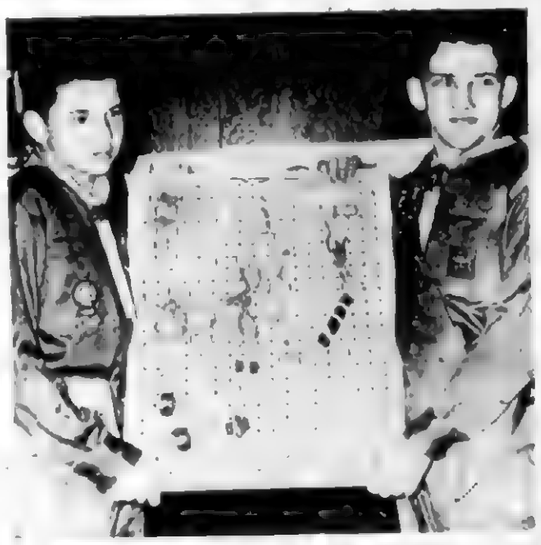
The whole process, Baker estimated, takes about an hour.

Local Boys Ready Projects For April Scout-O-Rama Event

Central Ohio's popular Scout O-Rama will be held this year on Saturday and Sunday, Apr 23 and 24 in the Buckeye Building at the Ohio State Fair grounds.

For the eighth year, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Explorer Scouts from Central Ohio will take part in this annual two-day scouting event, displaying more than 200 exhibits

An entirely new area called the Midway will be set up just outside the Buckeye Building It will be colorfully decorated and will contain 20 large displays such as a Camp Site, Tower Building, Trapping Display, and one of Monkey Bridge Building, plus others which are too unwieldy to house inside



Smaller exhibits will be shown inside the building. All displays will be manned by Scouts who will explain them and answer questions

Special acts in the bleachered arena, and music furnished by a number of Central Ohio high school bands, will provide entertainment

This Saturday Apr. 16, is officially called T-Day, and highlights the Scout-O-Rama ticket sales drive. From 9 a.m. until 3 p.m., all scouts will make neighborhood door-to-door calls selling tickets. Each ticket sells for 50 cents and will admit one adult or two children. Opening and closing hours are printed on the tickets.

For the convenience of visitors, clean rest rooms are located in the building. Ample parking space is provided free of charge, and refreshments are available at reasonable prices

Proceeds from ticket sales are distributed among various participating scout groups and the Central Ohio Council of Boy Scouts of America. The scout groups use the proceeds to support activities within their groups, while the Central Ohio Council uses its share for camp development.

The Scout-O-Rama is sponsored by the Central Ohio Council of Boy Scouts of America and the Columbus Junior Chamber

Scioto Swim Club Plans June Opening

The site is located on High-st north of Williams-rd adjacent to the Oakes Trailer Court.

CATHOLICISM EXPLAINED—Explaining and showing a golden chalice, used in the mass services at St. Leo's church, 221 Hanford-st, is Monsignor F. J. Schwendeman (center). An open house of the parish will be conducted Apr. 24, starting at 2:30, as a community good-will project. Listening to Monsignor Schwendeman are, left to right, Michael Sterlecky and Bill Moore. Both men are members of the Holy Name Society which will conduct the tours through the church. The public is invited.

St. Leo's To Hold Open House As Community Good-Will Project

If the past is any indication of the future, Monsignor Schwendeman is expecting some 200 people to attend the Third annual Open House Sunday at St. Leo's Church.

"About 150 people attended last year," Monsignor Schwendeman said, "and the crowds have been getting progressively larger."

The event, held for the explanation and community goodwill of Catholicism, will be sponsored by the men of the Holy Name Society, Mike Strelecky, chairman.

The church, located at 221 Hanford and Bruck-sts, is one of the oldest and largest parishes in Columbus. According to Strelecky, the church is nearly 50 years old and has a membership of more than 800 families.

The public will assemble in the school hall where refreshments will be served. From there they will be divided into small groups and led on a tour of the parish.

This tour will include the explanation of the Holy Water Font, the Vigil Light, the Baptistry, the stations of the Cross, the confessional, the geneflection and the various other parts of the church.

Members of the Holy Name Society will serve as guides for the tours.

Bill Moore, publicity chairman, announced that the proceedings will start at 2:30 p.m. and will continue until 4, Apr. 24.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic religion is cordially invited to attend.

Besides Msgr. Schwendeman, who is the dean of Columbus Central Deanery and the Holy Name Society, Father Ogerchuck will assist in the day's activities.
